PATTISON'S LIFE ENDS.

Death of Governor of Ohio Sudden.

Long Struggle With Disease Unexpectedly Terminated at Milford Home.

Physicians Were Confident Few Hours Before That He Was Better.

Lieutenant-Governor Harris Is Sworn In to Succeed Late Executive.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CINCINNATI, June 18.—John M. Pattison, Governor of Ohio, died at his home in Milford, a suburb of this city, at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon.

He had passed a good night and there was no report of any serious change during the day. During the afternoon the news from his home was considered favorable and the announcement of death came without warning.

JOHN M. PATTISON, the dead Governor of Ohio.

That the death of the Governor was entirely unexpected was evident when it was remembered that in a contest over the requisition of Elisorth Liverpool in the courts in this city today both of the Governor's physicians appeared to testify that his condition was such that he was able to transact official business.

His private secretary, L. B. Houck, also testified to his good condition, explaining that he recently had gone over much business with him.

CAMPAIGN WEAKENED HIM.

Although there had been for months an expressed fear that Governor Pattison would not be able to return to his office at Columbus, the cheerful statements from his sick room tended to create a belief that any fatal outcome of his prolonged sickness would be long deferred.

Not at any time a man of powerful physique, Gov. Pattison entered upon the responsibilities of his office in a somewhat weakened condition. The strain of the political campaign had so worn on him that a trip to the South was taken in November and December in the hope of regaining his health.

However, when he returned he was still weak and under the advice of his physicians his part of the inauguration ceremonies was gone through with the utmost care.

A glass covering was provided for the reviewing stand, that he might be protected from the stormy January winds, and through that he reviewed one of the most elaborate parades that has ever graced the inauguration of any Governor.

He then went to his home, from which he only emerged for a few short walks until brought to this city on a special train during the night of April 5.

He continued to oversee the work of his office, and through his private secretary, Louis B. Houck, who was his running mate on the Democratic ticket, transacted considerable public business even when unable to arise from his bed.

As soon as his weakened condition permitted he was brought to Cincinnati, spending several weeks in Christ Hospital and a week ago he was brought to his country home at Milford.

He had been reported as steadily gaining since then, although a report was current last week that he had suffered a relapse.

Andrew Lintner Harris, Lieutenant-Governor, who under the constitution becomes Governor during the balance of the term for which Pattison was elected, is a Republican. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, November 17, 1835.

He graduated at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, with the class of 1860 and the following year entered the Union army, being mustered out a brigadier-general by brevet.

He was admitted to the bar in 1865.

He was elected Lieutenant-Governor both times that William McKinley was chosen Governor.

STATE CAPITAL IN MOURNING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLUMBUS, June 18.—The news of Gov. Pattison's death cast a gloom over the State capital. The flag on the capitol was ordered at half mast and arrangements were made for a formal meeting of State officials tomorrow to take appropriate action and arrange to attend the funeral.

Gov. Pattison had not completed the reorganization of the various State departments and institutions at the time of his death and inasmuch as Acting Gov. Harris is a Republican, it is regarded as improbable that any of the remaining Republican appointees will be disturbed.

SUCCESSOR SWORN IN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EATON (O.) June 18.—The oath of office was administered to Acting Gov. Andrew L. Harris here tonight by Judge Fisher of the Common Pleas bench.

PATTISON'S LIFE EVENTFUL.

John Pattison, boy-soldier, lawyer, State legislator, Member of Congress and Governor of Ohio, was born in Clermont county, Ohio, June 13, 1847.

He enlisted as a volunteer in the United States army when but 16 years of age, in 1864, and entered college immediately after being mustered out, graduating at the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O., with the class of 1869, having been a college mate of United States Senator J. B. Foraker.

He was admitted to the bar in 1872 and elected to the lower house of the Legislature in 1873.

From 1874 to 1876 he was the attorney for the Committee of Safety at Cincinnati.

He became a member of the Ohio Senate in 1890, and was then elected to the Fifty-second Congress.

For the past fifteen years he had been president of the Union Central Life Insurance Company. He was a Democrat and one of the leaders of the State Senate in support of legislation for a more stringent observance of Sunday.

His position on this point was well known when he was given the Democratic nomination for Governor one year ago, and it was because of this that the Anti-Saloon League gave him its support.

On a beautiful hillside near his home his body will be laid to rest on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock after services in the Methodist Church.

TWO ELECTROCUTED.

Thousands of Volts of Electricity Pass Through Body of Former Angelene.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VISALIA (Cal.) June 18.—J. C. Pardue was instantly killed at 10:30 o'clock today three miles east of this city. He was taking a derrick along the road and the top of the derrick caught in the main supply wires of the Mount Whitney Power Company.

Nineteen thousand volts passed through Pardue's body.

He came from Los Angeles to Visalia.

LINEMAN KILLED BY LIVE WIRE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) June 18.—Inadvertently touching the top of his head to a wire carrying 10,000 volts of electricity, Jack Lockwood, a lineman, was burned beyond recognition this afternoon. The accident occurred on top of a telephone and electric light pole at Union avenue and East Ash streets.

BIG VERDICT ECHO OF MONTANA MINE WAR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BUTTE (Mont.) June 18.—Mrs. Alice Olsen was awarded $35,000 damages today in Judge George M. Bourin's court for the death of her husband, Samuel Olsen, in January, 1904, in the Michael Davitt mine. Olsen met his death from a blast fired, it is alleged by employés of the Heinze interests, operating the Rarus mine, adjoining the Davitt.

The killing of Olsen, together with a companion named Divel, marked a chapter in the relentless underground war between F. Augustus Heinze and the Amalgamated Copper Company.

Litigation at that time was pending between the companies as to the ownership of certain ore bodies in the Michael Davitt claim. The 1000-level of the Rarus mine, owned by Heinze, corresponded with the 600-level of the Pennsylvania, an Amalgamated property end-lining the Rarus.

An order of court was secured permitting the Amalgamated company to raise from the 600 to the 1000 of the Rarus. Divel and Olsen were working in this raise and when they broke through into the Rarus workings the Heinze interests sought to drive them out by burning rags and other refuse in the drifts.

RELIEF FLOUR SOLD.

Thirteen and a Half Million Pounds Goes, the Cost Price Being $3.60 a Barrel.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The heavy surplus of flour sent here by eastern sympathizers has been sold by the Finance Committee to the Globe Milling Company. Of the lot 12,000,000 pounds sold at $3.60 a barrel and 1,500,000 pounds at $3.16.

The committee reserved 750,000 pounds for relief purposes which according to the present demands will last more than six months.

When the first sale of this flour was contemplated a bid of $2.25 a barrel for the whole lot was received. This was rejected by Gen. Greeley, who had been authorized by the Finance Committee to sell it.

The committee considered that the supply was in excess of every possible need and as there were practically no warehouse facilities it has been stored on three army transports. Its removal from the transports had been ordered and rather than pay storage on it the committee decided to sell the flour and convert the proceeds into other and more pressing forms of relief. The entire lot will be exported.

FINSTAD'S RELEASE ASKED.

Through Intervention of Secretary Shaw, United States Takes Hand in Mexican Case.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. F. Powell, whose brother is an attorney at Des Moines and the lifelong friend of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, declares that he has interested Shaw in the case of Ole Finstad, sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary with "Shorty" Coughner for the killing of Bob Rutherford and C. W. McMurray at the Finstad ranch near Diaz, Chihuahua.

He says that through Shaw the State Department at Washington has requested of the Mexican government direct proof of the guilt or the release of the two men.

Gov. Creel stated to Powell that there was no direct proof of the men's guilt, but that they were sentenced under Mexican law because they were present and could not prove that others committed the crime.

Creel's statement sent to Shaw, did the work.

ITALIAN THEATER BURNED.

MESSINA (Sicily) June 18.—The Mazzini Theater here was destroyed by fire today.

WARM GREETING FOR NORWAY'S SOVEREIGNS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHRISTIANIA, June 18.—King Haakon and Queen Maud journeyed today from Molde to Christiansand and were received everywhere with enthusiasm. Their greeting at Christiansand was particularly warm. The municipality of that city extended a formal welcome to the sovereigns.

An interesting feature of the day was the arrival here this morning of the Norwegian delegates from America to King Haakon's coronation.

A large crowd gathered at the quay, where numerous American flags were displayed, and welcomed the visitors warmly. The delegates proceeded later to the monument erected to the memory of Henrik Arnold Wergeland, the Norwegian poet, which was covered with American flags, and placed a number of large wreaths at its base.

Prof. Hans G. Stub of Hamline, Minn., in behalf of the visitors, delivered an address conveying to the Norwegians friendly greetings from their brothers in America, and congratulating Norway on attaining its independence. A large crowd thronged the park, cheered the speeches and joined in singing Norway's national anthem.

The American party will start for Trondhjem tomorrow.

HEARST THREATENED WITH UNION TROUBLE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OAKLAND, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Like an asp warmed in the bosom of man who had befriended it, San Fransisco unionism is raising its ugly head with threats of setting its fangs into Hearst's Examiner, which has pandered to unionism at every opportunity.

The Stereotypers' Union is threatening dire things to Hearst because of complications which have arisen in his San Francisco-Oakland publication.

Immediately after the great fire the Examiner leased the Oakland Tribune plant and used the latter's machinery for issuing its daily edition. Later, the Examiner was able to return to San Francisco with its own mechanical equipment, and has been issued there since.

Last week the Examiner began the issue of what is termed the "Oakland edition of the Examiner."

Matrices are sent over from San Francisco on the last ferry boat, the plates are made in Oakland and the edition for this city is printed here.

The unionists insist that this shall not be done; that the union rule must apply, which provides that no matrices shall be used which are not made in the city where the publication is printed.

Trouble arose once before in Examiner circles over the use of matrices for the colored supplement sent out from Chicago.

The matter was compromised by Hearst agreeing to divide among the San Francisco stereotypers as additional wages an amount of money equal to the cost of producing similar plates.

The unions insist that this be done again in the Oakland case, but the Hearst managers hesitate.

The unions say the money must be forthcoming or they will make trouble for all the Hearst papers.

SUES FOR HER BONDS.

Mrs. Virginia Kimber of Santa Barbara Wants an Accounting from Agent.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Gunnell mining claims in Gilpin county, the oldest worked mines in the State, which were located many years before the Civil War, are a subject of controversy in a big suit before the United States District Court.

Mrs. Virginia Kimber of Santa Barbara, Cal., is suing Frank R. Young, an investment agent formerly of this city, for $57,000 and interest due on bonds.

Joseph Kimber located and developed the mines, and when he died in 1899 he had a large mill running on ore taken from them. He had authorized Young to sell the mines at $350,000 and after Kimber's death an organized company which purchased the mines paid her $125,000 in cash and $57,000 in bonds.

The interest coupons on these bonds have been paid only once since 1900 and Young refused Mrs. Kimber's demands for overdue interest and therefore she is suing Young for their face value with interest to date.

JAP FIXES BLAME.

Quake Damage Due to Bad Mortar.

Mikado's Expert Says Most of Responsibility Rests Upon Contractors.

Had Good Material Been Used, Says Dr. Nakamura, All Would Be Safe.

Gives Recipe for Making Up Mortar That Resists Severe Shocks.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—"Dishonest mortar—corrupt conglomeration of sea sand and lime—was responsible for nearly all of the earthquake damage in San Francisco," says Dr. T. Nakamura, professor of architecture of the Imperial University of Tokio and one of the most distinguished members of the committee dispatched to this city by the Japanese government to investigate the effects of temblor and fire.

After investigations covering a period of weeks, Dr. Nakamura has completed his labors and will sail on the Korea Wednesday to report his conclusions to his government.

"I find," said Dr. Nakamura today, "that much of the damage to San Francisco from the earthquake was due to poor mortar and faulty construction, and the greater portion of the damage to the class A buildings by fire was the result of the misguided use of hollow tiling and so-called fire-bricks instead of concrete.

"It is an easy matter, I have found, to design a building that will be not only earthquake-proof, but practically fireproof.

"There has developed, as a result of the earthquake in San Francisco, great prejudice against brick buildings. However, they are largely employed in Japan, where earthquakes of greater severity than the one experienced in this city are not uncommon. The secret of their success, however, lies in the fact that good mortar is used.

"The mortar should either be composed of one part cement to two parts of sand, or of one part of cement, three of lime and five of sand. The bricks should be thoroughly wet before being laid and when the mortar has set under these conditions a wall becomes practically like a solid stone."

LAW REACHES TOBACCO MEN.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY INDICTS THE "TRUST."

After a Year's Fight the MacAndrews and Forbes Company, the John S. Young Company, and the Two Presidents of the Concerns Must Face Charges in Trial Court.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Federal grand jury today handed down an indictment charging the MacAndrews and Forbes Company, the John S. Young Company of Baltimore, and the presidents of the two corporations, Karl Jungbluth and Howard E. Young, with violation of the Sherman Anti-trust Law.

The indictment is the result of an investigation into the so-called Tobacco Trust Company commenced by the Federal grand jury in 1905.

The indictment returned today charged the accused knowingly engaged and conspired in a combination in the restriction of trade and commerce, destroying competition and maintaining arbitrary and non-competitive prices in the sale of the licorice paste.

The indictment contains a long series of correspondence signed by the accused, both as corporations and individuals, all showing a control of the licorice paste market and a constantly increasing price to be charged to the independent manufacturers.

After a conference between the attorneys for the defendants and Messrs. Taft and Levy it was agreed that Jungbluth and Young should appear on Wednesday and give bail in $5000 each.

CONGO NATIVES TURN REBELS.

ANTWERP, June 18.—Dispatches received here today from the Congo Independent State report a general revolt of the natives of the Kwango district. Several factories have been pillaged and burned. Reinforcements have been sent.

JEWISH SLAUGHTER GROWS IN HORROR.

Dead Frightfully Mutilated and Faces Spiked With Nails.

Streets of Bialystok Are Charnel Troughs and Bodies Lie Rotting for Days—Firm Belief That the Russian Government Connived at the Bomb Throwing to Draw Attention Away from Its Own Internal Strifes.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18.—The embargo on news from Bialystok was lifted today, and the accounts from the sacked city give a picture of the scene of ruin and desolation left in the wake of the mob.

According to frequent bulletins order was restored and maintained throughout the day in spite of the incentive to disorder at funerals, which were in progress almost the whole day, but the atmosphere is supercharged, and a slight event may suffice to precipitate a renewal of street fighting.

The authorities apparently realize this, and hope to avert such a catastrophe by a show of force. On one occasion the whole garrison was called out on some alarm, and the streets were literally packed with horse, foot and artillery until the danger was passed.

CENSORSHIP SEVERE.

The story told is a dreadful one, but there are indications that the correspondent has been prevented by the censorship from relating further details about the condition of bodies, the utter bestiality of the mob and the inability of the troops to cope with the excesses during the first days of the rioting.

It is evident from the dispatches that the excesses assumed the character of a three cornered fight between the military, the mob and armed members of the Jewish Bund, who, instead of submitting passively to slaughter, as their unarmed religionists have done heretofore, carried the war into the enemy's camp and fought bravely though without inflicting appreciable loss on the troops, among whom no serious casualties have been reported.

DETAILS ARE HORRIBLE.

Horrible details have been sent out by a correspondent, who managed to send his story by a messenger Sunday afternoon. The correspondent, who accompanied Stchepkin directly to the hospital, escorted by a corporal's guard, says he was utterly unnerved by the sights he witnessed there.

"Merely saying that the bodies were mutilated," the correspondent writes, "fails to describe the awful scenes. The faces of the dead have lost all human semblance and the corpses simply are crushed masses of flesh and bone soaking in blood. It is impossible to conceive of such bestiality.

"The body of Teacher Aptzain lay in the grass with the hands tied. In the face and eyes had been hammered three-inch nails. Rioters entered his home and after fearful outrages killed him thus and then murdered the rest of his family of seven. When the corpses arrived at the hospital they also were marked."

"It also was marked with bayonet thrusts.

CHILD'S LEGS CHOPPED.

"Beside the body of Apstein lay the corpse of a child of 10 years, whose leg had been chopped off with an ax. Here also were the dead from the Schlachter home, where, according to witnesses, soldiers came and plundered the house and killed the wife and seriously wounded Schlachter and his two daughters.

"I am told that soldiers entered the apartments of the Lapidus brothers, which were crowded with people who had fled from the streets for safety, and ordered the Christians to separate themselves from the Jews. A Christian student named Dikar protested and was killed on the spot. Then all of the Jews were shot.

"Some of the corpses were marked with fire. These had been brought from a burned tannery and showed bullet and bayonet marks.

PROTECTING HER HUSBAND.

"In one corner of the yard was a demented Jewess trying to cover the body of her husband, but her efforts were in vain, as the blood simply oozed beneath the inadequate covering."

From the wounded in the hospital the correspondent heard many pitiable stories, all of the same general tenor. Here is the account of a badly wounded merchant named Nevyashiky:

"I live in the suburbs. I tried to reach the town through the fields, but was intercepted by roughs. My brother was killed, my arm and leg broken, my skull fractured and I was stabbed twice in the side. I fainted from loss of blood and revived to find a soldier standing over me, who asked: 'What, are you still alive? Shall I bayonet you?' I begged him to spare my life. The roughs again came, but spared me, saying: 'He will die; let him suffer longer.'"

GOVERNMENT'S HAND.

The correspondent, who adopts the bitterest tone toward the government, attributes the responsibility to Police Lieutenant Schermatieff, and says the distinctive characteristic of the outbreak, in which it differs from the excesses of Odessa, Kishinev, Gomel and Kiev, aside from bestiality, is the comparatively small amount of actual robberies committed. The participants seemingly were not inspired by motives of loot, but of murder and destruction pure and simple.

He also holds that the participation of troops has been completely proven, and quotes Deputy St. Chepkin as saying that this is clearly shown by the demoralization of the soldiery consequent on the removal of all restraint.

The correspondent declares that not only the soldiers, but their officers also participated, and that he himself was a witness as late as Saturday to the shooting down of a Jewish girl from the window of a hotel by Lieut. Miller of the Vladimir Regiment. The Governor of the province of Grodno, who happened to be passing at the moment, ordered an investibation.

SUFFERINGS OF WOUNDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BIALYSTOK, June 18.—Quiet reigns today throughout this devastated town. Firing was heard at midnight on the outskirts of Bialystok near the cemetery, but no further disorders have occurred.

The total figures of the casualties are not available, but seventy bodies were buried today. This is claimed to be less than half the total of the killed.

Jewish estimates say that not less than 200 were killed. The number of wounded is enormous.

Surgeons have arrived from Warsaw to assist the overworked staffs of the hospitals in caring for the injured.

A few instances of the excesses were the bestiality and brutality with which the victims of the massacre were treated. Some of the corpses were mere masses of pulped flesh, the wounded in some cases having scarcely a sound bone in their bodies.

The members of the lower house of Parliament who are here to inquire into the massacre are greeted as saviours by the population, who flock out of their houses with pathetic joy and relief. As the commissioners pass through the streets the people call down blessings on their heads and give them accounts of their sufferings.

The commandant of the troops has furnished the commissioners with an escort and has promised them every facility in conducting their investigation.

RUIN AND WRECK.

The windows and doors of the Jewish houses were wide open, giving a view of their wrecked interior, or were boarded up with rude wooden shutters, and everywhere could be seen weeping women hunting for traces of killed or wounded relatives.

The principal stores were either devastated wrecks or mere mounds of ashes, among which the wretched proprietors, last week rich, but now reduced to poverty, were wandering about weakly endeavoring to ascertain the extent of their misfortune.

Before practically every house left intact hung an ikon with a burning lamp, and the street doors were marked with great crosses, made with chalk or of cloth, to show that the inmates were Christians. The streets were patrolled by detachments of cavalry and infantry and the cordon of troops drawn around the town when the outbreak first occurred still was maintained.

The railroad station was occupied by the military and nobody was allowed to enter the town without a permit from the commandant. Strict martial law prevailed.

TAKES DRUG TO DIE.

Francisco Marrietta With a Life Full of Sorrow Feared for His Reason.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A would-be suicide, Francisco Harrison Marrietta, 35 years old, organist in Central Mission, whose father is supposed to be a wealthy Californian, lies in the City Hospital near death.

Marrietta, fearing that the morphine habit would deprive him of his reason, wrote three farewell notes and then took a big dose of the drug.

He was born on the ocean when his parents were en route from Spain to San Francisco. When he was a few months old, his father deserted his mother. Soon afterwards his mother abandoned the child and his sister in Golden Gate Park.

He was raised in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Chico by Eliza Hobart, now residing in Chico. He married when 14, becoming a father at 15, and when he was 20 his wife and baby daughter died and he was left with a young son.

Grief caused him to take morphine. The son now resides in Chicago.

Marrietta has no recollection of seeing his father, and does not know his name, but sometimes he receives money through a San Francisco attorney.

He will be taken to Los Angeles in custody of the United States marshal.

GOVERNOR SPARKS INJURED.

Auto Frightens Skittish Colt Driven by Nevada Executive and He Has Bad Fall.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While driving from Reno to the Sparks ranch on Virginia Road, this afternoon Gov. Sparks in company with J. H. Neven, State Bullion Collector, was thrown from a rig and sustained painful but not serious injuries.

Gov. Sparks's hip and arm were badly wrenched and his head lacerated. Neven's forehead was cut open.

Sparks was driving a colt from Alamo farm when an automobile overtook them. Fearing to have the animal see the machine he urged the horse. The auto caught them and the horse shied into an embankment.

A wheel broke, throwing the two out. Sparks kept hold of the lines and prevented the horse doing further damage.

FRENCH TAKE BONDS.

Pennsylvania Company's Securities Are Placed Abroad by New York Brokers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers, announced today that they have purchased from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for French account, 250,000,000 francs of the Pennsylvania Company's 12-15 year 3½ French franc loan of 1906, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

A member of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., in speaking about the matter, said: "We consider that the closing up of this transaction is a most important event financially. It marks the placing of the first direct American loan in Paris, and it is further the first officially sanctioned American loan placed there.

"It means that about $50,000,000 in French currency will come to this country. This French money will arrive here at a most opportune time. The issue price will be between 99 and par."

PRESIDENT AGREES TO HOUSE'S MEAT BILL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

[From Stereograph copyright 1906 by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.]

UPTON SINCLAIR,

Author of "The Jungle," which brought forth the President's investigation of "Packingtown." Many of Mr. Sinclair's spare moments are spent with his little four-year-old boy. Photograph made June 8 at his home near Princeton, N. J.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The basis of a complete agreement on the meat inspection legislation between the President and the House Committee on Agriculture was arrived at today at the White House. Speaker Cannon represented the committee in this instance and subsequently spent some time explaining the situation to the committee in its room at the Capitol.

Mr. Wadsworth.

The bill was practically completed when the committee adjourned today.

It will authorize an annual appropriation of $3,000,000 to pay the cost of inspection and will contain no provision for the levy of an assessment to make up any deficiency in the amount available for this work as suggested by Mr. Cowan, representing the Texas Cattle Growers' Association and later urged by the President.

COURTS CANNOT INTERFERE.

The court review provision will not be contained in the measure. This action meets the suggestion of the President. The words "in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture" will not be contained in the measure. This action meets the suggestion of the President also.

The section waiving the civil service law for one year in the selection of inspectors will go out of the provision—also one of the President's recommendations.

There is to be no date on the label of the packing of meat products. In this the president yields to the committee.

The language which gives inspectors the right to be in the packing plants at all times is amplified by the words "whether the same be in operation or not."

With these changes made, the President has indicated his entire satisfaction with the measure, which was reported from the committee as a substitute for the Beveridge amendment and was today recommitted to the committee, that the changes might be made.

HOUSE OF COMMONS DEBATE.

MEAT SITUATION CANVASSED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, June 18.—Chicago meat again formed the subject of several questions in the House of Commons today. Mr. Hicks-Beach, Conservative, son of the former Chancellor of the Exchequer, asked War Secretary Haldane what quantity of Chicago canned meat was supplied to the troops in South Africa during the late war and what proportion of interic deaths ought more properly have been described as due to ptomaine poisoning. The secretary replied that more than half the canned meat supplied to the British troops in South Africa during the late war came from the United States. He could not say how much of this came from Chicago. The war office knew nothing of any cases of enteric fever which could be classed as ptomaine poisoning.

Mr. Starkey, Conservative, asked if, in view of the fact that several persons died recently at Hull after eating Argentine meat and the unsanitary conditions under which American meat was prepared, the president of the Board of Trade would not take immediate steps to have each consignment of foreign meat, tinned or otherwise, inspected on arrival in the country, and a certificate issued showing the date of inspection.

SEGREGATES WOMEN.

"Segregate them." Thus has County Recorder Abel Davis solved the employment of women in clerical positions. Segregation, says Mr. Davis, is the thing. It keeps women in good humor, maintains their ambition and makes them methodical, careful and ambitious. Recorder Davis points to his own "Adamless Eden," the folio department of his office, as an example of segregation. There 128 women are working. Not one of them, it is boasted, gives Cupid a "look in." With no admiring eyes to attract they work, day after day, methodically and carefully they do their work. Some of them have been employed there twenty years. Mr. Davis is authority for the statement that marriage and love affairs are never spoken of in the folio department.

SIERRA FLOODS RUIN GRAIN

Fresno County Deluged by Mountain Waters.

Imperiling Citizens Aroused to Save Property.

Thousands of Acres of Crops Are Washed Out.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FRESNO, June 18.—The continued weather of the past week has melted the snows in the Sierras and the Kings and San Joaquin rivers higher than at any time since the terrible year of 1884. The water supply for all the ditches running through Fresno county that derive their supply from the Kings River, has been shut off, and these rivers are compelled to carry all the flood water. The Kings and the San Joaquin are out of bank and running over, flooding thousands of acres of valuable grain land. The situation at Laton, a small town in the Laguna De Tache grant, was so alarming that the people had to be driven from their beds by tolling a fire bell at 2 o'clock this morning. Many left their homes from the inrush of water.

To the north, where the San Joaquin and the Kings rivers have their source, the water is running in a stream sixteen miles wide and is rising.

It is estimated that over 10,000 acres of crops will be lost, and it is thought to be safe, have been made with the last three days. Farmers west of Jameson are moving their stock to places of safety. Today the approaches to White's Bridge, the highest bridge on the west side, were washed out, and the bridge although is the only crossing left in the country. The water is threatening at this point and sheep men are unable to get across to get into the Sierra foothills before they are penned in the mountains for the summer. Today 5000 sheep were taken across the bridge at Fresno and more are crossing.

Although the water has flooded many farms and levees have been built to prevent any more damage.

LEDOUX CASE NEARING END.

MOTION RESTS IN MURDER TRIAL.

Deed Is Shown in Reading of Letters to LeDoux Which Is Endearing Terms and Were Read to Him by Nine-Year-Old Brother.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STOCKTON, June 18.—When the case was taken today the prosecution announced that it would close its case against Mrs. Emma LeDoux, charged with the murder of her husband. McVicar, after two more witnesses had been briefly examined, by understanding court adjourned at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the time for the defense stating that it would be able to begin their case tomorrow afternoon adjournment was taken.

As to the motive of the murder the prosecution got in a number of letters this morning which Mrs. LeDoux had written to Eugene LeDoux before her marriage to McVicar and before her unhappy marriage to LeDoux. These letters were replete with endearments and declarations of undying love. They had been read to LeDoux by his brother, a nineteen-year-old boy, the reading being unable to read writing. The letters all went in under strong objections on the part of the defense, which were being renewed when court took a recess was taken, on the ground that the evidence was inadmissible. Followed by the prosecution. The important evidence was that of R. R. Rodgers, who testified that a man could live in the trunk of a car hermetically sealed, for a period of thirty minutes, and that, except for food and water, no ventilation in which the trunk was placed.

This examination brought out that the dead body had remained in the trunk of the car for some time this morning without ventilation and under similar conditions. Dr. Fitch testified as to clothing, as had observed in the case of McVicar. Rodgers testified that he took his pulse and respiration for three minutes and talked with Deputy District Attorney, and that they came in through cracks in the door, and then to read the thermometer at the time.

TWO DROWNS IN DITCH.

FALLS OUT OF WAGON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FRESNO, June 18.—Charles Hayes, the 5-year-old son of Arthur Hayes of Fresno, was drowned in an irrigation ditch this morning near that town. The boy was in the rear of a spring wagon driven by his father, and was thrown out of the wagon, as the team was crossing over the ditch. The father was unaware of the accident until he had driven a little distance. He then returned to the ditch and recovered the body of the little boy.

Fresno, June 18.—A. Hendrickson, a boy of 7 years, while bathing yesterday in water beyond his depth and was drowned despite strenuous efforts made to save him.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NAPA, June 18.—H. D. Richardson, a prominent member of San Pablo Lodge, No. 43, I.O.O.F., was elected today to the position of Grand Secretary of Odd Fellows in California, made vacant by the death of George T. Shaw of San Francisco.

The appointment was made by the standing committee of the Grand Lodge. Mr. Richardson has been chief clerk of the yards and docks at the Mare Island navy yards for the past nine years, and today tendered his resignation to take his new position.

Grand Master Theodore A. Bell leaves Napa in a day or two to visit various lodges in Southern California.

NO CARGO ON BOARD.

SAN JOSE LEAVES PORT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—With her coal supply for ballast the Pacific Mail Company's liner San José, sailed today for Panama and way ports.

For the first time in the history of the company a regular Panama liner left on her regular run without a pound of cargo. This is one of the consequences of the present labor dispute in the shipping world.

The big liner Korea, which will sail Wednesday, for the Orient will take on about 130 cabin passengers and a short cargo consisting altogether of Overland freight.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Was Asleep on Railroad Track.

SAN JOSE, June 18.—The inquest on the remains of William Purcell, run over and killed by a train yesterday at Tenth and Jackson streets, brought out the fact that he was asleep on the track. The trainmen were exonerated. Purcell, who was 27 years of age, resided with his mother at No. 62 North Tenth street, this city, and, besides his mother, he leaves four sisters.

TIMID RESIDENTS LEAVE.

Hundreds Desert Madison, Wis., on Account of Negro's Prophecy of Destruction.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MADISON (Wis.) June 18.—Fully 1500 people spent yesterday outside of Madison because of a superstitious fear of the destruction of the city, as predicted last week by a negro exhorter, who said the waters of Lakes Mendota and Menona would rise up and engulf the city because of its iniquities.

The exhorter called himself "Professor Jones." The prophecy was the talk of the city for several days and scores of timid people drew their deposits from the banks and left town. Hundreds crossed the lakes to pleasure parks, and railroads had to put on extra coaches to accommodate the outward rush. One man rushed a houseboat to completion and, with his family, occupied it.

University professors and ministers sought to allay the fear through the newspapers, but they were of no avail. Most of the frightened ones returned to the city last night.

Bakersfield Man, To Be Tried for Murder of Wife, Petitioning for Her Insurance.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, June 18.—Charles Smith this afternoon petitioned to Judge Bennett for the money, amounting to $417.50, derived from the insurance policies held by his wife, Nellie Smith, who was murdered and for whose murder Smith will be tried tomorrow. He asks that the money be turned over to him, he being the lawful husband of the deceased. Smith's trial will begin tomorrow morning in the Superior Court before Judge Mahon.

FARMING IN WATER.

Bakersfield People Gather Berries in Boats, and Ranching Is Done Under Serious Conditions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, June 18.—The South Fork is not nearly so high as at the flood period in May, and the total volume in the river is not so great as a consequence. At 1 o'clock today the record at the cañon was 6 feet 10 inches, which is four inches lower than the maximum point reached this year. The water for the past three days has alternated between 6 feet 9 inches and 6 feet 11 inches. The warm weather of yesterday and today will increase the flow, but it is not believed the danger point will be reached. In the flooded farming districts all settlers have moved away. Boats are the only means of transportation and the farmers are gathering their berry crops by means of boats.

Western Metropolis Versus Eastern.

Newspaper Advertising in New York Compared With Los Angeles.

The New York Herald in May, 1906 (last month,) printed a total of 1,033,982 agate lines of paid advertising of all classes; the New York World published 1,044,102 agate lines. Every other paper in the Eastern metropolis printed less than half this quantity of advertising.

The record of THE LOS ANGELES TIMES for the same month was 1,424,100 agate lines of paid matter of all descriptions, or nearly 400,000 lines more than the largest paper in the largest city of the United States. Local business men appreciate the value of newspaper publicity and are fully alive to the fact that The Los Angeles Times gives more for the money than any other newspaper in the whole country.

The Los Angeles Times regularly prints more advertising than any other newspaper in North America and more than any three of its local contemporaries combined.

WASHINGTON.

SMITH VEERS FOR CONDUIT.

Representative Now Willing to Compromise.

Proposes a Plan Which May Help Los Angeles.

His Act Looks Like Collapse of Opposition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I am anxious to compromise on the right of way for Los Angeles from the Owens River," Said Representative Smith today. When asked for the basis upon which he was willing to compromise, he said: "I am willing for Los Angeles to have the easement over public lands which would become forfeit after five or ten years if not used for the purpose the city has in mind of building a conduit from the Owens River to Los Angeles. The easement is only the right of way the transcontinental railroads got and did not prevent them from selling bonds.

"The Los Angeles bonds will be issued on the city's credit and can be sold as easily on the basis of easement as not. If Congress gives Los Angeles a fee simple title to the right of way it can be used for any purpose whatsoever, and practically speaking can't be forfeited. This is important because the country through which it passes is capable of high development along agricultural and other lines.

PLAN INEXPENSIVE.

"Another point in favor of the easement plan is that, according to my ideas, it would cost the city nothing. The fee simple would cost the city $3000 for a 250-foot strip.

"Another provision ought to be inserted in the bill for the benefit of the cattle interests. There ought to be crossings over the proposed right of way for live stock at frequent intervals. Otherwise cattle can't range freely on account of the fence which the city doubtless will erect to protect its right of way."

Smith further says these are the principal points at compromise that he is willing to accept, but he hints darkly at there being a "joker" in the bill which is bad for the government. He refused today to say what this is, but declared he would call it to the attention of Flint and McLachlan.

SMITH EVASIVE.

Asked whether he would be willing to concede to Los Angeles any amount of water it wants, if the right-of-way feature is fixed to his satisfaction, Smith replied evasively that "this is not the proper time to consider that question."

It is believed he has conceded McLachlan's point that the question of water rights has nothing to do with the pending bill. This was one point Smith dwelt most strongly on last week. He was willing that the city should have water for domestic purposes, but not for irrigation.

His changed position on this matter has started a belief that his opposition will collapse altogether before long, as indicated in his desire for a compromise before McLachlan gets a hearing before the Public Land Committee.

PROVIDE FOR STREAMS.

The Senate Appropriations Committee today reinserted in the Sundry Civil bill a $200,000 appropriation for stream gauging in California and elsewhere. This was done at the request of Senators Perkins and Teller.

The item of $30,000 for marking the forest reserve boundaries would have been put in if anybody had called attention to it.

Senator Flint will offer this amendment to the bill on the Senate floor.

ADVANCE GILLETT'S BILL.

Senator Nelson today reported from the Judiciary Committee Representative Gillett's bill for holding terms of Federal Circuit and District courts at Eureka. The measure was amended by striking out the provision for Humboldt county to provide quarters for holding court until the United States has taken the initiative.

NEW LOAN PLAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The San Francisco Financial Committee, which is seeking to obtain for the banks of this city a ten-year deposit of $10,000,000 from the U. S. Treasury, was granted a hearing today before the Senate Committee on Finance.

The committee met with little encouragement in regard to its suggestion, but it was believed that some plan could be arranged whereby the same purpose might be accomplished. To that end Secretary Shaw will appear before the committee tomorrow in Washington.

It is believed that this conference will result in an arrangement whereby additional circulation may be obtained by the San Francisco banks for the period required to recover from the effects of the earthquake and fire.

BILLS TO COME.

QUICK ACTION NECESSARY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Of the fourteen appropriation bills which are required to run the government, but five have become laws. These are the Urgent Deficiency, the Pension, the Diplomatic and Consular and the Army bills.

The Indian Appropriation bill has been completed so far as Congress is concerned and only awaits the approval now of the President.

Six others have been passed by both houses and are now in conference. These are the Fortifications, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial, the Postoffice, the Military Academy and the District of Columbia.

The Agricultural Bill has passed the Senate and the Sundry Civil Bill will reach the Senate today. The only remaining bill, the General Deficiency, has not been compiled by the Appropriations Committee.

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 18.—SENATE. After another day devoted largely to the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Bill, the Senate today passed that measure, with only eleven votes in the negative. In addition, several bills to which there was no objection received favorable action.

There also was further discussion between Senators Tillman and Hopkins over the resolution of the former for an investigation of the question of national bank contributions to political campaigns, which involved renewed reference to the failure of the Chicago National Bank.

The session of the Senate adjourned upon the official announcement of the death of Representative Lester of Georgia.

Speaking of the Chicago bank failure, Mr. Tillman charged that the Comptroller of the Currency had known for months before the failure that the bank had in effect loaned $15,000,000 to its president in violation of law. Senator Hopkins replied that Mr. Tillman had been misled by irresponsible Chicago men, and declared that the South Carolina Senator's "tirade" had proved another illustration of the fact that "a little learning is a dangerous thing."

No action was taken by the Senate.

The Senate today decided to insist upon its amendments to the Naval Appropriation Bill and to ask for further conference with the House.

The Senate Committee on Immigration today ordered a favorable report on the House bill making uniform the practice of courts throughout the country relative to naturalization.

The Senate today confirmed the nomination of J. A. G. Leishman of Philadelphia to be Ambassador to Turkey.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES HONORS RUFUS LESTER.

Desk of Dead Statesman from Georgia Is Draped in Black and His Associates in Congress Adjourn as Mark of Respect — Tuesday and Wednesday Suspension Days.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A black-draped desk in the hall of the House of Representatives today told the story of the passing of Rufus Lester, late Representative in Congress from the First Georgia District.

Rufus Lester.

Previous to any announcement, Mr. Wadsworth of New York asked unanimous consent, which was granted, that the Agricultural Bill, with Senate amendments, be recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Payne of New York, by unanimous consent, then fixed Tuesday and Wednesday as suspension days instead of today, in view of the early adjournment of the House.

Mr. Bartlett of Georgia announced the death of his late colleague, stating that he had been a member of the House for nearly eighteen years. He offered the usual resolutions, which were agreed to.

As a further mark of respect the House then adjourned until tomorrow.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Land Trials Postponed.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Justice Gould, in Criminal Court No. 1, today, excused the June jury panel, announcing that there would be no more jury trials at this term. This postpones the trials growing out of the investigation of land deals in the West until fall.

President Makes Nominations.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The President sent to the Senate today the following nominations:

Ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Turkey, John G. A. Leishman, Pennsylvania; to be placed on the retired list of the army with the rank of brigadier-general, Col. William R. Whitall, retired.

Leniency for Capt. Garst.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Secretary Bonaparte has completed his review of the case of Capt. Perry Garst, U.S.N., and has approved the finding of the court-martial, with a modification of the sentence. The court sentenced Capt. Garst to suspension of duty for one year on half sea pay and the loss of five numbers for allowing the battleship Rhode Island to go aground. The Secretary reduced the suspension to six months.

Perry Heath Ordered Tests.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—When the trial of George E. Greene and W. D. Doremus was resumed today Gen. Michener, one of the incorporators of the Doremus Machine Company, was called to the stand by the defense. Gen. Michener reiterated a conversation which he said he had with Perry S. Heath, the First Assistant Postmaster-General, and testified that Mr. Heath ordered two machines to be tested under the authority of the department.

French Captain's Attorney Pleads Case Before Supreme Court, in Paris, Alleging That Letter Introduced at Convicting Court Martial Referred to Someone Else.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, June 18.—The Palace of Justice was crowded today at the opening of the Supreme Court's public hearings of the Dreyfus case. Many women, including relatives of the former captain of artillery, were in court, but Dreyfus was not present.

Maitre Monnard, representing Dreyfus, summed up the results of his extended investigations showing the errors made at the Rennes court-martial.

The chief points were the incriminating letter stating that "D" was furnishing the Germans with valuable information, which contributed to the conviction of Dreyfus at Rennes, whereas it was now disclosed that the initial was "P" forged into a "D."

Another point was that the incriminating letters are now proved to have arrived after Dreyfus was serving sentence and it was established that one of the witnesses against Dreyfus at Rennes received considerable sums of money for his testimony.

Maitre Monnard argued against a further trial, saying that many of the witnesses were dead or had disappeared. Dreyfus, he added, did not ask for damages. He only desires the vindication of his honor as an officer and the official restoration of his name to the list of officers.

President Sends His Regrets at Being Absent.

Members of the Old Guard Tell Campaign Tales.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—In the Historical Musical Fund Hall the formal celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Republican party was begun today.

Delegations from all sections of the country are here to participate in the golden jubilee, a feature of which is the presence of nearly two hundred aged men, veterans of the Republican party's first battle, fifty years ago, when John C. Fremont was nominated for the Presidency.

The celebration is under the auspices of the National League of Republican Clubs which is holding its annual convention in connection with the jubilee convention.

Mayor Weaver delivered the address of welcome.

A letter of regret was received by President Moore from the President, as follows:

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

"I wish I could be with you at the golden jubilee convention of the Republican National League, but as that is impossible, will you convey to the delegates present my most hearty greetings and my earnest hope that the Republican League will have the same success in the future that it has had in the past and will be able to continue without check its work for good government?"

George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican National Committee, sent the following:

"I regret that I shall be unable to attend the golden jubilee convention. Please convey to the convention my congratulations and best wishes for their prosperity. May they continue worthy to follow the standard of the great party whose principles and policies have been for over half a century among the greatest factors in our moral and material development."

The President's communication elicited enthusiasm and the convention decided to forward replies to him and Mr. Cortelyou.

OLD GUARD PRESENT.

Charles Foster of Lebanon, Pa., who voted for Fremont and today celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday, occupied a seat on the stage with others of the "Old Guard." He brought an original Fremont and Drayton flag, which he carried during the campaign.

Rev. George H. Ball, D.D., of Cayuga, N. Y., who sat in the convention which nominated Gen. Fremont, delivered the invocation opening for today's proceedings.

The day's celebration wound up with a mass-meeting at the Academy of Music tonight at which Secretary of the Treasury Shaw was the principal speaker.

The meeting was opened by J. Hampton Moore, president of the National Republican League, who presented Gov. Stokes of New York as the presiding officer.

The Governor delivered a short speech in which he felicitated the Republican party for its achievements. He was followed by Secretary Shaw.

PERKINS CLAIMS LEAD.

COUNTS CONTESTED DELEGATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DES MOINES, June 18.—The managers of Gov. Cummins's campaign, claim to date 753 instructed and incontested delegates including Scott and Delaware counties, where contesting delegates were selected but will not come to the State convention.

In addition they claim Wapello, Jasper and Jefferson, a total of sixty delegates, which are contested by Perkins, and have lodged a contest against the twenty-three delegates for Perkins from Des Moines county, and a protest against the Perkins representation from Chickasaw of eleven delegates, giving Cummins a total, including contested delegations, of 852 delegates. Gov. Cummins's managers give Perkins 531 delegates, of which ninety-two are uninstructed and they give Rathbun ninety delegates instructed.

The Sioux City Journal, Mr. Perkins's paper, claims for Mr. Perkins 724 delegates, and gives to Mr. Rathbun ninety, claiming that the total of these, or 813, are anti-Cummins delegates. It gives Gov. Cummins 711 delegates. The figures for Mr. Perkins include all the contested counties, and in addition the total delegation from Dubuque county, where one-half have signed an agreement to vote for Gov. Cummins.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, June 18.—Nearly every affiliated Grand Council in the country was represented at the ninth triennial session of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the United States which convened in this city today. General Grand Master Andrew M. Swanstrom of St. Paul presided at the opening of the General Grand Council, and delivered his triennial address. Rev. W. Perry Bush of Chelsea was appointed General Grand Chaplain and John T. Kimball of Boston was appointed General Grand Secretary. There are now twenty-seven constituent Grand Councils, of which twenty-six were represented.

The thirty-third triennial convention of the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the United States will open tomorrow.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CARSON CITY (Nev.) June 18.—The message sent by Insurance Commissioner Davis to the National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, calling upon the company to pay its San Francisco losses in full, elicited the following reply from the company:

"This company is able to pay all its San Francisco losses in full, and has over half a million net surplus beside. Any report to the contrary is a malicious falsehood."

Commissioner Davis replied as follows:

"I regard your answer as evasive. Will you or will you not pay your San Francisco losses on a basis of 100 cents on the dollar?"

WOLF'S ULTIMATUM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—State Insurance Commissioner Wolf declares that he will eject between twenty and thirty fire insurance companies from the State unless they comply with the law requiring them to furnish him with lists of all their San Francisco policies, or give extensions of time for the filing of losses. Not only will the companies ignoring the commissioner's demand have their certificates of authority revoked, but their bonds of $2000 will be declared forfeited.

But this will be merely the beginning of the punishment of the erring companies, according to Commissioner Wolf. He says that facts of the companies' actions in this State will be placed before every chamber of commerce in the United States, before every prominent organization of business men, and in the hands of the American press.

"Those companies which have signed the stipulation," said Mr. Wolf today, "or have filed their lists of policy holders, have now complied with the law. Those who have not done so will have to leave the State of California. If the law is good—and I have no reason to think otherwise—I intend to enforce it to the limit. Two penalties are provided for in the statute, and the companies who have not met my demand will have their certificates of authority revoked, and will sacrifice their $2000 bonds."

Address to Throne Contains Honeyed Words for Peasant "Brothers," but Declares This Is Most Dangerous Period in Thousand Years for Any Change to Be Made.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18.—The position of the Russian nobility is made manifest in the address to the throne adopted by the Nobles' Congress recently in session here and now published for the first time.

While it contains honeyed words of solicitude for the peasants as "brothers" it does not yield an iota on the question of the distribution of land.

It characterizes the present as the most dangerous moment for Russia in a thousand years of her history, not on account of her foes, but owing to her internal enemies "who are seeking to seize the supreme power by blinding the people with false promises and deluding the peasants with dreams of free lands."

Twenty-six interpellations were presented today. One of them was on the subject of the recent death sentences at Riga and in order to prevent the shifting of the responsibility it was ordered to be presented both to the Minister of War and the Minister of the Interior.

AFTER MASSACRE, FUNERALS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19, 2:45 a.m.—A dispatch from Bialystok to the Associated Press dated at 8 o'clock last evening, but delayed by the censor, says:

"The day passed without any important renewal of disorders. Pillaging and attacks on Jews have ceased in isolated cases.

"The troops apparently are in full control of the situation but the small bands of armed revolutionists are still making a fight against the troops, firing occasional shots but without casualties.

"Funerals have proceeded throughout the day without even the procession being escorted from the hospital to the cemetery outside the town by a detachment of troops.

"A force of Cossacks and dragoons, with horses saddled, stand constantly at the entrance of the police headquarters, in instant readiness to sally forth.

"Normal life is being resumed in Bialystok. A few stores have been opened, provisions have arrived and a few cabs are appearing in the streets.

"The commission from the lower house in Parliament, in returning to their hotel this afternoon, found their way blocked by a crowd of Jews and orthodox Christians, wishing to relate piteous stories."

PEASANTS MOB POLICE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

YURIEV POLSKY (Province of Kostronma, Russia,) June 18.—In consequence of the interference of the police with a meeting of peasants in a tavern here last evening, an immense crowd gathered and drove the police and guards into their barracks. The mob paraded the streets all night, carrying red flags and singing revolutionary songs.

Board National City and Make Arrests.

and Three Men Charged With Murder.

Firearms and Ammunition Found in Concealment.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Four men are under arrest and charged at the Harrison-street Police Station, with being accessory to the killing of Walter Welliver of the Sailors' Union. Police officers last night as he, with several other members of the union were assaulting the steamer National City in a launch for the purpose of inducing the non-union crew to desert the vessel.

Those accused of the murder are Orlando Hammer, Jas. B. Hubbard and Daniel T. Cahill and Frank Mar-

Arrests were made after an all night search on the bay by the police and crew of the National City, which immediately after the shooting was towed from her moorings at the foot of Folsom street to Hunter's Point. The wounding officers were all armed with rifles and were prepared for any emergency that might have been made.

WEAPONS ON BOARD.

The men on the National City were found to have large numbers of weapons and plenty of ammunition in their possession, but they permitted the police to go aboard. They did not raise any resistance until the police detectives attempted handcuffs upon the wrists of Orlando Hammer, Jas. B. Hubbard and Daniel T. Cahill and Frank Mar-

Captain Fredrickson, who was acting in command of the National City, took no part in the shooting and was taken from the boat. He was found in the police quarters of his own vessel, however, and made an unsuccessful effort to communicate with the police boat.

Captain Bird, of the launch which carried the union sailors to the National City last night, declares that the shots were fired upon were entirely unprovoked and made no hostile move after the men on the National City opened fire on them.

The shooting has created a tremendous excitement on the water front, but seems to have had no appreciable effect on the labor situation.

DENVER, June 18.—The Central Labor Union decided yesterday to take steps for going into politics and to this end to the organization of a national labor party. STOLEN CHILD IS RECOVERED.

PHILADELPHIA KIDNAPER TAKEN BY CLEVER RUSE.

Police Announce That Search Is Abandoned, Then Pounce Upon Thief When He Ventures from House — Frederick Muth, Aged Seven, Has Thrilling Experience.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—Little Frederick Muth, who was kidnaped from school on Tuesday last, was recovered from his captor in a sensational manner this afternoon.

For several days the identity of the kidnaper has been known to the police, but despite the efforts of 400 men who have been working on the case, he was not located until today.

Accompanied by one of his men, Chief of Detectives Donaghy went to No. 426 North Sixty-second street in West Philadelphia, and there found Joseph Kean with his captive.

Kean attempted to escape, and was shot at by the detectives. The bullets missed their aim, but Kean surrendered and was taken to police headquarters.

The kidnaper, who is 47 years old, is described as a former stock broker who had recently been a real estate agent.

He has a wife and three children, and it is believed that his desperate financial situation drove him to his crime.

FIVE TOHUSAND DEMANDED.

In communications to the father of the child he demanded $5000 for the boy's return, and in a letter written on Friday declared he would kill the child and himself if the money was not forthcoming. Kean's terms were acceded to in a "personal" inserted in all of the Saturday papers.

Then in a subsequent letter, Kean proposed new terms, and these were likewise accepted and another "personal" inserted yesterday. Meanwhile misleading reports have been given to the public in order to serve their purpose.

The boy, who is only 7 years of age, was apparently unharmed, except that he bore evidence of suffering from hunger and exposure. When the kidnaper and his victim were brought before Superintendent of Police Taylor the boy still had in his hand the school books he had when he was enticed from school by a decoy note purporting to be from his mother.

CLEVER RUSE OF POLICE.

The house in which they were found is an unoccupied dwelling on the outskirts of the city.

The capture was primarily due to the publication in today's newspapers that the police had abandoned the search for the kidnaped boy. This threw Kean off his guard and he ventured outside the house.

Detective Blair, who was watching the house, pounced on him and succeeded in forcing a confession from him.

When the boy was found in the house he was dirty, not having been washed since last Tuesday. He said he had been kept constantly in the house, had been given bread and milk to eat, and was not mistreated. Kean was locked up and the boy was taken to the home of his parents.

SUDDEN TURN OF MEMORY.

Roland Asked to Explain to District Attorney.

Strange Change of Heart Means a Sequel.

Something More Brewing in Hazard Case.

To explain why he first caused the arrest of the alleged traducer of his daughter, and then flopped over with an affidavit calculated to set her free, H. M. Roland was taken before the District Attorney yesterday.

Roland's sensational arrest on the charge of having perjured himself by first declaring his daughter to be 15 years of age, and hence under the age of consent, and then to swear in an affidavit that she was 16 at the time of her shocking relations with Hazard, was told of in Sunday's Times.

The Hazard case is one of the most sensational to be tried here for a long time. He was a man of a fearful reputation. Arrested on a charge of rape in relation to this Roland girl, alleged to be under age, he was convicted. During the period between his preliminary examination and trial, the girl went down on the fated S. S. Valencia.

Roland, the girl's father, was fierce for Hazard's arrest, all the time, but last week came out with an affidavit saying that he had testified falsely at the trial by mistake. He said his daughter was of full age of consent at the time of her relations with Hazard; so he could not be prosecuted.

He was demanded yesterday to account for this sudden change of heart, being confronted by his own affidavit in the District Attorney's office.

All he could say was that he had testified in the first place from family records, and afterward discovered them to be wrong—Hazard's detectives convinced him.

CHANGE OF MEMORY.

It seems that his memory was changed by the efforts of Hazard's detectives. He said so in the interview with the District Attorney; his statement was supported by affidavits of the detectives themselves.

Roland was asked why it was that he had not communicated with the District Attorney if he found that he had been mistaken in swearing that his daughter was 15 years old. He said the detectives employed by Hazard told him it wasn't necessary, and that he would only be wasting railroad fare.

They told him they would "fix up" his mistaken testimony with the judge and court.

In the course of a long jumbled, rambling statement, he apparently attempted to still stick to his last story—that the girl was of full legal age.

Among the affidavits was one of the girl in a perfectly nude condition. Some photographer made affidavit that he took it at her own request. One of the detectives swore that Roland told him this photograph was one of the reasons he at first swore against Hazard. He claimed Hazard had patched two pictures together—some other girl's body and his daughter's face, to make this evil one.

GOES BACK AGAIN.

Roland went back on this statement yesterday and said he was not influenced by it. He said that he didn't believe that his daughter was of the age of consent until these detectives came to see him. They told him they had been to see some people named Gridley in Kansas, guardians of his first wife, and they told the detectives, so the latter told Roland, that the girl ought to be 16.

Roland bewailed his lot in having made the mistake, and said he knows that now he will probably go to the penitentiary.

There will surely be some hot sequel to this flop of Roland's. Both the District Attorney and Hazard's lawyers save something brewing.

Hazard's motion for a new trial will be argued in a few days.

BLOODY CLOTHING FOUND.

POLICE INVESTIGATE MYSTERY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN QUENTIN, June 18.—Two blood-stained shirts, one a negligee, torn to ribbons, and the other an undershirt with knife cuts across the part covering the abdomen and shoulders, were found lying on the old railroad wharf at San Quentin last night.

There is a blood stain leading from the boat steps to the rocky roadway in front of the Point House, fifty yards distant. In front of the Point House blood stains are plentiful on the rocks, showing that a struggle took place on the road there.

The police are now investigating the case.

TRAP OF EMPTY CANS.

Alleged Lard Burglar Tries to Make Haul, Whole Lot Falls, and Policeman Gets Him.

When the police captured Manuel Hernandez last night in an alleged attempt to burglarize the grocery store of Joseph Sava, No. 700 New High street, they effectually put a sudden end to a prospective outing of several Mexicans.

All the members of the party had been instructed to procure certain provisions and cooking utensils for the trip, and to Hernandez's lot fell the task of supplying lard.

Saturday night the Sava store was burglarized of a can of lard, and the proprietor, after notifying the police yesterday, arranged a trap in the hope that the marauder might return. His anticipations were realized about 8:30 o'clock last night, when Hernandez entered the store, it is alleged, and reaching high up where a quantity of lard cans were suspended, attempted to get away with one. The cans, however, were empty and had been fastened together, being so arranged that the slightest touch dropped all.

The noise was deafening, and while the alleged burglar was trying to make a hurried exit through the front door he was stopped by Sava and Patrolman Banks. Occupants of houses for some distance around were aroused by the noise, and there was excitement.

Hernandez was locked up in the City Jail on the charge of suspicion.

"TRUSTY" HANGS HIMSELF.

Thomas Karnes, Young Man, Ends His Days With Strap in Cell at the City Jail.

In a fit of despondency Thomas Karnes, head "trusty" in the City Jail, committed suicide yesterday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock by hanging himself to one of the steel bars of his cell with a leather strap. After four months of exceptionally good behavior, and with but twenty days more to serve, Karnes managed to escape Sunday morning. This did him little good, for at 11 o'clock Sunday night he was recaptured and put in a solitary cell.

Karnes was arrested and charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses a little more than four months ago. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve 150 days in the City Jail. From the first the jailers liked the young man, who had just turned his thirtieth birthday, and was intelligent. He rapidly rose in the estimation of the officers and finally was made head trusty.

Karnes's breakfast was servedto him in the cell yesterday morning, and an hour later, when one of the jailers was making his rounds, he discovered the man hanging dead. The body was removed to Pierce Brothers' morgue, where an inquest was held and a verdict of suicide returned. The police are endeavoring to locate the man's parents, who are thought to be living in Iowa.

FORTUNE HIDDEN IN HOUSE.

MURDERED WOMAN WEALTHY.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The police and coroner, in searching the Stanton House in the Bronx yesterday where Mrs. Alice Kinnan was mysteriously murdered more than a week ago, found bank books showing deposits of more than $10,000. The entire house is said to be in a topsy-turvy condition, many of the rooms being piled high with rubbish, thus making the search difficult.

Mrs. Stanton, mother of Mrs. Kinnan, was taken from her home last Friday to allow the authorities to search for possible clews which would throw light on the murder.

Nothing has been discovered, however, to point toward the murderer.

Fifteen bank books were found yesterday. On Thursday $16,000 was uncovered in the house.

TRIES TO CUT OFF EARRINGS.

THIEF MOBBED IN NEW YORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—The attempt of an Italian burglar to rob a woman of a pair of diamond earrings nearly cost two lives early today.

The would-be robber's victim was terribly cut about the face and head by a keen-edged knife, with which the thief attempted to cut the jewels from the woman's ears, and scarcely five minutes later the robber himself and a policeman who had arrested him were fighting for life against a crowd of hundreds of Hebrews, who sought to avenge the assault.

The robber was kicked and stoned and repeatedly knocked down before the policeman succeeded in safely landing him in a cell.

The victim of the assault was Mrs. Kupfer, who had been calling on friends last night and was returning to her home when attacked. Joe Carpaccia was her assailant.

MAY SAVE AGNES MYERS.

FRIENDS TRY TO SECURE STAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, June 18.—The movement to save Mrs. Agnes Myers from the gallows is growing in force. She has been sentenced to be excuted at Liberty, Mo., near here, on June 29, for the murder of her husband, Clarence Meyers, on the same date that Frank Hottman, her companian in the crime, is to be hanged in Kansas City.

Applications for new trials probably will be passed upon tomorrow by the State Supreme Court, which previously affirmed the decision of the lower court.

If new trials are denied, it is expected that the usual thirty days' stay of execution will be granted, when renewed efforts will be made to save the woman.

No effort is being made to prevent the hanging of Hottman. Many letters are being sent to Gov. Folk, urging him to commute Mrs. Meyers's sentence to life imprisonment.

A brother of Clarence Meyers, however, has sent the Governor a letter expressing the belief that his sister-in-law is as guilty as Hottman, and that if Hottman is hanged the woman also should pay the extreme penalty.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Woman Robbed on Train.

SAN JOSE, June 18.—Bertha E. Schultz, while coming from Los Angeles yesterday, fell asleep on the train near Watsonville and when she awoke her bag, containing $6, a ticket to Buffalo and duplicate baggage check No. 3598 was missing.

Given Three Years for Elopement.

OAKLAND, June 18.—For having run away with Ethel Cook, a youthful Sunday-school teacher, Henry A. Logan was sentenced to three years in San Quentin this morning by Judge T. W. Harris. Extenuating circumstances, Judge Harris said, induced him to make the sentence as light as it was.

Held on Charge of Forgery.

SACRAMENTO, June 18.—A warrant of rendition was issued today by Gov. Pardee upon the requisition of Gov. Sparks of Nevada for Thomas C. Dobbins, wanted at Tonopah on a charge of forgery. He is charged with having forged a check for $1000 on the Nye and Ormsby County Bank. Dobbins is now under arrest in Oakland.

Bank Robbery Suspects Caught.

FORT WORTH, June 18.—Wheelock Harvey and Dave Neville, said to be wanted in New York on a charge of robbing the First National Bank of a large amount of cash and securities, were arrested here today by local detectives. Harvey was employed by the bank as a messenger. The boys had only a few dollars in money, a pistol and a dirk when arrested.

CAR HITS HOSE WAGON.

Four Firemen and Horse Injured and Apparatus Demolished—Trainman Declared Reckless.

The firemen of hose company No. 7 had a very narrow escape yesterday afternoon. The hose wagon had just left the engine-house at Maple avenue and Twenty-fourth street when Maple-avenue car No. 403 crashed into it, throwing all four of the firemen on the apparatus to the street.

Driver M. M. Prichard was hurled to the ground and sustained a severe contusion of the left hip, and numerous painful bruises. Extra Hoseman Charles Gross was thrown some distance and landed on his right side, sustaining such a severe shaking up and bruising that he will be laid up several weeks. The two firemen were hurried to the Receiving Hospital, where their injuries were treated, and then they were removed to the California Hospital.

Capt. Jenkins and Hoseman H. Hicks were also on the wagon and were knocked off, but escaped with minor scratches and bruises. The fact that the men escaped without serious injury is considered remarkable. The hose wagon had just left the house when the car struck it, and it was demolished. One of the horses was severely cut, but will recover.

The firemen place the blame for the accident on the crew of the street car, claiming they had ample warning of the approach of the apparatus. The fire laddies declare that the motorman was running his car at a high speed and entirely disregarded a signal to slow down.

PIFFERRMAN SCARES SCHNEIDER

Wildly excited and claiming that he had been held up, Jacob Schneider of No. 175 Vignes street, appealed to the police for protection Sunday night. An officer was sent with him to the place, and it was found that Schneider had been mistaken for a chicken thief. He was on his way home and was passing the house of Charles Pifferman, No. 509 Banning street, when Pifferman stopped him. Pifferman told the police that someone has been robbing his hen roost and he was looking for the marauder. Schneider acted suspicious and seemed to be hanging around watching for a chance to make a raid, so Pifferman stopped him. Pifferman had a revolver. He soon became convinced that he had the wrong man and let Schneider go.

TAHITIANS ATTRACT CROWD.

The Tahitian fire walkers, who are holding forth at Chutes Park, attracted two large audiences yesterday, and their fiery walking act, done over a long bed of red-hot lava stones, was a marvel to the crowd, as there was no evidence of magic or skilled trickery. One Alexander Murdock, a resident of Los Angeles, took off his shoes and followed the priest, barefooted, into the center of the white hot mass, but without evil result in any way. Murdock averred that the stones felt cool, instead of having any warmth whatever.

The story of the monkey who used the cat's paw to pull the chestnuts out of the fire, finds new illustrations daily. When a dealer sells a customer a sustitute for MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM, he does so because the substitute pays him a bigger profit. He makes the customer his catspaw to rake in a few extra dollars.

It is not pleasant to be made a catspaw, especially when you pay for the opportunity of being injured. Is it not foolish to pay for the opportunity to use injurious imitations of MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM, the standard powder of the world? Think it over.

LOVE-DRAMA PRESENTED ON LAWN AND STAIRCASE.

Scene on the lawn of the Girls' Collegiate School last night when the senior class presented "The Masque of Vanity."

FASCINATING picture was presented at the beautiful "Casa Loma" the home of the Girls' Collegiate school, last night, when the graduating class presented Percy MacKaye's dramatic fantasy, "The Masque of Vanity."

The school is located at the junction of Adams and Hoover streets, and is one of the most picturesque places of the city, the grounds being covered with beautiful trees and ivy, from the top of which rise above the third-story windows. The large audience assembled on the lawn, which had been reached from Adams street by a driveway well. Bleachers had been erected on the east side of the lawn, while the flat-roofed building on the west was covered with people.

Previous to the presentation of the play, which was a broad, Venetian-like scene, beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, through the center was laid in the square in front of the cathedral at Nice, and the action naturally on the lawn before the stair. The lawn was brilliantly lighted with hundreds of electric globes, hidden in red-and-yellow Japanese lanterns, and the vine-covered arbors and porticos made ideal exits. The whole was a dream of fairyland.

The night was as ideal as the setting for the play, and the young ladies, without exception, acquitted themselves admirably, to the intense delight of their friends and admirers.

The play is the result of the genius of Miss Grace Dennen, head of the Department of English. She found somewhere in her reading a little love tale, and set to work to adapt it for the occasion. The story in brief is this: A cardinal at Nice was in charge of Beatrice, a lovely ward, for whom he had, without consulting the feelings of the beautiful girl, selected a titled husband to his own liking, Count di Capelli, and whom she naturally detested, but out of respect for the cardinal she consented to the match. The day before that set for the marriage, the bride-to-be and a bevy of her girl friends decided to surreptitiously take part in a carnival on the streets of the city, and have one last good frolic before she was married. There they fell in with a party of Americans, two of whom, Ethel Van Ness and Mr. Harrington, were themselves on a pre-marriage tour, under the chaperonage of the young lady's mother. They were not congenial to each other, and Harrington and his gentleman friend determined to stay and enjoy the carnival, while Miss Van Ness went off in a pout with the others of the American party. Harrington became infatuated with Beatrice, whom he saw among the maskers; Miss Van Ness, searching in jealousy for him, was rescued from a disorderly bunch of maskers by the Count, who is in town seeking his own fiancée. It all ended in the usual way, the two couples swapping sweethearts and receiving the blessing of the cardinal.

The play was full of amusing situations, and the humor was well carried out by the rollicking maskers, who showered everybody with confetti and annoyed them with ticklers as they passed by.

The young ladies all did their roles so well that it is difficult to make distinctions, but Miss Helen Emery's "Beatrice" was about as near real life as it is possible for a sweet young school miss to make it.

The cast of characters was as follows: "Harrington," an American, Hazel Page; "Jack Morton," his friend, Ethel Palmer; "Ethel Van Ness," his fiancée, Marian Gartzmann; "Mrs. Van Ness," her mother, Maybelle Barlow; "Her Uncle Robert," Winnifred Millspaugh; "The Cardinal," Minnie Rosenkranz; "Countess Beatrice," his ward, Helen Emery; "Anitra del Gardo," her friend, Helen Switzer; "Count di Capelli," Lucie Wolcott; "The Duenna," Gladys Felt; Maskers—"Tomasso," Phila Milbank; "Angelina," Alma Lewis; "Pierrot," Frances Hooper; "Columbine," Irma Jacoby; "Flora," Julia Moore; "Bettina," Grace Tarbell; "Lucita," Edith Bennett; "Tonio," Sadie Bundy; "Master of Revels," Leila Morrison; "Marco," Mildred Lapham; "Gypsies," Zara Anderson, Ethel Reynolds, Eva Heartt; "Other Maskers," Eulalie Rollins, Ala Crowell, Edna Barlow; "Priest," Ruth Stearns.

The commencement exercises will be held tonight in the Ebell Club House, the graduating class consisting of thirty-five members.

SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY FOR TIMES CONTESTANTS.

Many of Times contestants who, year after year, in campaign after campaign, invariably you find the foremost girls at the top of the list in their respective schools. Many of last year's contestants are entered for this year's campaign, and some of them are seeking admission to the same institutions which they attended last year. Inquiry develops the fact that the faculty of these institutions are just as anxious to have them as they were before. In fact, one institution has not only offered a scholarship but has declared its intention to do so when the manager learned that the girl who had won that particular scholarship was desirous to try for it and that she had some of these institutions have some of these scholarships to retain the bright boys and girls who earned their own scholarships, but have voluntarily expressed a preference rather than have them go.

HIGH CLASS SCHOOLS.

It has been the policy of The Times not only institutions of the highest merit for representation in its scholarship contests. The schools as well as in former contests have been the best. All of those who have won scholarships have not made use of them simply but words of praise for the institutions of their choice.

The schools printed below offer opportunities to contestants in two departments of the leading universities of the country, in two splendid colleges of music, one of any in their class, the study of art, and of music, of language, of dramatic expression, of mechanical and industrial training, of telegraphy and tailoring. The list will be expanded from time to time to keep pace with the increase in the number of contestants. It is the intention of The Times that not a single girl who makes the effort earnestly shall go without reward. Last year fifty-three scholarships were awarded, valued at more than the cash prizes aggregated.

LITTLE BOY WINS HONORS.

At the art exhibition last week at the Los Angeles College of Fine Arts the art critic had this to say concerning a boy who won a scholarship in that institution in the Times contest of last year: "His life drawings, special mention made of the two of which were done by Bruce Moore, a Times scholarship last year, has been working in the school for two years. They are exceedingly strong and imbued with a certain quality, suggestive of the manner of Will H. Low. The boy is only 18 years old. His work as an artist will be watched with much interest. It is likely to become an illustrator of note, and certainly become a good one."

FROM LORDSBURG.

Miss Ruth Lordsburg contestant in town Saturday and made scholarship headquarters. She is from the Pomona High School, age, and now seeks to enter a business college to fit herself for commercial life. She has friends in Lordsburg and the surrounding country, who are exceedingly proud of her, and she has a good number of subscriptions up her sleeve.

TIMES IN PHILIPPINES.

The Los Angeles Times contest the only representative was Gertrude Ellis, who won a scholarship in Pomona College, and subsequently married a Pomona College graduate, and together they have gone to the Philippine Islands to live.

GETS UP AT 4 O'CLOCK.

The following letter from an old-time Los Angeles resident, recommending Earl Robinson of No. 521 South Olive street, as a candidate for the contest, has been received by the scholarship manager:

"Allow me to present to you Earl R. Robinson, a candidate for enrollment in the Times' Scholarship contest. I have lived in the same house with him for three years, and can thoroughly recommend him as a boy of excellent character. All his life he has struggled with adverse circumstances, fighting his way against all obstacles, helping his invalid mother and two little sisters to the best of his ability. He is not strong or well, but every morning at 4 o'clock he starts out on his paper route. He is a close student, having made three grades in the grammar school during the past year. I have been a resident of Los Angeles since 1882, and a regular subscriber of The Times since its first issue, and I shall watch the coming contest with intense interest. Respectfully,

"FRANCES E. BENNETT."

CONTEST OPENS IN SIX DAYS.

Remember the contest opens now in just six days. Next Monday morning, June 25, "time" will be called, and with a whoop of joy, the racers will be off. Some of them are so impatient they can scarcely wait for the time to come. Those who have not yet enrolled and intend to do so should get in their applications this week, if possible. The scholarship manager may be found on the fourth floor of the Times Building every day but Sunday between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m.

Drop in and talk the matter over.

YOUNG LADY ORATORS.

Three Graduated Last Night from Methodist College, With a Varied and Choice Programme.

The students of the College of Oratory of the University of Southern California last evening rendered an interesting and varied programme of choice readings. It was the annual pupil's recital held in the University Methodist Church. The auditorium was filled to overflowing, and the programme was unusually well given.

The College of Oratory this year graduates for the first time, three young ladies, Miss Dora Shaw, Miss Edna Addison and Miss Daisy Sinclair. Miss Shaw having completed junior studies in the College of Liberal Arts in addition to the required oratory instruction, receives the diplomas of the school, while Miss Addison and Miss Sinclair are awarded certificates of graduation.

Three girls who took part in the College of Oratory recital and reception last night.

"A Sisterly Scheme," by Bunner, a clever little scene as interpreted by Miss Shaw, was the hit of the evening.

The graduates were assisted by several of the more advanced juniors, who gave five selections, all of which were well received.

The programme was opened by Miss Alberta Shartle, who gave "The Keeper of the Light," by Van Dyke, "Marse Chan," by Page, as portrayed by Miss Marguerite Pratt, was one of the best executed numbers on the programme. A scene from "The Birds' 'Xmas Carol," by Wiggin, was creditably given by Miss Helen Pitner. A scene from "The Sky Pilot," by Connor, given by Miss Eva Smith was well rendered, as were two short selections given by Miss Louise Abbott, which showed considerable versatility.

Miss Sinclair's interpretation of "The Slow Man" by Poole, was rendered with rare charm and won for her the enthusiastic admiration of the students, with whom she has always been a favorite.

Preëminent for the life in her acting, and the spirit in her real expression was Miss Addison, whose rendering of a scene from "The Light That Failed" by Kipling, called forth rounds of applause.

This evening the graduates will be the guests of honor at a dinner at the Alexandria, tendered by the faculty of the College of Oratory.

Tonight the College of Music will give its annual commencement concert in the University Methodist Church.

TWENTY INJURED IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 18.—More than twenty persons were injured when two street cars collided last night at Halstead and O'Neil streets. Five of them were women. The accident occurred when hundreds of picknickers were returning from outings in the North and South parks. Defective brakes caused the accident.

Hair Falls

Losing it, day after day? And doing nothing to save it? As though you can lose your hair and keep it, too! Then stop this falling. Stop it at once! You can certainly do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It feeds the hair, gives it strength, keeps it in place. And it makes the scalp healthy, cures all dandruff, and keeps the hair soft and glossy. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Suspenderless"—
It Means Free Shoulders, and Something Else.
It Means You Are Wearing a "Ready-and-Right" Suit—The Trousers Have "Sailor" Waists

Yes, sir, trousers without suspenders that will hang right and fit right.

At the club you needn't hesitate to doff your jacket in billiards. No unsightly suspenders. A smart narrow belt, a well-chosen golf shirt and "Ready-and-Right" trousers with their stunning full hips and peg legs.

Why shouldn't they go? Ever hear of trousers like that before? Or, "bottle" shoulders? Or ever see a man's figure so admirably presented as yourself in a "Ready-and-Right" suit.

Costly? you ask. Never.

The pass word is fifteen to forty.

Classified Liners.

Times "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note Change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 70,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1893, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25c.

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1¼ cents per word.

NORTHERN TIP ON CONVENTION.

Santa Cruz Probable Choice of Republicans.

Last Week of August Looms Up as the Date.

Friends Grooming Butler for Mayoralty Race.

Republicans of California will not hold the coming State convention in Los Angeles. It will go to Santa Cruz or Sacramento, with the chances largely in favor of the breeze-swept and wave-laved town of the holy cross, for the State capital is a hot place in midsummer and not conducive to cool and calm deliberation by convention delegates.

The high authority in the works of the part" who makes this announcement states also that the convention will assemble on Monday, August 27, and that it has been agreed by the man highest up that the opportionment shall be the same as at the last State convention—one delegate to each 250 Republican votes cast at the last preceding Presidential election.

This apportionment means that the number of delegates will be enormous. In the case of Los Angeles county, it will swell the local delegation to a total of 129, as against 83 in the last convention. There will be about 325 delegates in the convention, it is said, provided San Francisco can rake together its proportion from the ruins—and Abe Ruef will attend to that, even if he has to go as far south as Santa Barbara to get the delegates.

SOME REASONS WHY.

Several reasons are advanced for the decision of the party managers to keep the convention away from Los Angeles. For one thing, delegates from the far northern part of the State object to traveling so far, even with passes flowing freely. A central part of the State is considered best for all concerned.

Then there are some faddists here who would want to have absurd planks inserted in the platform. They would kill votes for the ticket if they went in, and it would slaughter some ballots, too, if the movers were turned down.

Politicians returning from the North say that Warren Porter, the Watsonville banker, is looming up as a possible candidate for Governor. Porter is said to be acceptable to W. F. Herrin, the Democratic attorney of the Southern Pacific who is potent in Republican and all other politics of the State. Furthermore, Porter is reputed to have a barrel with a bung that responds readily to the touch.

Gov. Pardee, the wobbly shuffler, is looked upon by the returning politicians as practically out of the race. Despite the active campaign he is waging already, it is declared he will not have much strength in the convention.

So far as the local delegation is concerned, it is said to be certain it will not be pledged for the Alameda county contortionist.

Even Assemblyman Phil Stanton, the Pardee manager for Southern California, is not so enthusiastic in his work as he was before he went to the special session expecting to be made speaker pro tem and then found himself sputtering in the gutter through the alleged duplicity of his erstwhile lord and master.

The party bosses have returned to find that some of the naughty boys in the ranks have been cutting up awful didoes in their absence. The "Mutual Admiration Society," for instance, of which Postmaster Mott Flint, Louis Schwabe and Leo Youngworth are shining lights, is said to have got its fingers in the jam and smeared things most dreadfully.

Members of this society have got in behind State, county and city candidates without consulting the heavier weights in the political game and they have made some slates that are bound to be smashed when the machine hits them.

Some of them have come out with Tom Hughes and others of the old-time "anti-push," and said good words for Sidney A. Butler, as Republican nominee for Mayor of Los Angeles.

Mr. Butler is in the hands of his friends just now, so far as his candidacy is concerned. He said yesterday that he had not given the matter any consideration this year, but some of his admirers are preparing to put into circulation a petition requesting him to let his name go before the Republican city convention.

NOT MACHINE MADE.

But Butler isn't the man commonly credited with the stamp of Walter Parker's machine. Councilman George A. Smith, of the Fifth Ward, is the one commonly looked upon as the choice of the party managers, and they were not at all pleased to find that political brick makers and mutual admirers had even breathed Butler's name.

Mayor McAleer doesn't seem to figure in any of the calculations of the machine as a candidate for reelection. No one seems to know now just where he will get off when convention time rolls around.

It was said yesterday by a prominent Republican politician, that the race for the Mayoralty might be a circus of many rings, with Smith and the regular party nominee and with McAleer and Butler running independently. As for the Democratic side show, it was said that Former Mayor Snyder, although mentioned by some of his party admirers as a possibility, will not run again. He is said to be perfectly content to lead the life of a banker, with its fewer trials and absence of thrills.

CANAL VISITOR.

L. E. Lepham, Angeleno Who Has Lived Seven Years at Panama, Comes Up on Brief Trip.

A visitor at the Van Nuys yesterday afternoon was L. E. Lepham, an Angeleno who has just returned after seven years of continual residence on the Isthmus of Panama. Mr. Lepham's father lives near Santa Ana, and he will spend the greater part of the summer with him. He himself formerly owned a ranch in that vicinity.

Mr. Lepham has made a great many interesting observations on conditions in Central America, and believes that the quicker the great canal is built, so much quicker will the position of the United States be greatly strengthened among the coalitions of the whole world.

"No one knows," said Mr. Lepham, "the immense amount of shipping that would go through that canal. Further, no one knows but a man who has lived there, the awe and respect with which foreign engineers, from every country, hold this great enterprise.

"They come to Central America from all over the world. They know that the great scenes of action lie in the Orient, and that the Panama canal is the key to the whole Pacific Ocean. Suppose that two European countries were in contest over their oriental possessions, would not speedy passage through the canal mean empire itself, perhaps, to those countries?

"When the canal is finished, as army men and the canal engineers can tell you, the United States will be the courted coquette among all the older countries on the far side of the Atlantic. Really—if you would get an idea of your own nation's importance—go to Panama."

FLAYS CABRERA AS A DESPOT.

PLANTER OF GUATEMALA SAYS PRESIDENT IS HATED.

Coffee Producer of Country Declares His Hope That Revolutionists Will Unseat Ruler Accused of Knavery, Thievery and Dire Oppression—Barillas Gaining.

The Czars of Russia were never more generally hated by the revolutionary elements of that country than is President Cabrera of Guatemala, whose dictatorship is tottering, according to José Guzman, a coffee planter residing near Guatemala City.

Mr. Guzman spent several days in Los Angeles last week, on his way to San Francisco, from which port he proposes to take ship to San Salvador, and remain in that country until the end of the revolution permits him to return in peace to his "fincs."

Although utterances of a political nature bearing on Latin-American affairs are likely to cost their speaker dear, Mr. Guzman frankly declared his hope of seeing the revolutionists win out and seat Gen. Barillas in the capital of the country as its President.

"There never was a juster war waged than this one," declared the visitor from Guatemala, in conversation with a group of acquaintances to whom he brought letters of introduction. "Although I am too old to engage in the conflict, I would gladly serve the revolution in any way that I may, for it is a fight for decency and humanity.

"My country has lived under the tyranny of this beast of a Cabrera now as long as it is in the power of endurance to put up with it. My people bore his thievery, knavery and insane cruelty just as long as they could. In the meantime, though, they were busy laying in arms and organizing an army to rally about the standard of Gen. Barillas, who is the idol of the people.

"And that is one of the reasons that the present revolution is going to win out. The revolutionists are prepared. They are well officered, and it may be of interest to you to know that we have a good many American soldiers of fortune in the Guatemala revolutionary army. These Americans are the very devils for fighting, and the cause of liberty in Guatemala should be thankful for the valiant service which these noble sons of this great country are so gallantly rendering her.

"This American legion in the Guatemala army, it is fighting for love of the combat, and for the cause of liberty. Carrambas! What fighters they are. Every one of them shoots like a machine gun. Zip, boom! Every time he aims his rifle, over goes a soldier, or possibly a major or a general.

"And so the revolution is proving very discouraging to President Cabrera. Everywhere he is enjoying the greatest disaffection from his army. The rainy season is on and the revolutionists get about through the jungle like ducks.

"Everywhere the regular forces are meeting defeat. It cannot be otherwise. They are fighting for a monster, and they are doomed to defeat in spite of the plausible cablegrams which President Cabrera sends out for the foreign newspapers.

"When Gen. Barillas has been victorious, and the revolution is at an end, I expect for my country an era of quite and peace, and great prosperity. Should he lose, and Cabrera remain in power, I and hundreds of my countrymen will leave the country until his tyrannical rule comes to an end. Nor can it be expected that the American capital which is seeking to become interested in Guatemala will venture into the country as long as such robbers are allowed to remain in office."

While in this city Mr. Guzman met several persons who are heavily interested in Central America, and who received his views of the situation in his country with a keen personal interest.

RIDDER PRINCE HENRY'S GUEST.

BERLIN, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, has accepted Prince Henry's invitation to visit the Kiel regatta. He will leave Berlin Wednesday. Ridder has been invited to dine on board the Hamburg with the Emperor.

FINDS PEARL; MADE RICH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]
RED WING (Minn.) June 18.—William Bates, a clam fisher, has found a pearl in a clamshell which is said to be the largest fresh-water pearl in existence. Its worth is estimated at anywhere from $10,000 to $100,000. It is as large as a good sized marble, weighs 85 grains and has a beautiful luster.

POSTAL CLERKS TELL TROUBLES.

GRIEVANCES OF THE SERVICE STATED AT A SMOKER.

Specifications of What Are Declared Unfair Conditions Are Presented and Discussed—"Stuck Mail" in Postoffice Not Worked on Trains for Lack of Sufficient Help.

The government is getting something for nothing, and no redress is possible—that is the feeling of the railway postal clerks, who met in a smoker at Levy's last night to discuss the situation and take action on a petition to be sent to Washington. "We don't get what we ask for because we ask for it, and what we don't ask for we aren't supposed to want," said one speaker.

Employes of the railway postal service are not allowed to air their grievances. They cannot urge action on their representatives in Congress, by special rule of the department. Their only redress is to petition the department. This they cannot do without permission. They must petition for leave to petition. Then they generally are turned down.

A particularly rankling case of this occurred recently, when they asked leave to support the bill before Congress dealing with the adoption of the block system on railroads. The excessive danger in the service is one of its greatest drawbacks, and the clerks wished to forward any movement looking to safeguards on the line. They were told that the language of their petition was "unhappy," and were refused permission to act in a matter that concerns them most deeply.

They now think that the situation is intolerable. Two courses are open. They can leave the service. But a postal clerk's time is taken up with doing his work and studying the changes in distribution, that he has no chance to work into any other line. The other remedy is publicity, and the clerks have determined to let the public know their grievances.

Hence the meeting last night.

In the Southwest the present situation is worse than anywhere else, so they aver. The department has not met the growth of the country, and the clerks are badly overworked. Ten years ago there were forty-six postal clerks on the runs into Los Angeles, and thirty-eight carriers in the city. Now there are 120 clerks, but the number of carriers has been increased to 170. While the rest of the service has been enlarged in some proportion to the needs, the railway service has lagged.

But the greatest grievance of clerks is section 1472. Any railway postal clerk will jump when he hears that number. It is the section which says that all the clerk's time belongs to the Government. Formerly if a man got sick a substitute took his place and was paid for the work, although the man's salary stopped. Now if a man is sick the other clerks on the run must do the extra work without extra pay, and the man's salary is stopped just the same. Whenever a man is sick the Government gets the same amount of work done and saves the man's salary.

Men off duty now cannot leave the city, because they must be on hand to do this extra work if it is necessary. In such weather as this a man cannot go to the beach without permission, even if his next run is two days off.

Another grievance is the temporary clerk order. This is what makes it difficult for the government to get men into the service. When heavy work comes, a temporary clerk is put in. He cannot draw the salary of a regular, although he does a regular's work. Until he is made a regular, a substitute cannot fill the place he has left, and the place that the substitute would naturally leave cannot be filled from the eligible list. And the eligible list cannot be increased, because there are no vacancies. Thus promotion is delayed, the whole service is held back, and when need comes, there are no men to fill the places. More than this, the slow promotion, while it saves the government a hundred dollars a year on every man that is held back, makes the service less desirable, and increases the difficulty of getting men.

This system results in clogging the service badly. This morning there are 138 sacks of "stuck mail" in the postoffice here that haven't been worked on the road, because there aren't clerks enough to do the work.

Fines and suspensions are also a grievance. In the service, mistakes are punished, not by a system of demerits, as in every other big service, but by taking part of the pay away from the men. One man had given him a car built in 1880, that was so narrow the catcher arm wouldn't reach the crane to pick up mail sacks on the fly. He protested, and nothing was done. For a month he prevailed on the engineer to stop his train, so that the mail sack was taken in hand. Then the engineer couldn't do that any longer. Going fifty miles an hour, the inefficient catcher failed to work twice, and the man was fined a day's pay twice for failing to get the mail.

These statements of the aggrieved men were discussed at the smoker. Above a score of clerks gathered to talk things over, a large number to get together at one time in so disjointed a life.

After the grievances were threshed out, some of those present made little talks on the phases of the life. F. W. Burgess spoke on the relation of the public to the railway mail service, showing that it, and not the local service, is the main artery of the postal system.

William W. Weller and Norman Lackland told of their experiences with fines and suspensions, and were followed by H. McMullin, who gave an account of the early days of the business, and the hazardous features of the life.

CHURCH TO HOLD CARNIVAL.

Second Baptist Congregation Will Raise Funds for Construction of New Edifice.

Undaunted by their failure to secure this year's National Baptist Convention, the congregation of the Second Baptist Church will now devote untiring energies toward the building of a new edifice, it being confidently expected that the national convention of next year will be held in the new church.

To raise funds for the building of the new structure the women of the congregation will give a "universal carnival" in the church, commencing on July 23. The Committee on Arrangements is composed of Mrs. J. E. Williams, chairman; Mrs. Pauline Miles, vice-chairman; Mrs. C. C. Barnes, secretary.

Features of the carnival will be booths representing foreign countries. One of these will be called the city of Hongkong and another the Czar's Palace.

The terrace above the church will be used for outdoor entertainments of various kinds. The church has more than 900 members.

ILES-RAWLINS.

Acquaintance of a Year Culminates in Wedding at The Palms Yesterday.

THE PALMS, June 18.—About one year ago today chance for the first time placed them in each other's society, and the acquaintance formed at that time ripened into a friendship that attracted the attention of Cupid and resulted in the marriage this evening at The Palms of Dr. Marion Iles and Mrs. Mary Frances Rawlins. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Warren of the Presbyterian church of Redlands, in the presence of the members of the family and a few intimate friends at the beautiful country home of the son of the bride, Dr. Marion Iles, at "Tres Lomas" ranch.

John D. Hawes served as best man, while Mrs. Hawes supported the bride. The house was beautifully decorated with roses sent from the gardens of the bride, Oak Park, Ill., and "Illesmere," the romantic and picturesque home place of Dr. Iles, situated on a sightly knoll at the base of the Palms, overlooking Los Angeles, the ocean, the mountains and the valley. Following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Rawlins received at a wedding supper at their home on the ranch, and after the wedding party had been spoken the bride and groom departed for "Illesmere," where Dr. Iles has just completed a handsome bungalow. Here, surrounded by beautiful flowers and orange blossoms, the honeymoon will be spent.

Dr. Iles, a graduate of Cornell and Johns Hopkins universities, where he took the degree of doctor of philosophy, spent several years as assistant professor of chemistry at Cornell University. Later he served as metallist and smelter superintendent for several of the greater Colorado mining enterprises. Here he succeeded in amassing a comfortable fortune, having organized and successfully conducted the Globe Smelter at Denver. Being a thorough chemist and metallurgist and of a scientific turn of mind, he applied himself to metallurgy with such success that he discovered several new minerals, one of which bears his name. He has been a frequent contributor to scientific journals on the "Ores on Lead Smelting" is a recognized text book. Six years ago he retired from active life and has spent the greater part of the time in travel, circling the globe in his yacht, for a home. Of all the lands he has seen in his travels he chose to locate at The Palms, and there on a site overlooking the valley and ocean, with a bower he expects to spend his declining days among his flowers, his dogs, chickens, pigeons and pet deer.

Mrs. Rawlins, the bride, is a writer of no mean ability, an author and a writer of verse, and finds its way into the best publications of the West. Two years ago she came from Kansas into the West and has been a prominent figure in social life among the lemon growers and the writers and songs of birds. She is the author of poems now in press, but has published several works of fiction that have met with appreciation with the reading public. Her most forceful production, perhaps, is "The Frenchman's Bride," in which are depicted the horrors and evils of the French marriage system as observed in the days of Napoleon.

COMBINE AGAINST CZAR.

Democrats Discuss Chance of Rupture.

Leaning Toward Revolutionists.

With Government Question of Short Time.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PETERSBURG, June 18.—The Constitutional Democrats seem almost unanimous in their lot with the revolutionists. The popular agitation against the czar is such that at a caucus lasting all night the question of changing the party's tactics and abandoning further attempt to postpone an open rupture with the government was practically discussed.

Professor M. Nahoukoff, leaders of the Constitutional Democrats in the present Duma, and the radical wing, which is in the ultimate necessity of keeping pace with the revolutionary movement and insisting that unless they were prepared to battle immediately they would be overwhelmed and left behind.

Professor M. Vimaver and other moderates urged caution, saying it was impossible to bend to the storm, but their views were in the majority.

Professor Yermya today says the Constitutional Democrats have actually decided to break with the government within a few days, but M. Nabokoff, editor of the Osvobojdenie, declares that no decision had been taken. He admits, however, that the leaders' views were severe.

LIBERALS FEAR RUPTURE.

Many of the Liberals fear a rupture before the contemplated step as a result of which they claim that the Constitutional Democrats cannot hope to keep pace with the advanced Radicals at meetings held in the suburbs of St. Petersburg last night not only condemned the lower house of parliament, characterized the Constitutional Democrats as traitors, but also denounced the Group of Toil.

Professor Muromtseff was blamed because he tried to conceal the absurdity of the contention that the House must demand that the government summon a constituent assembly. The meeting refused to listen to statements that the government would not be asked to sign its own warrant. Constituent assemblies, it was declared, were constituted and summoned by the government.

Some of the meetings glorified the dictatorship of the proletariat and cheered the cries of "down with the government and the middle class."

Factories continue closed today, the employers threatening to wreck the plants if any attempts were made to resume. Little hardship, however, has resulted. The lower classes are warned and supplied with black bread in addition to one of the bakers is ty[ing] only a few days by a butch[er].

STRIKES SPREAD.

News from the interior shows that a wave of strikes is spreading. It is only to tell whether this movement, which seems more spontaneous and organized, will precipitate. Fire strikes are reported today, at Saratoff and at Ekaterinburg, in the Ekaterinburg district.

A small number of robberies are reported today, emphasizing the growing lawlessness and anarchy in the country. There have been two murders and two robberies in the Caucasus. Three stage coaches were held up in Poland. A case of arms and cartridges have been confiscated on an incoming steamer.

The government seems to fear a repetition of the November mutiny at Sveaborg, where the sailors revolted and the soldiers and police are reported to be extremely friendly. Two infantry regiments have mutinously dispatched to Tsarskoe Selo from Krasnoye-Selo, and two batteries of Artillery of the Guard and two machine gun batteries have been sent there from Oranienbaum.

The crews of Cronstadt are filled with rage and the well-to-do inhabitants are hurriedly leaving.

ARMENIAN DEBATE ENDS.

The long debate on the agrarian question ended at this morning's session of the lower house of Parliament with a strong speech by Michael Stakhovitch of Orel, in which he virtually declared that the government would accept the principle of the compulsory expropriation of private land and that in order to satisfy the peasants it is ready to appeal for peaceful cooperation between the House and the government in arranging a settlement of the great question. It was then decided that the agrarian question should be taken up and after recess the report of the committee on the composition of the House was considered.

Many of the members in the lobbies openly talked of little except the present crisis and the increasing gravity of the situation, the Bialystok outrages being broached in Parliament during the morning session, the members agreeing to await the report of the committee of inquiry sent to the city to investigate and report upon the matter.

ACCUSED OF KIDNAPING.

Government Takes Hand in Custody Case Over Bully Children Now in Denver.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, June 18.—An international complication developed in the case of the two children of Malden, who were brought to Denver by their aunt, Mrs. Fenwick.

It is said the efforts of Sir Mortimer Durand, British Ambassador at Washington, and Capt. Wyndham, British military attaché, papers have been obtained from the British government for the arrest of Mrs. Fenwick on charges of having kidnaped the children from Malden, on February 1, and Model Bully from Montreal on January 1.

It was discovered that Mrs. Fenwick was keeping a lodging-house for the Gov. Guild issued requisition papers, and Inspector Greenlief was sent to Malden and John H. Sully, a traveling salesman and father of the children, was sent to Denver to bring the children back. Mrs. Fenwick obtained a writ of habeas corpus and Gov. McDonald of Colorado refused to honor the Massachusetts requisition.

The remaining course for the British government to appeal to the British courts, in which he and the children reside. Boston officials received word from Denver that the United States officials had been given the papers and orders to serve them on Mrs. Fenwick.

Total two years, $188,695.

The full value of the Metropolitan is accredited to Sysonby in accordance with rule 125, which says that a dead-heater must carry penalty for the full amount he would have received if he had won outright.

GUATEMALAN REBELS REPULSED

Disastrous Failure Attends Their Attacks and End of Struggle Seems Near.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—A special cable from Panama says Gen. Lopez from Salvador, invaded Guatemala near the Pacific Coast with 2000 men, mostly Salvadoreans but partly Guatemalan rebels.

They met a superior Guatemalan force and retreated into Salvador after action.

The rebels' invasion from the Mexican side near Autlan was a disastrous failure, 200 being killed or drowned in seeking to recross the frontier river.

The rebellion has been crushed on both frontiers. There are no enemies now on Guatemalan soil. The interior towns and the capital are perfectly quiet.

The rebels are watching for a raid from Salvador but there is no chance of success. The American government is trying to oblige the Salvador government to stop aiding the rebels covertly.

INSURANCE PAPER DIES.

New York Life's Bimonthly Periodical Suspends Publication With Current Issue.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—It was announced yesterday that the New York News Letter, the bimonthly periodical of the New York Life Insurance Company, suspends publication with the May-June issue, just out of the press.

The special meeting of the stockholders of the Equitable to consider approving and authorizing the amended charter of the society will be held today.

As Thomas F. Ryan, who owns a majority of the stock, favors the plan for semi-mutualization which makes it necessary to amend the charter, it is believed the plan will be adopted. It provides for the election of twenty-eight of the fifty-two directors by the policy holders next December.

The minority stockholders, represented by Franklin B. Lord, who are opposed to mutualization, will undoubtedly be heard at the stockholders' meeting.

MISSOURI CROP SAVED.

First Rain in Two Months Falls in St. Joseph and Surrounding Territory.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) June 18.—The first rain in this locality for nearly two months began last night, and has continued intermittently to-day.

Late crops will be saved. Oats and early potatoes were ruined by the drouth.

KANSAS BLESSED WITH RAIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) June 18.—The first rain in some time in and around Topeka, began falling at 11 o'clock today. The lawns and gardens in the city are practically dried out.

The pastures in the surrounding territory are parched and dairymen have been feeding grain.

NEW GOLF RECORD.

Will Smith, Many-Times Champion, Sets New Figure on Wheaton Links and Defeats Anderson.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, June 17.—Will Smith, open golf champion of the United States in 1899, and present open champion in Mexico, defeated William Anderson, four times champion of the United States, and present holder of the title by three up and three to play, in a match today on the links of the Chicago Golf Club at Wheaton.

Smith made a 73 in the morning round, a new mark for the links with the tees set back, and in the afternoon his card was 77. Anderson made 80, and 78.

American Craft Wins.

HELIGOLAND, June 18.—In the Dover-Heligoland yacht race for Emperor William's cup, which was started Saturday morning, the American built yawl Navajo, owned by George W. Watjen of Bremen, crossed the finish line at 8:05 tonight; the British cutter Ailsa, owned by Mrs. A. H. Lewis-Hill of Southampton, at 9 o'clock, and the British built schooner Clara, owned by Max von Guilleame of Cologne, at 9:30.

The Navajo gave the time allowance of 45 minutes to the Ailsa and two hours, seven minutes to the Clara.

In my announcements I state that I cure varicocele without an operation, and one of my correspondents writes that "ANOTHER SPECIALIST" says it cannot be done. I will freely admit that I do not believe there is another physician in the West who can cure varicocele without the necessity of an operation, but I am quite as certain THAT I DO! I do not perform miracles, yet I do make, day in and day out, such cures that others who attempt to treat varicocele say—in wonder—what IS Dr. Taylor's system? And I say to YOU my friend, if you are a sufferer come and let me show you. I shall be glad to have you call. If my office hours are not convenient; if you are afraid that you will be embarrassed at all, I will make a special appointment for you out of my regular office hours if you will prove to me THAT YOU ARE IN EARNEST.

Don't throw this announcement away. Cut it out; put it where you can find it, and if what I have to say to you today is not of GREAT interest, watch for another talk. Shall I send you a treatise on Spermatorrhoea? I will if you live out of the city; and if you can call I will give you in addition a beautifully engraved chart of the generative organs in three colors.

I treat and Cure all Diseases Common to Men. You Can Pay Me When I Have Cured You.

MEN

We Are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

DO NOT FAIL TO READ THE TRUTH ABOUT

Varicocele

One man in every four has some degree of Varicocele, three-fourths of all cases of varicocele have been up against doctors who advertise to cure without an operation, which is an absolute impossibility. We have been curing varicocele in Los Angeles for 15 years and can show business men here in the city by the score who will be more than glad to tell any man who is afflicted with varicocele, all about their experience with our certain and absolute cure by our strictly painless operation. Now we wish to ask any man who has varicocele if he would like to be cured. If so will he go to a specialist who will introduce him to any number of first-class leading business men here in the city who have been cured, or will he hand over his money to a would-be specialist who carries a bombastic advertisement saying he can cure without operation and who can not show a single reliable man whom he has cured. Read this over again and think about it.

"WEAKNESS"

Affections of men commonly described as "weakness," according to our observations, are not such, but depend upon reflex disturbances, and are almost invariably induced or maintained by appreciable damage to the prostate gland. As this may not be perceived by the patient, it is very frequently overlooked by the physician.

If you come to us we give you a thorough examination and consultation absolutely free, and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING

Our Journal can be had without asking for at the bottom of our stairway, to the right; it contains much valuable information. Help yourself to one or write to us and we will mail it.

A PLEASANT LAXATIVE NOT INTOXICATING

To Marry Richest Girl in the World.

HERR GUSTAV VON BOHLEN UND HALBACH.

This is a speaking likeness of Dr. Gustav von Bohlen-und-Halbach, the young German diplomat, who has won the heart and hand of the world's greatest heiress, Fraulein Bertha Krupp, owner of the famous steel, gun and armor-plate works at Essen, Germany. Fraulein Krupp's betrothal took place a month ago, but has just been formally announced. The man who is to marry this twenty-three-year-old possessor of one of the earth's colossal fortunes—estimated at something like $100,000,000, and producing an annual income of not less than $5,000,000—is the scion of an old-time Baden family. He is 36 years old, a former lieutenant of dragoon guards in the Kaiser's army, and for the past twelve years has been in the German imperial diplomatic service. He is now secretary of the German Legation at the Vatican in Rome. Previous to his assignment to the Holy See, Dr. Von Bohlen-und-Halbach had served at the Kaiser's legation in China, and previous to that he was an attaché of the German Embassy in Washington, where he lived a year. His family possesses large financial interests in the United States, acquired through investment during Dr. Von Bohlen-und-Halbach's sojourn at Uncle Sam's capital. He is a graduated lawyer, but without business experience, and it is not considered probable that he will assume the management of the great Krupp interests, although it is understood Miss Bertha's late father, when he died in 1902, expressed a wish that the husband of the heiress should be a man capable of heading the world-famous works at Essen. The marriage will probably take place during the present year.

Miss Krupp made the acquaintance of her fiancé only a year ago, while visiting with her mother at Rome. Dr. Von Bohlen-und-Halbach was her dinner partner at the German Embassy in Rome, and a mutual attachment sprung up, which has ended in the tender manner just announced. The heiress's heart and hand have been sought by scores of suitors, and the names have become public of at least half a dozen who were rejected for one reason or another. She is said to have been dissuaded from a pure love match with an humble young physician at Essen. Two or three princes of the realm and any number of counts and barons are said to have wooed at Villa Hugel, the magnificent Krupp family home outside Essen, and lost. It is not known at this writing whether Dr. Von Bohlen-und-Halbach will continue in the diplomatic service or not. He is spending the month of June doing his annual duty as an officer of the reserve, with his former dragoon regiment in maneuvers in Baden.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Ebell's Vacation.

Election of officers and a charming musical programme filled the afternoon at the last meeting of the Ebell Club yesterday. The summer recess now comes on, and after the twelfth annual breakfast Thursday noon, the Ebell Club will not hold any meetings until the first Monday in October.

The elections resulted in the choice of Mrs. C. G. Hubert for president. Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald was made first vice-president; Mrs. B. M. Baumgardt, second vice-president, and Mrs. J. T. McCoy, third vice-president. Miss Helen Kimball was elected recording secretary; Mrs. Marian D. West, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlyle, treasurer. The office of general curator will be filled by Mrs. W. L. Jones, and Mrs. Frank W. King and Mrs. C. W. Burcham were elected directors.

The newly-elected officers were conducted to the platform and introduced to the club. All gowned in white, they were a pretty picture. Mrs. Hubert made a short address, which was received with applause and enthusiasm.

The second part of the afternoon was made charming by the musical programme perpared by Mrs. Mary J. Schallert. The first number was given by a quartette composed of Mrs. Katherine Kimball Forest, Mrs. Marian B. Weich, Mrs. Schallert and Mrs. Banks. After they had responded to the calls for an encore, Mrs. Bert Stearns danced the Highland fling in costume, kilts, plaid, tartan and all.

Mrs. Banks then sang, "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms." She was followed by Mrs. Baumgardt, who rendered two German songs very feelingly. Mrs. Forest and Mrs. Schallert then sang a duet, "See the Pale Moon," which was particularly well received.

Miss Marie Davies came after the duet, and sang a little French song so charmingly that she was recalled to give an encore. "The Last Rose of Summer" was her choice for this, and the simple melody was rendered with fine feeling.

Two little Spanish children, Ernest Martinez and Viola Yorba, made the next number on the programme. They danced the figure called "La Paloma," and did it extremely well.

The quartette which contributed the first number, with the addition of Mrs. Srorckels and Mrs. R. D. Qua, gave two Dutch songs in dialect, and then Mrs. Stearns recited "Money Musk" with a musical accompaniment.

The programme, which was considered one of the best given this year, closed by the chorus singing "The Star Spangled Banner," in which all the audience joined. After giving three cheers for the new president, three cheers for the retiring president, and three cheers for the Building Committee, the members withdrew to refreshments and punch.

ORIENTALS UP TO DATE.

First Chinese Highwaymen Appear in Los Angeles and Rob Laundryman of Watch and Money.

The first Chinese highwaymen to appear on the police records of the city held up Wong Kay at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning and robbed him of $45 and a fine gold watch. Never before had the local officers known of sons of the Flowery Kingdom doing plain, straight-forward "stick-up" work.

Wong runs a laundry at No. 1616 West Pico street, but lives in Chinatown. Early every morning he leaves his room and goes to his laundry, and yesterday he started to catch the first car for West Pico street. It had long been daylight and he was not looking for trouble, so he shuffled along without paying particular attention to what was going on.

He turned from Ferguson alley into Alameda street and started south. When he had gone about 100 feet he suddenly found himself looking into the business end of a revolver of large caliber, and heard a command to hold up his hands or suffer the consequences; that is, he heard the Chinese equivalent for the usual command of the footpad, and quickly obeyed.

Wong found himself facing two of his countrymen, one of whom held the big gun directly under Wong's nose while the other abused him in Chinese and searched him at the same time. When the two Oriental thugs found the watch and the fat purse they were well satisfied, and, after kicking their victim and making threats which nearly caused his queue to stand upright they ordered him to take up his journey again and not look back, threatening to kill him if he made a noise or attempted to watch them.

Fearing for his life Wong shuffled on for half a block and then broke into a wild gallop, heading toward the Central Police Station where he arrived in record time, minus one slipper and so excited and out of breath that he could not tell what had happened. For half an hour he could only jabber in Chinese!

The highwaymen had so thoroughly frightened their victim that he could not give the police anything but a general description.

A HOME WHERE IT IS HIGH

Only Twenty Minutes From Spring Street

CLOSER TO BUSINESS THAN ADAMS AND FIGUEROA.

A home section that is just being opened up, now that car service has been installed, is that beautiful hill country at the end of East First-st. car line—just beyond Boyle Heights proper. This is without doubt the most handsome home place anywhere in Los Angeles. Has modern improvements, such as well-made streets, cement curbs, walks, gutterings, elegant palms, etc., and in point of scenic beauty surpasses any hill section hereabouts. From many prominent corners of Palma Heights Tract, the best situated property in this section, one has unrestricted view of the whole mountain chain from Old Grayback westward to the sea, and from the mountain line to Whittier, and on to Catalina and the sea on the south; way below you to the right lays the city. You are away above it where the air is pure and healthful. This property is selling rapidly, as it rightfully should. Messrs. Cornish-Braly Co. of 300 Union Trust (Braly) Bldg. are the selling agents, with R. A. Brown and H. L. Hopkins agents on tract, whose office is at end of East First-st. car line, right on the property. Present prices are very low—only $500 to $750, and at terms which any man can afford—for instance—10 per cent. down and only $10 each month. They also have a cheaper tract in same section—"Home Acres"—at $125 to $500 for lots or acreage—$15 to $25 down and $5 or $10 a month for balance.

ECHO MOUNTAIN HOTEL SOON.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC PLANS THAT AND A STATION.

Fifty Thousand Dollars to Be Expended in Rehabilitation of Scenic Half-Way Point on Mount Lowe Line—Munger Becomes General Agent of Traffic Department.

Work will be begun within a few days on the extensive plans for the rehabilitation of Echo Mountain, which the Pacific Electric has had under consideration ever since the destructive fire of last autumn which ruined practically all of the company's property at that point.

The greatest damage done by fire was to the car barns and the incline railway powerhouse. It is intended now to restore not only the car barns, and the power-house, making them larger and more substantial than formerly, but also to construct a handsome passenger station at the top of the incline.

In round numbers the present plans call for the expenditure of $50,000, and will add greatly to the attractiveness of this half-way station on the scenic Mount Lowe division. The company also contemplates the erection of a modern three-story stone and concrete hotel at this point, and unless other more important building enterprises prohibit, the completion of this hotel is promised before the close of the year.

P. E. TRAFFIC AGENT.

D. A. Munger, an electric railway traffic man of considerable experience, has been appointed general agent of the traffic department of the Pacific Electric. Mr. Munger has already entered upon his new duties, having arrived a few days ago from the East.

J. H. Maguire, of the passenger department of the Pacific Electric, has been returned to Alpine, where he was formerly and now will continue to be manager of the tavern, and in charge of the passenger business of the railroad at that end of the line. Maguire is practically a native of the mountain and feels lost anywhere else. He assisted in the construction of the Mount Lowe railway and sold the first tickets issued over the line, when business was handled jointly with the old Terminal Railway Company.

J. P. Turner, has been transferred from Alpine to Echo Mountain, as superintendent, and his jurisdiction extended from Alpine to Altadena.

H. B. Brown, of the passenger department of the Pacific Electric, will succeed J. H. Maguire as traveling passenger agent.

H. E. Montague, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, has so far recovered from the effects of a recent operation that he has been able to leave the Sisters' Hospital and return to his home.

RAPID PROMOTION.

A circular has just been received by H. C. Archer, general agent of the Mexican Central for the Pacific Coast, announcing the appointment of J. C. McDonald, formerly of this city, to the general passenger agency of that road. McDonald lived for a number of years in Los Angeles before going to Mexico and was employed in the passenger department of the Southern Pacific. His rise since going to the southern republic has been rapid. He was appointed general Pacific Coast agent of the Mexican Central scarcely more than a year ago. Three months ago he was made assistant general passenger agent, and July 1 will succeed to the general passenger agency of the most important independent railway system in Mexico.

H. T. Green, newly appointed general passenger agent of the Las Vegas and Tonopah Railway, has gone to Las Vegas, where he will open his headquarters.

WADSLEY GOES EAST.

Occidental Coach Will Join Percy Hagerman at New York, Where They Sail for England.

Coach R. W. Wadsley of Occidental College, who will be with Percy Hagerman, Occidental's best athlete, in his competitions abroad, departed last night for New York, where he will be joined later by Hagerman, both sailing for the continent June 25.

Wadsley may never return to the Pacific Coast, and expects to remain abroad several months, the poor health of his father making his presence necessary in England. With his departure and the severance of his connection with Southern California athletics, both Occidental and the State lose a good instructor and trainer.

Wadsley has developed some of the best athletes ever produced in the South, and this, too, from comparatively raw material. His work has been careful and systematic, and the showing of Occidental this year speaks volumes for his ability as a coach.

Southern California's ideal winter and summer subdivision.

The warmest weather tempered by the health-giving ocean breezes.

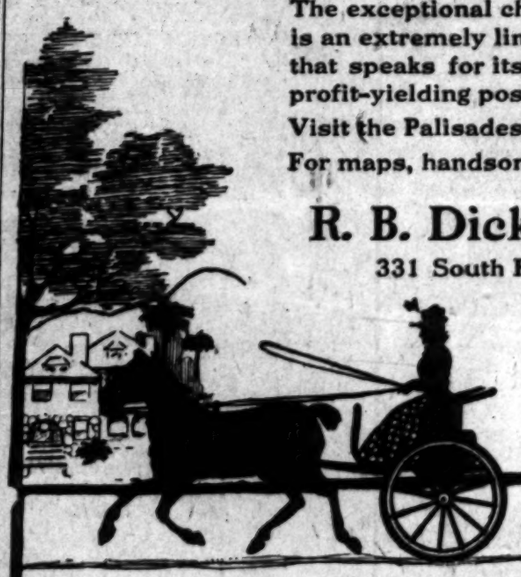
The most attractive type of property offered to critical homeseekers.

Ocean, mountain and canyons contribute to its desirability.

Between progressive Santa Monica and Santa Monica Canyon.

The equal of the famous Palisades-on-the-Hudson.

$6000 to $20,000 homes now being erected.



The exceptional character of the Palisades, together with the fact that there is an extremely limited amount of it, IS AN INVESTMENT ARGUMENT that speaks for itself. No type of residential property presents greater profit-yielding possibilities.

Visit the Palisades today. You'll find that we haven't told HALF the story.

10 PER CENT. A MONTH

Big dividend, isn't it? Yet it is paid regularly, not by some "get-rich-quick" scheme, but by one of the soundest, safest business enterprises in the whole country, an enterprise that was started in a very modest manner a very few years ago—not a bank, mercantile establishment or real estate syndicate, but

A Hospital

One of the best in Los Angeles, but by no means modern in arrangement or equipment, and not in a fireproof building; a hospital, good, but that will appear obsolete and precarious compared to the

that is to be erected on Sunset Boulevard and Marion avenue, Angeleno Heights, by the Sunset Hospital corporation. The Sunset Hospital will be the equal in convenience of arrangement, sanitary and hygienic facilities and fullness of equipment of any in the world, and it will be FIREPROOF, the only real FIREPROOF hospital Southern California will have when it is completed, the only hospital in all of this southern land—the Mecca of the sick and ailing—in which the helpless sick and injured will feel safe from death in a horrible form.

The Sunset Hospital will be built on a large plot of ground high above fogs and flood waters, and commanding a magnificent view of mountain and valley—a healthy, cheerful, hope inspiring site, the ideal site for a hospital and sanatorium. The building will be 102x84 feet in dimensions, and three stories and basement in height; it will be constructed of concrete, brick, hollow tile and steel, thus being as non-combustible as modern skill can make it.

The medical staff of the Sunset Hospital will embrace some of the most prominent, successful and trusted physicians and surgeons of this city, and the confidence and interests of all physicians sending patients to the hospital will be scrupulously respected.

That Los Angeles hospitals pay extra liberal dividends is not open to question; your own banker will tell you, in effect, that "Los Angeles hospitals have proven among the best, if not the best investments in the city"—ask him. Indeed, you can prove the fact with your own memory. Go back in your mind a few years and recall the insignificant proportions of some hospitals now noted, hospitals that have expanded to several times their first size, paying for the expansion out of their profits, and all the while yielding generous dividends to their stockholders.

In hospital enterprises, as in every other kind, the time to become interested is at the beginning, not after the institution is well under way and dividend paying has commenced, or is in sight.

We have placed a small block, only 25,000 shares, of Sunset Hospital stock on the market at and it is selling rapidly. It will soon be gone. The next allotment will be sold at not less than 75 cents per share. If you wish any at 50 cents you must buy NOW.

If you are seeking an absolutely safe investment, one that will grow quickly into greater value, and one that you can sleep soundly over, call and let us tell you about the Sunset Hospital; it will cost you nothing, and the information will be valuable whether you invest or not.

We have a number of physicians among our stockholders—they know how hospitals pay, that is why we have them.

Quick action means quick profits.

SEWER HOLE YET DARKER.

Board of Public Works in the Dark, Too.

Statements of "The Times" All Borne Out.

President Anderson Offers One Solution.

Stirred by the exposure by The Times of the extraordinary condition of affairs existing on the outfall sewer, the sewer that is still without an outfall—the Board of Public Works gave forth yesterday its disingenuous statement of the unwholesome mess into which it has been precipitated.

The board grudgingly confirms over its own signatures most of the statements published in The Times. It is now very willing to stand from under and let the people know—since they already know.

The commissioners admit that Superintendent Mulholland of the water department made a recommendation for the use of shields and advised them that it was a difficult engineering proposition.

They further admit that they were aware that the contractors were making no progress on the tunnel section, and that the brick delivered are not equal to specifications.

Commissioner Hubbard says that the brick are all right, but that the specifications are faulty. "Those specifications for brick are practically impossible of fulfillment," said Mr. Hubbard yesterday. "The brick probably will absorb more than 10 per cent. of moisture, and they do not have smooth surfaces, not all of them, but they are good brick."

But on an impromptu cross-examination, Mr. Hubbard admitted that the brick delivered by the Simons company have not been satisfactory, and that the City Engineer has sent a letter to the company warning the managers that the brick must be better quality, or they will not be accepted.

ASKED FOR CONFERENCE.

In their excitement the commissioners made some statements that they are likely to find difficult to explain later. Each commissioner asserted in open session that they never have been asked by the contractors to a conference of any kind; that no such suggestion has been made to them.

Yet in the letter files of the secretary of the board is the following communication from the contractors:

To the Honorable Board of Public Works and City Engineer of Los Angeles:

We beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 24th inst., in relation to the progress of work on tunnel and section 3 of the outfall sewer.

If you can do so at the present time we would be glad to have your plan in detail so that we may confer with you concerning it.

The board waited three weeks, then sent back a refusal to suggest any plans for completing the tunnel, and ignored the invitation to confer over the progress of the work.

No one believes that the contractors are moved by any philanthropic motives in their present attitude with regard to completing the outfall. But they apparently have made good on their statement that they had asked the board to confer, and that the board had declined.

It is now generally conceded that the city, instead of having an outfall sewer, will have a lawsuit with the contractors, possibly over their bond.

And sewage will continue to float from brimming manholes through the city's streets; and sewage irrigated vegetables will be sold in the markets to be served uncooked on local tables.

BOARD TO CONTRACTORS.

That the board was well aware of existing conditions, but has been unable to suggest any remedy except more pumps, is shown in the following communication which it sent on May 24 to the contractors:

You and each of you are hereby notified that the work of constructing the outfall sewer, which work you are now engaged in doing under contract with the city of Los Angeles, is not progressing at a rate which, in the judgment of the City Engineer and of the Board of Public Works of the city of Los Angeles, will secure the completion thereof within the time specified in the contract therefor.

That the rate of progress of said work is unsatisfactory in this: that the work of constructing the tunnel in Section 3 of said outfall sewer is being greatly retarded by the presence of water therein and that the methods and appliances employed and used by you for removing said water are insufficient and wholly inappropriate for the purpose. You and each of you are hereby notified that you are required to increase the efficiency and improve the character of the methods and appliances for removing said water from said tunnel, and from said Section 3 of said outfall sewer by procuring and installing an adequate pumping plant to be located at some point or points satisfactory to the undersigned along Section 2, east of engineer's station 30+50, as shown on the profile of said outfal sewer on file in the office of the City Engineer. Said pumping plant to be operated in connection with the work of constructing said tunnel in said Section 3 of said outfall sewer for the purpose of pumping out and removing the water therefrom. The foregoing direction and notices are given in order that the work of constructing said outfall sewer will be done at a rate of progress sufficient to secure the completion thereof within the time required by said contract.

WHAT THEY SAY.

The time limit set for completing the outfall will expire in less than two months, but no competent engineer has made an estimate that the remaining portion of the tunnel can be completed in a year's time. All say from three to seven years.

The contractors are coming in for their full share of censure for existing conditions. The members of the Board of Public Works now assert openly that Stansbury & Powell are striving to throw up their contract after finishing all the easy work and drawing their pay for it.

City Engineer Stafford says that the contractors knew that the water was there when they made their bid. He thinks that they can get pumps that will take the water out. Members of the Board of Public Works join in this assertion about pumping.

But they will not take cognizance of the fact that the contractors have in their possession written opinions from some of the leading pump manufacturers in the country that neither cylinder nor centrifugal pumps will work in the clay and quicksand formation under the Inglewood highlands.

It is in this that the procrastination appears. By the time the pumps can be secured from the East and tested the remainder of the summer will be gone. This fact settles conclusively that the tunnel section of the outfall will stand idle until next summer.

From President Anderson of the board, however, comes the first seemingly practical solution of the vexed outfall sewer problem.

ANDERSON'S SOLUTION.

"I shall never consent to an abandonment of the plans for a gravity sewer," said Mr. Anderson. "I shall not consider a proposition that will mean that the sewage must be pumped during all the years that the outfall is in use. But I have this to suggest: If it is found after a thorough trial that the pumps will not work and that the tunnel must be driven with a shield, we might build a temporary bore at a higher elevation, establish a temporary pumping station and use that until the outfall present tunnel is driven through on grade lines."

From two Councilmen who decline to be quoted came the suggestion that the work on section No. 2 be stopped at once, that section No. 1 be abandoned, and that these two sections be built at a higher grade. This would cost the city about $250,000, and it would enable the tunnel to be driven on a grade twelve feet higher than the present level, just high enough to pass over the quicksands that have stopped work on the tunnel section. It could be finished in a year.

Stansbury & Powell are rushing work on the other sections of the sewer. They hope to have these completed by the time the contract expires, although they are entitled to almost unlimited extensions of time by reason of the failure of the city to deliver material according to contract a year and a half ago.

BOARD'S STATEMENT.

The Board of Public Works yesterday issued a statement, signed by all the members, which reads as follows:

We were notified by City Engineer Stafford two months ago that the contractors were not making progress on the Inglewood portion of the tunnel and that water had been encountered in that portion of the tunnel north of Inglewood. The board wrote Stansbury & Powell, the contractors, requesting that they call upon it in reference to the matter. They did so and stated that they had encountered great difficulties in making headway on account of water and owing to the peculiar stratification.

After an inspection of the work in connection with City Engineer Stafford, the board suggested that the contractors consult with Water Superintendent Mulholland. This they did and in pursuance of their request Mr. Mulholland looked over the work and stated later to the Board of Public Works at the latter's office that, while it was a difficult engineering proposition, he thought that it could be accomplished by putting down a sufficient number of wells and using pumps to create zones of depression along the line of the tunnel while the masonry was being constructed.

Mr. Mulholland said that the only other recommendation was to use shields. The board then notified the contractors that the progress they were making was not satisfactory and that they must adopt some more effective method to facilitate the work, and directed that they make use of an adequate pumping plant for that purpose. The contractors wrote the board asking that it specify with particularity the exact appliances required to be used. This, upon the advice of the City Attorney, the board declined to do and again directed the contractors to use either pumps or shields, without specifying the kind of appliance.

We have never received any notification from the contractors that they intended to abandon or could not accomplish any part of the work or that the specifications were faulty in any particular.

As to the suggestion that that portion of the sewer which crosses this water-bearing land should be raised above the grade of the other portion of the sewer and the sewage pumped into it, this has never been made to the board by the contractors or by any one else but if made, it would not be considered for one moment as the board deems it would be a great detriment to the city's interests entailing throughout all the time the sewer shall be used a large expense for pumping. We will insist that the contract be carried out and the tunnel constructed upon grade so that there shall be a gravity flow of the sewage to the ocean.

As to the length of time it will take to complete the work by the shield plan, we are not informed, but we can see no reason why, if the work is pushed with pumps on the plan suggested by Mr. Mulholland, there should be any great delay in its completion.

We are certainly not prepared to consider for one moment the proposition to construct the tunnel on a modified line which would require pumping.

As to that portion of the sewer already completed, one of the first things we received when the Board of Public Works came into office was the report of the experts appointed to examine the sewer, Messrs. Octavius Morgan, Henry E. Brett and A. H. Koebig, and their report showed that it was constructed in a thorough, workmanlike manner and up to the specifications. That portion of the sewer in Section No. 2, which is now being completed, has had the closest attention of City Engineer Stafford.

WHOLESALE CONCERN.

A new wholesale dry goods concern is to be opened in Los Angeles within the next three months. It is to be known as the Western Coast Dry Goods Company and is to have a capitalization of $250,000. Ed Casey, an old-time dry goods man on the coast, will probably be in charge. The house will have temporary quarters on South Los Angeles street between Fourth and Fifth streets.

UNDISPUTED SEWER FACTS.

(1.) Work has been stopped on the tunnel section. The Times has never stated that work has been stopped on the other uncompleted sections.

(2.) The tunnel cannot be completed within a year of the time named in the contract. It may not be completed in six years.

(3.) Half a million dollars has already been sunk in the quicksands under the Inglewood highlands and the city is without an outfall sewer.

(4.) The brick delivered by the Simons Brick Company are not equal to specifications.

(5.) At the rate of progress made during the last year it will require fourteen years to complete the tunnel.

(6.) Expert engineers, Water Superintendent Mulholland among them, have advised that the practical way to complete the tunnel is to use a shield and compressed air.

(7.) Superintendent Mulholland suggested that the quickest way to complete the tunnel would be to elevate the north end twelve feet above the level named in the specifications. This would necessitate pumping the sewage.

(8.) A gravity sewer could have been built on the present line at a sufficient elevation to carry the tunnel through the Inglewood highlands at the water level. The cost of the tunnel would have been less than one-fourth that of a bore at the present elevation.

OUTLAWS TRY TO SINK BOAT.

Tangle Cable in Propeller of the Mayfair.

Captain's Quick Wit Saves Dangerous Wreck.

Dastardly Acts of Laborites at San Pedro.

After at least two dastardly attempts had been made by union labor outlaws at San Pedro to wreck or sink the steamer Mayfair that vessel was tied up at the long wharf at Port Los Angeles yesterday and proceeded to unload the remainder of its cargo of lumber.

A week before the Mayfair had reached San Pedro and had discharged 200,000 feet of lumber for the Consolidated Lumber Company when the sailors were ordered on strike. They dropped work at once, leaving 400,000 feet of lumber still on the boat.

Vessel owners and lumbermen say these latest outrages at San Pedro deal a terrific blow at the commercial importance of that harbor. If they be permitted to continue, it is declared that shipping will turn at once to Port Los Angeles or other ports where there is freedom from molestation by disgruntled and misguided sailors and the disorderly element that is joining them in the destruction of property and the interference with free workmen.

CAPTAIN'S QUICK WIT.

Only the thoughtfulness of the captain of the Mayfair saved the boat from great harm on Saturday night. With a crew that had been assembled after the strike, he attempted to put out into the stream with his vessel.

As a final precaution before giving the go-ahead signal to the engineer, the captain stripped off his clothing and dived into the bay at the stern of the boat. Under water, he made a hasty examination of the propeller and found it to be wound time and again with a heavy wire cable.

Had the engine started with this obstruction in the blades of the propeller, the impeiling machinery of the boat would have been wrecked beyond hope of immediate repair, entailing a loss of many hundreds of dollars on the owners.

A hole might have been torn in the hull that would have caused the vessel, its cargo and all on board to go down.

With much labor the cable was disentangled from the propeller where it had been twisted by the labor union ruffians and the Mayfair was in shape to move. Night had come, however, and it was decided to wait until morning before starting for Port Los Angeles, where the owners and consignees of the cargo had been assured protection from molestation until the lumber should be unloaded.

TUG CREW CAPITULATES.

Meantime arrangements were made for a tug from Redondo to go to San Pedro and tow the Mayfair around to the long wharf at Santa Monica. Owing to the freedom from union domination at Redondo, it was supposed the crew of the tug would respond willingly to the request made of them. The tug was sent over to San Pedro, but there its crew listened to the siren voice of the totem harpies and refused to pull the Mayfair out of the harbor.

By this time D. B. Beadle, one of the owners of the Mayfair, had arrived from San Francisco, together with George N. Mac Rae, a special service employé of the owners. Deputy Sheriff Cleveland and other officers were on the boat.

Under its own steam the Mayfair made ready to leave. A hundred or more striking sailors and loafers were on the wharf.

The boat started out into the stream, one line of its moorings remaining to be cast off. This line was so adjusted around a pile that it would slide into the water as the vessel moved out.

All was going well, when suddenly a union sympathizer on the pier darted toward the rope and with a sudden twist gave it a half-hitch over the top of the pile.

DANGEROUS SITUATION.

Under a good headway, the Mayfair pulled up the slack in the line and in another instant the taut rope would have drawn so hard on the piling as to pull it and a good part of the structure into the bay, but like a flash one of the emergency crew whipped out a knife and slashed the line close to the Mayfair's stern, thus preventing the damage that had been planned by the outlaw who had given the half-hitch to the rope.

The Mayfair then proceeded to Port Los Angeles, and the owners announced last night that, as soon as it is unloaded they will proceed with it at once to San Francisco and lay it up until the trouble is over.

Speaking of the strike last night, one of the owners said the demands of the sailors of steam vessels would not be granted, even if every boat had to be tied up.

Sailors of steam vessels are paid $50 a month and their board for eight hours of duty a day. At sea their duties are light. In port they aid in loading and discharging cargoes. They are paid 50 cents an hour for overtime and double this amount for such work as is done on Sundays and holidays. They are said to average $70 a month and their board.

They have asked for an increase in pay and absolute recognition of the union, with the stipulation that owners shall employ none but union men.

It is the hide-bound requirement that bars free labor that has caused the rebellion of the owners. They wish to be masters of their own vessels and declare they will keep up the fight for that right.

As an indication of the harm that is being done to the port of San Pedro by the strike, it is reported that three steamers that should have unloaded at San Pedro are discharging their cargoes at Port Los Angeles. It is said that other vessels will be ordered to go with their cargoes to the latter port.

AUTO BEYOND CONTROL; DEATH.

The funeral of William A. Akers, the mining engineer who died Saturday night from injuries received in an automobile accident, will be held this morning in the chapel at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Rev. Baker P. Lee will officiate. Manuel Garfias, who was also injured in the accident, is recovering slowly, at the French Hospital. The Coroner held an inquest over his remains of Akers yesterday afternoon, and the jury found that he met his death on account of being unable to control his automobile." The evidence showed that the car had nearly stopped when the big auto crashed into it.

SURE ENOUGH "BIG STICK."

Towering Flag-pole to Pierce Hole in the Sky Above Old Wilmington.

A flag-pole that is declared to be the biggest ever brought into Southern California is to be raised in Wilmington Thursday in the yards of its owners, the Consolidated Lumber Company. The pole is 155 feet long and was hewn from a single yellow fir tree in the forests of Washington. It is 30 inches in diameter at the base and 6 inches across at the top. It was brought down on the deck of the barkentine Thomas P. Emigh and at least cars were required to transport it from the wharf to its final destination. It will be set fourteen feet in the ground. From its top will float an immense American flag that will be visible from many distant points on land and at sea.

OIL PRICES GO UP.

Advance of Eight Cents Within Past Few Days—Standard More Than Doubles Contracts.

A distinct stiffening in the price of crude oil is taking place in Los Angeles, an advance of as much as 8 cents having occurred within the last few days.

Said W. F. Botsford, an officer of the Union Oil Company to a Times reporter yesterday, "While the market is growing stronger the conditions are normal, and are probably due to the general clean-up of surplus supply which takes place at this time of the year."

The advance was further explained in talks with oil men, the opinion being that prices are but seeking their natural level—that oil has been cheaper than the market conditions warrant. The Kern field has been falling off in its output for some time, and the closing down of some of the plants of the independent operators has increased the storage in the supply. Also, the Standard Oil Company has more than doubled its contracts for crude oil to be used from this field for refining purposes, and as the Standard does not utilize the residual, the result is that more oil going into its refineries means a smaller supply of crude oil and asphaltum. It is further stated that the territory supplied by the local oil companies is steadily growing, particularly in Arizona, and that this is responsible in a measure for the rise in the market.

CHANCE FOR THEIR PLACES.

Leniency Shown Boycotting Bakers, but if They Listen to Agitators Their Jobs Will Go.

Leniency is shown the union bakers in their attempt to boycott the Globe Grain and Mill Company and unionize all the bake shops of this city. At a meeting of the Master Bakers' Association, held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and presided over by its president, William Meek, it was decided to give the union bakers a chance to save their positions.

"We like our men," said William Meek to a Times reporter last night, "and we are confident that the majority of the union bakers are not in sympathy with the strike and boycott. They are men of family, most of them, who have lived in this city for years, and we are sorry to see conditions arise which may lose them their positions and make it impossible for them to continue their trades in Los Angeles. Nothing definite was done at the meeting of the master bakers this afternoon beyond the fact that it was decided to give the union men a chance to raise the boycott on the Globe mills. The next meeting of the union will be held Saturday, and at that time the thing will come to a showdown. If the bakers refuse to work with Globe flour they will be discharged and other men will be put in their places. We are settled on this point, and shall not deviate from it one inch. As far as we are concerned the attempted strike and boycott of the bakers' union is a lost issue for them. If they do quit, there are plenty of men to take their places."

BAND OF HORSE THIEVES.

Talk of Vigilantes and Prospects of Something Doing in Hollywood if They're Caught.

It begins to look as if an organized band of horse thieves is operating in the vicinity of Hollywood, and there is talk of vigilantes to run them down.

The thieves are very discriminating and do not take just any kind of an old plug of a horse, but pick the finest, and the underground connections of the gang are so good that they are successfully covering their tracks.

Several specially fine horses have been stolen in the Hollywood section within the past two weeks, and none have been recovered.

The most recent one is a fine black mare stolen from the stable of E. F. Bogardus on Sunset boulevard on Friday night. She is a particularly valuable animal, showing good speed and being one of a match team. She has a white star on her forehead, has one white hind foot and is branded with a cross and a circle.

Within ten days prior to the theft of Mr. Bogardus' horse a fine animal was stolen from a man named Boonefelt and another from a man named Fortner, neither of which have been recovered.

The Sheriff reports that he received on an average of one complaint a day of horses stolen, and that his office recovers about three-fourths of them, but no trace has been found of those reported from Hollywood.

Mr. Bogardus said yesterday that all three of these horses, having been taken from stables on Sunset boulevard, makes it look to him like the work of an organized gang, and that if it continues, horsemen will organize for self protection, the recovery of their animals, as well as "playing horse" with the thieves should they be rounded up.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

James Gordon, aged 70 years, living at the Soldiers' Home, was taken to the Receiving Hospital last night suffering with severe lacerations of the face and body bruises sustained in a fall down a flight of stairs at No. 245½ South Los Angeles street.

Lying Tactics Used to Boss Stucco Manufacturers.

"Pinhead" McCarthy, professed boss of union labordom in California, is showing his trail again in Los Angeles. His satraps are reviving the ancient and often lost attempt to "unionize" this city. With a great flash in their own circles they have opened headquarters in the old Los Angeles planing mill at Fifth and San Pedro streets and from there are conducting a campaign that in their eyes will end with the flaunting of the union flag from a totem pole atop the City Hall.

With one foot choking the industry and checking the upbuilding of San Francisco, "Pinhead" has planted his other hobnailed boot in Los Angeles and is endeavoring to build up a union machine here that is calculated to make him and his followers the utter masters of employers in every line, as well as of citizens in general.

Despite the headstones that mark the graves of countless lost strikes and defeated efforts to "unionize" Los Angeles, McCarthy and his "min" have installed the Central Labor Council in the low and long brick building on San Pedro street, which, strangely enough, is the tomb of one of their asinine "strikes" that cost scores of union mill men good positions and resulted in building up a planing mill to the extent that it was obliged to seek larger quarters to accommodate its business. The building was occupied by the Los Angeles Planing Mill Company when a general strike of mill hands was called last fall. Proprietor McDonald, with other mill owners, refused to give in to the demands of the totemites and the strikers were whipped to an inglorious finish.

Then McDonald's business expanded to such an extent that he was obliged to move to more commodious quarters.

SHINING SATELLITES.

In this building also are housed the Building Trades Council, which has had little play for its trouble-breeding activities because of the determined stand of local contractors; the Bakers' Union, which already is defeated in an attempt to force unreasonable demands upon employers; the Carpenters' Union, the Plumbers' Union, and the Union Labor Temple Association.

McCarthy's underlings in charge of the works are working at the wobbly local machine, trying to make it as strong as the one in which the red life-blood of San Francisco industry has been squeezed for these many years. Organizers are active in every trade, trying to drag new dupes into the various organizations, and a concerted attempt is under way to make a union card worth the pasteboard upon which it is printed.

The fact that for the first time in several years, the totemites were not strong enough here on May 1 of this year to present "demands" to employers, has stirred McCarthy and his kind to desperation; and they are making this last stand to square themselves with the smattering of local organization that pours its dues into union coffers.

The newest and rawest attempt of the McCarthy gang to gain a foothold here was exposed yesterday when "demands" were made on manufacturers of stucco and staff ornaments for higher wages, a shorter day and recognition of the union.

There are fourteen such factories in Los Angeles and the heads of several were approached by representatives of the totem leaders, who presented the "demands."

LYING TACTICS PURSUED.

With the sneaking tactics of their kind, these fellows told the individual employers that his brother employers had complied with the "request" and that he was the only one holding out.

Asking time for consideration, some of the employers compared notes one with another, and quickly learned that an effort was being made to bulldoze them.

Not one employer had made any agreement with the union bosses. The statements made by the union gang were bare-faced lies. It was even found that few, if any, of the employés of the various factories were members of the union that the totemites claimed to represent. The men are satisfied with steady work at good wages and have asked no McCarthy to lead them into trouble.

A fellow named Charles Fleck of Chicago is the organizer of this latest "union," which is mostly on paper.

The manufacturers are greatly incensed at the imposition which the totemites atteinpted to work on them and they have planned to hold a meeting within a few days to perfect plans for standing together against any assault that may be made upon their individual conduct of their business. One of the employers announced yesterday that he would nail up the doors of his shop before he would treat with McCarthy or any of his followers.

Included in the crowd of bushwhackers that is endeavoring to renew the union agitation here are a number of the walking delegates and other totem riff-raff of San Francisco, temporarily out of jobs by reason of the disaster in the North. The industrial freedom of Los Angeles is extremely obnoxious to this gentry and they want to see a change.

PICO HEIGHTS ENTERTAINMENT.

An entertainment will be given tonight in the Masonic Temple, Pico Heights, under the auspices of the ladies of the Congregational Church. There will be classical piano selections by Mme. Jean de Chauvenet; violin solos by Prof. Gustave Albers, and dramatic readings by Prof. William H. Wright. All are members of the Wright-King Amusement Company of this city.

HOTCHKISS COMPANY DISABLED.

The Hotchkiss Theater company was disabled last night by the sudden illness of comedian Max Dill, and the evening's performance of "The Beauty Shop" was completely cancelled. Dill was making up for his appearance, when he suddenly fell to the floor of his dressing-room, victim of an acute attack of stomach trouble. He was removed to his hotel in an ambulance.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FRANCHISE FOR NEW TUNNELS.

PROPOSED RAILWAY CUT-OFF ON NORTH HILL STREET.

Council Inclined Favorably Toward Ordinance, but Discovers It's a Foundling—Right of Way Under Temple-street Hill Asked, Would Mean Short Line to Hollywood.

A foundling railway franchise crept into the pile of documents on the Council minute clerk's desk yesterday and almost slipped through as an ordinance.

A search for the fond parents proved futile, but it was such a likely youngster that the committee of the whole took it in charge, and promised to care for it until it becomes a full-fledged railway.

The franchise is for a railway extending from Fourth and Hill streets to the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company's right of way on Sunset boulevard in the northwestern section of the city. The proposed route is as follows:

North on Hill street from Fourth across Third, Second and First streets, through a tunnel from First to Temple streets, across Temple by a private right of way in a tunnel to Bellevue avenue, west along Bellevue avenue and Sunset boulevard to the private right of way of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company, along this private right of way to the western city limits.

This covers the line on which the Los Angeles-Pacific has been purchasing and and planning tunnels. It contemplates two combination city and railway bores on North Hill street, one north of Temple street and the other south of it. Plans for these tunnels have already been filed with the Board of Public Works.

When the franchise was ready everybody waited for some one to come forward and father it. No one appeared.

"Where did you get this?" inquired a legislator of the clerk.

"It was here on my desk with the other papers. I think it came in downstairs," replied Minute Clerk Wilde.

"It sounds good if there is really any one wants it," commented another Councilman, "but we cannot act on it without some show of support."

Still the parentage remained undisclosed and the chairman referred it to the committee of the whole.

Just as the Council adjourned Lawrence Holmes hastened through the lobby. "Was there an ordinance read here for a railway franchise on Hill street?" he asked breathlessly.

He was told that the ordinance had been pronounced a foundling. He breathed hard until he learned that it had been referred to the committee of the whole.

"Well, that is just as good," he said, "it is just as well there as anywhere. It is a good thing and will bear investigating."

Three months ago Lawrence Holmes and other Hill-street property owners asked the Board of Public Works to consider a proposal for a combination street and railway tunnel under Temple-street hill. At that time the assertion was made that it would cut seventeen minutes off the running time of the Hollywood and Santa Monica cars.

It was proposed to make the tunnel a portion of the new boulevard system circling the city and connecting the parks.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WINS.

GETS EAST FIFTH STREET.

The recommendation of the Southern Pacific company concerning the abandonment of a portion of East Fifth street, proved more potent with the Council yesterday than that of the Board of Public Works.

From the board came the recommendation that the city abandon the portion of Fifth street, between Central avenue and the Arcade station only on condition that the Southern Pacific deed to the city land equal to three-fourths of the land abandoned. The Southern Pacific asked for the East Fifth street and promised in return only its good will. But it agreed to permit the citizens to still travel over a portion of the abandoned strip.

And the Council filed the recommendation of the board, and granted that of the Southern Pacific.

W. R. Burke and other real estate men told the Council that the railroad is planning a magnificent improvement for East Fifth street in the way of a handsome new depot. They said that the slice of Fifth street east of Central avenue is needed to complete the station.

"Judge" McKinley permitted the legislators to feast their eyes on a blue print, showing the lines of the new station. He called their attention to the fact that the land set aside for the use of the public in and about the station comprises more territory than that abandoned by the city. He named some technical reasons why the Southern Pacific company should not deed this land to the city.

The Councilmen were so impressed by his presentation of the case that they forthwith voted unanimously to file the report of the Board of Public Works, and to grant the petition for abandonment.

With admirable foresight the "Judge" had prepared an ordinance of abandonment. This was presented forthwith, and the deal was completed without the customary reference to the City Attorney.

A number of East Fifth-street residents had petitioned the Council for a foot bridge at least across the Southern Pacific right of way in return for the abandonment of the street. But this petition was in some manner overlooked by the Council.

FOR SEVENTH STREET.

NEW RAILWAY FRANCHISE.

City Clerk Lelande was instructed by the Council yesterday to advertise for sale a street-railway franchise on Seventh street and Hollenbeck avenue, extending from Broadway to the eastern city limits. In order that there may be no question about building the road after the franchise is sold the amount of the bond was fixed at $50,000.

This is the heaviest bond ever required by the city of the purchaser of a street-railway franchise. There is considerable doubt as to just who will build the road, although it is understood that there will be a bidder. A week ago Councilman Kern made the assertion that business men owning property in his ward will pay for the material that is to go into the new railway. A year and a half ago the Council advertised this franchise for sale on a twenty-one-year time limit, and no bids were received. This time the legislators hope to do better.

VETO OVERRULED.

SPUR TRACK FRANCHISE.

The Mayor's veto of the Scheller spur track franchise on Central avenue received but a short shrift in the hands of the Council. The ordinance was called from the files of the committee of the whole, where it has been quietly resting for several months, and was placed on its passage.

When the Mayor sent the franchise back to the Council it was accompanied by a message protesting against a third track on Central avenue.

The spur track is to be a branch of the Interurban Railway. It was asked for by the Union Hardware Company. The franchise starts at the Third-street market on Central avenue, extends north on Central to First street, and thence into the yards of the Union Hardware Company.

ONE FOR SIXTH WARD.

GETS POLICE COMMISSIONER.

Mayor McAleer sent to the Council yesterday a message announcing the appointment of Charles Saddler, a Sixth-ward horse dealer and Republican politician, to a place on the Police Commission. The appointment received a unanimous confirmation by the Council.

Mr. Saddler has been associated with the Mayor in breeding fine horses. During the last mayoralty campaign he proved a power of strength in the Sixth Ward. He is regarded as one of the "liberals" on the board.

More Water Land.

Acting on the recommendation of the Water Board, the Council passed a resolution yesterday authorizing the purchase of more water-bearing land in the Owens Valley. The land is a tract on which the city has held options for several months. The engineers say that it will be a valuable addition to the city's holdings in the valley. The purchase price is $12,500.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FATEFUL FETE OFF ITS FEET.

LIBERAL ALLIANCE SUING TO HAVE BILLS FOOTED.

Alleged in Court That Associates Who Provided Park Refuse to Pay for Advertising According to Contract, and So Legal Trouble Follows a Good Time.

When the Liberal Alliance selected April 1 as the culminating day for its fete it defied fate, and now seeks redress for an alleged grievance in the courts. The Liberal Alliance is an organization that believes in social recreation and relaxation, and negotiations were opened with Henry Koch, the Los Angeles Improvement Company and the Lehigh Improvement Company for holding a fete that was to eclipse anything of the kind ever in Los Angeles.

Koch and the two improvement companies contracted to obtain Chutes Park for the fete and to have it suitably decorated for the two-days' celebration. The park was to break out into a wild effulgence of color, the pavilion was to be a blaze of bunting, and a band of not less than twenty pieces was to be on hand to give eclat to the opening, and lend aid to the rancing throng that was expected. Illuminations on a large scale were to add to the fairylike scene, and as a consideration for all of this the Liberal Alliance undertook to provide everything in the way of a programme and divide the profits of the undertaking with Koch and the improvement companies.

Under the general contract it was stipulated that Koch and associates were to bear the expense of advertising the fete, but later an amendment to this contract was made by which Koch and the improvement companies agreed to foot the bills for such advertising as the Liberal Alliance might consider necessary, and which the organization could best deal with. That rather wide stipulation led to the present trouble.

The Liberal Alliance dipped into advertising to the extent of $400 and after the fete wanted Koch and the improvement companies to stand by their bond and foot the bills. But they wouldn't do it, and now suit has been begun to recover the amount. To prove the bona fide nature of the advertising and bring it under the contract agreement a good deal of testimony regarding the getting up of the Liberal Alliance fete, and the manner of its conduct, will have to be introduced at the trial if the case ever reaches that stage.

It was a brilliant and successful fete, and a good time the Alliance had, and its officials say they regret having to go to law over it.

HIGGINS ESTATE.

The will of the late Hiram Higgins, bearing date of June 29, 1905, was filed for probate yesterday in the Superior Court. Under its terms, J. W. Phelps is appointed executor and trustee of the larger part of the property. In the petition filed no valuation is placed upon the total estate, inasmuch as Mr. Higgins had interests in Iowa, which will be dealt with by the probate courts of that State. In California, however, the real property is valued at $50,000, and the personal property at $250,000.

It is provided in the will that the home place at No. 2619 Wilshire boulevard shall be at the disposal of the widow, Mrs. Emma C. Higgins, for her lifetime, and then revert to the daughter, Mrs. Lillian C. Rand. The same applies to the furniture, and all the accessories of the homstead.

It is stated that both the widow and children are possessed of property, and all left by the deceased was his separate estate. It is left to J. W. Phelps in trust for the following purposes: From the income $100 a month is to be paid to William R. Higgins and his wife jointly, and the remainder divided equally between the widow and Mrs. Lillian C. Rand. Upon the death of either the amount shall accrue to the other, and in the event of the death of both, the three grandchildren are to be the beneficiaries.

After the lapse of twenty years, if the widow still lives, half of the estate is to be distributed in the following proportions: Half to the widow, and half to be divided among the three grandchildren. If Mrs. Higgins shall not have lived, then one-quarter will go to Mrs. Rand, and the balance be divided among the grandchildren.

Ten years after the first distribution the balance of the estate is to be divided in the same way—save the annuity to the son—and various provisos hedge around the administration of the trust.

NEGRO BOUND OVER.

IMMORAL ACTS CHARGED.

John Davis, a negro, was held to answer by Justice Pierce yesterday, his bail being fixed at $2000. Davis is charged with repeated attacks on a feeble-minded young woman.

The testimony in the examination showed that Mrs. Maggie Marsh, colored, the mother of the young woman, has been living with Davis as his wife for fourteen years. Her daughter, Lizzie Marsh, is twenty-three years of age.

Mrs. Marsh said that when she discovered what had been going on between Davis and her daughter, she went to J. H. Smith, the cobbler attorney, and he advised her to let the matter drop. After the arrest of Davis, Smith told her to keep her mouth closed, and if brought to task she could say that her brother, Henry, threatened her and said he would send her to the insane asylum if she didn't do just as she was told. Justice Pierce stated that these aspersions had no place in the examination, and so the full details as to how the first case against Davis ended in his discharge did not come out.

Mrs. Moulton appeared yesterday as a witness for the defendant. She testified as to the all-round good character of Davis.

Attorney Carlyle, associate counsel with Deputy District Attorney McCartney for the prosecution, inquired of Mrs. Moulton if she had ever written love letters to the defendant. Mrs. Moulton is a white woman, but gave her testimony without embarrassment. She denied that she had ever written any loving epistles to the negro.

The testimony of the mother, Mrs. Marsh, and also that of her daughter, was contradictory in some respects, and in essential particulars at variance with the facts claimed at the first examination. Justice Pierce, however, believed that a jury ought to pass upon the matter, and in holding the defendant to answer, he denounced the immorality and degradation made apparent by the testimony.

KEATING ESTATE.

MORE LITIGATION ENSUES.

With the death of Mrs. Isabell Keating-Smith more litigation threatens to tie up the large estate of the late Andrew J. W. Keating. The widow of the millionaire married a house-painter named Smith, and at her death he was appointed administrator of her estate.

Yesterday Alfred V. Keating and George H. Hutton, as trustees of the estate of the late Andrew J. W. Keating and Alfred V. Keating, in his personal capacity, Henry C., and Elvira Keating, Helena K. Johnston, and Walter and Edward Keating, minors, by their guardian, G. H. Hutton, began suit against Isaiah H. Smith personally and also as administrator of the estate of his deceased wife, Mrs. Keating-Smith died intestate and left a separate estate apart from a large interest she had in the property left by her first husband.

The present action is to have the court declare the plaintiffs, as trustees, owners of all the property and all interest which vested in Mrs. Keating-Smith, for the benefit of the heirs of the late Andrew J. W. Keating; and that it be declared that the defendant has no interest whatever in that property.

MINISTER ASKS DAMAGE.

SUES SALT LAKE ROAD.

Dr. E. J. Bulgin, the Long Beach minister who travels about the State in evangelistic work, is well involved in litigation. He has a claim against the Humboldt Times for libel, and has now filed suit in Judge Bordwell's court seeking to recover $25,500 from the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company for alleged injuries.

On February 1 Dr. Bulgin took passage at Riverside and at Rowland station the train in which he was traveling collided with another one. In the smash the plaintiff claims to have been thrown up against the hat rack and then across the seat in front, and with such force that three ribs were broken and one lung punctured.

It appeared that the plaintiff had been traveling on the regular half-rate pass issued to ministers, and counsel sought to elicit the fact that in signing the contract he waived any claim that might arise in his favor. But Dr. Bulgin stated that he had never read any terms of the contract until after his journey, and had appended his signature without thinking anything about such a matter.

The further hearing will be continued today.

SPANKS BOY SOUNDLY.

AND IS FINED FOR IT.

Arthur Haggart yesterday paid a fine of $10 in Justice Young's court for having spanked a small boy named Arthur Howell, at Colegrove a few days ago.

Haggart was cleaning up his lot and had a boy to start small fires around the place as the brush accumulated. As quickly as this boy would start up a fire the mischievous Howell would scatter it, until complaint was made to Haggart. He warned Howell and some other boys to keep away. Howell was impertinent, and Haggart rushed for the youngster and putting him across his knee spanked him soundly.

Howell rushed away but wasn't looking where he went and bumped into a Mexican youth coming down the road. Being of much lighter build he fell into the gutter and cut his lip on the curb. Then Howell began to bellow with pain and rage and ran home where he told his father of being larruped by Haggart. The father at once swore out a complaint for battery, and yesterday the accused was held to be technically at fault and was fined $10.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

AUTO SPEEDER FACES JAIL.

BERT DINGLEY MAY BE LOCKED UP IN CITY PRISON.

Prosecutor Finds That State Law Says Scorchers Must Serve Jail Sentences Upon Third Conviction. Famous Racer Will Fight and Endeavor to "Knock Out" Statute.

Bert Dingley, the famous automobile racer, who holds many world's records made in the wonderful White flyer, "Whistling Billy," is facing a jail sentence. He was convicted yesterday in the Police Court of violating the State automobile speed law and using the streets as a race track. He had previously been convicted and fined twice, the penalties being, $15 and $50, respectively, and the present case constitutes his third offense.

Up to the present it has been the practice to fine third offenders $100, as this is the minimum prescribed for such offense in the law. In studying this case, however, the City Prosecutor discovered that the law has not been correctly interpreted heretofore. In his opinion, which is also shared by several others to whom the question has been referred, the law says that third offenders must be fined and also imprisoned.

The section referred to says the punishment shall be a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $250, and imprisonment not to exceed thirty days. This is the only case in such statutes where the word "and" is used in this way, in all other cases it reads "or" such fine and imprisonment.

"Bill" Nevin got off with a fine of $100, and Dingley expected to be as fortunate. When his attorneys learned of the new interpretation of the law they asked for time before sentence so that they could be in readiness to bring habeas corpus proceedings at once an appeal the case and test the law. At their request Justice Rose set tomorrow morning as the time for sentence. It was practically understood at the time that Dingley would be fined and also given a jail sentence, and even if habeas corpus proceedings are immediately brought he will have to go to jail for an hour or so. This will give him another local record, as he will be the first speed-struck motorist to grace a cell in the City Jail.

From the time the State law was first passed attorneys have agreed that it would be an easy thing to knock it out with a test case in the higher courts, as there are many things about the statute which will not stand. The law is a liberal one, however, and a little better than the automobilists could expect to get from municipal and county governments, so it has never been assailed in the higher courts.

Now that it has been discovered that the jail sentence is mandatory, the motoring fraternity does not like it so well, and if present intentions are carried out a fighting test will be made.

DIXIE MIXED BY GLUT OF PETITIONS.

HUNTINGTON PARK TROUBLES THE SUPERVISORS.

Those For and Against Incorporation Furnish Tangle That Board Wrestles With in Vain—District Attorney Called in, Needs Week to Think It Over.

"Please, sir, where are we at?" was the question put up to the District Attorney yesterday after the Board of Supervisors had struggled with Huntington Park and its troubles. There were petitions and counter-petitions, withdrawals and reinstatements. Worst of all, the water filter ran dry. About that time the District Attorney and a bucket of water were sent for, and the situation was cleared to the extent of putting the matter over for a week.

First to appear was a representative of the Huntington Park Improvement Company, who wasn't opposed to incorporation, but wanted his tract left out of the limits. There were no people on it, he said, and he didn't see that it was an addition to the city. Besides, there were the taxes. Then Sam Haskins came up for the American Agricultural Chemical Company. The company has a holding of forty acres, on which are the works. No one lives on the ground, and never will while the company holds it, so no addition to the population could be made by including them. Besides, incorporation would hinder the growth of Los Angeles toward the south. The company wouldn't mind paying Los Angeles city taxes, but it didn't want to be included in a little city of the sixth class.

A. L. Burbank fired the first mortal shot. On the original petition to incorporate, sixty-eight names had been secured. They were all done up in proper legal style, acknowledged before a notary and advertised. Now Mr. Burbank presented a petition signed by twenty-four of the signers to the first petition, saying that their names had been secured through misrepresentation, and that they wanted to withdraw. This petition had not been sworn to before a notary.

A. A. Weber, who leads the incorporation forces, did not wince visibly. He presented petitions from seven of the men who had signed the petition for incorporation and the petition for withdrawal. Each of the petitions was sworn to before a notary. They all recited that they really wanted incorporation, and that they had asked leave to withdraw under a misapprehension.

A little arithmetic enlightens the situation. Fifty names are necessary for a legal petition to incorporate. Originally there were sixty-eight. Subtract twenty-four through withdrawal, and there are forty-four—six too few. Add seven again, and there is a margin of one over the legal number.

Mr. Weber also had another petition asking for incorporation, signed by sixteen totally new persons. He kept this in reserve, so as not to complicate the situation unless it was necessary.

The situation was beyond hope, however. Could the signers withdraw after the petition had been filed two weeks? If they could, then the number of names fell below the legal limit, and was there anything before the Supervisors for them to act on? Could seven of them reinstate themselves? If they could, when did the act take place? Did the reinstatement take place with the withdrawal, so that the petition never fell below the legal limit? Was a new petition necessary?

Everybody had a try at it. A dozen persons arose, said, "What I wish to know is—" only to get drowned out by another dozen saying, "In my opinion—" The water filter gave up the ghost, bled to death at this point, and the District Attorney was sent for to unravel the snarl.

He said a week would be necessary to find the authorities, and as the boundaries of the proposed municipality had to be visited by the County Surveyor, the matter was put over until next Monday at 10 o'clock.

CHINA TONIGHT IN THE RING.

Puglist Ah Wing Already a Proved Scrapper.

Continuous Performance for Many Rounds.

Fisherman McCarey Back to See the Sport.

Tom McCarey returned yesterday, unable longer to withstand the temptation to witness some of his preliminary boilermakers perform tonight at the Pacific Athletic Club pavilion. The fight manager brought as evidence of his still a fine basket of brook trout. Somebody was unkind enough to suggest that he stopped at a local fishmonger's stand, but this was strenuously denied, and an offer made to make affidavits that the fish were caught just right.

There is a story coming concerning a bout with a wild cat, but this has not had on the ice until the skin of the animal is on exhibition with the other Hermit-Havers souvenirs and other trophies.

The return of the purveyor of meal tickets was the signal for all the fighters engaged for tonight's big carnival to get busy and put on the finishing touches.

Ah Wing, the slant-eyed "Boxer" from the muddy flats of the Yang-tse-kiang, has not only proved a curiosity to the fans, but the fact that he can scrap. Wing spends his spare time playing James J. Corbett in local Chinatown, and has a strong following. If he gets licked tonight, there will be a few laundries run by the sons of Mars, or the price of doing up a soiled shirt will soar skyward for a few weeks. Kid Dalton found the Chinese a hard nut in the fast set-tos which they engaged, and many believe Wing will be fast enough to get away from Caesar Attell's wallops. He is there with a punch from any where, and says he will make the spot in the middle of Attell's face look like a South African's before the fight is over. "Catchem Jew upper-cut from Hill, knockum nose off," is the way Ah Wing figures to beat a pavement-pugilist.

Harry Baker, the amateur feather-weight, counts on a hard battle with Tom Tom, and if he puts the counter over the local comer, he will be likely one to do so.

The remainder of the fighters have trained faithfully and everybody looks for a fast, clever work.

The forty rounds of boxing necessitate a continuous performance to insure going through at a reasonable pace, and as fast as two contestants can put their argument two more will be ready to step into the ring. There will be no waits or delays between. The order in which the attractions will appear is as follows:

Lonnie Looker against William Lobb; six rounds.

Billy Vista against Young Berry; six rounds.

Jack Wood against Tommy Leahy; six rounds.

FAST FINISH IN SINGLES.

ENGLISH DEFEAT AMERICANS AFTER HARD STRUGGLE.

Holds Ward to His Own Game—Little Gives Doherty Close Call in Five-Set Match—Beals Wright Dispenses With Physician and Is Interested Spectator.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, June 18.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Those who anticipated a tame finish of the Dwight F. Davis international tennis championship matches at Wimbledon today were pleasantly disappointed, the outstanding singles, S. H. Smith against Holcomb Ward, and H. L. Doherty, against R. D. Little, being some of the best play of the tournament. The spectators included Mr. C. Wright, who was out of the game owing to an injury to his knee. Mr. Wright's condition is now reported that the doctor's visits have been discontinued.

Ward played a splendid game, and only after securing the first two sets, 6-4, 6-4, that he gave Ward an opportunity of showing his skill. The latter had been able to win only one game of the first set, but he covered on the last set he made his old dash. Smith, however, played a cool and resourceful game, winning a hard set by 6-4.

In opposing H. L. Doherty, display in splendid form. After losing a set, he played with such judgment that he scored four games in succession and took the set. Doherty gave a better exhibition in the second set, winning it, 6-3. He lost the third set with a loss, but took the next two games. Then ensued a long-drawn struggle. Little finally proving successful, 8-6. In the next set Doherty played with great dispatch, winning by 6-1, again tying the match with two sets all. Little started promptly, scoring three games in succession, and one called in his favor. Then Doherty got into his swing and defeated his rival. Little, who fell off in the act of striking, lost five games in succession. Doherty thus won the set and match.

Smith, Great Britain, beat Holcomb Ward, American, 6-1, 6-0, 6-4.

H. L. Doherty, Great Britain, beat R. D. Little, America, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

President of Columbia University Declares There Will Be No Deviation From Football Mandate.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, retired in a statement issued today all doubts as to the future of football in the institution.

"The members of the University have already separated for the summer, so it is not possible to take any further action in regard to athletics before the autumn and the whole matter remains exactly as it was for six months, namely, football is abolished and no action of any kind will be taken in regard to any change of athletic policy until the reports of the three committees are received and carefully considered."

The committees referred to are those of the faculty, alumni and students which have been at work on the athletic policy of the university for some months.

BLOOD POISON ENDS RACER.

Post-Mortem on Remains of Great Sysonby Shows Death Came from an Injured Hoof.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 18.—James R. Keene, owner of Sysonby, which died yesterday, was deeply grieved at the loss of this great race horse.

He ordered a post-mortem examination and the physicians settled conclusively that the horse did not die of the skin disease for which he had been treated for several months. The blood poisoning which caused death originated in a badly bruised frog of the right fore foot.

The skin affection had been the remote cause. It is surmised, for the horse had stamped in his stall to express his dislike for the itching of his skin. The frog had been terribly bruised until there is a mesh of small blood vessels there. An abscess formed, and the entire coronet was found to be full of pus. The spleen and liver were found to be greatly enlarged, but the huge lungs and stout heart of the horse were unaffected.

When Sysonby first showed symptoms of the skin trouble soon after training began this spring, Mr. Keene was dissatisfied with the progress the thoroughbred was making toward recovery, and had his own physician attend the horse. Everything possible was done. Sysonby's sufferings were pitiable, and during part of the illness the horse was strapped up to prevent it injuring itself.

It was stated last night that Mr. Keen was recently offered over $200,000 for Sysonby by an Englishman. He carried $100,000 insurance on the thoroughbred.

The horse had been ill for a long time with a skin disease.

As a two-year-old Mr. Keene was offered and refused $100,000 for his colt, whose only defeat in his racing career was in the Futurity of 1904.

The horse will be buried at Sheepshead Bay, but later in the season will be disinterred and shipped to Castleton stud farm and buried beside Mr. Keene's other famous horse, Domino.

TENNIS CARD AT OCEAN PARK.

BIG TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN ON GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Six Events on Programme Give Promise of Attracting Many Entries. Will Wind Up With Grand Ball and Celebration—Next in Importance to State Championships.

The programme for the annual tennis tournament of the Ocean Park Country Club, which will be held July 4, 5, 6 and 7, has been issued, and from the list of events the tournament should be a great success.

The advantages of cool sea breezes will, doubtless, draw out a large number of entrants, and the four days' play promises to be brisk and entertaining.

There will be six events in the tournament, including the all-comers, singles, all-comers' doubles, ladies' singles, ladies' doubles, junior singles, consolation singles.

The order of play will be as follows:

July 4, 9:30 a.m.—All-comers' singles, junior singles; 2:00 p.m., ladies' singles, all-comers' doubles.

July 5, 9:30 a.m.—Ladies' singles, junior singles; 2:00 p.m., all-comers' singles, ladies' doubles.

July 6, 9:30 a.m.—Junior singles, ladies' singles; 2:00 p.m., all-comers' doubles, all-comers' singles.

July 7, 9:30 a.m.—Junior finals, consolation finals, ladies' finals; 2:00 p.m., finals, all-comers' singles, all-comers' doubles, ladies' doubles.

The following rules will govern the tournament:

Trial matches will be the best two in three sets. The finals will be the best three in five sets. Ladies' events will be the best two in three sets all the way through.

Play will begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue until 12:30 p.m., and begin at 2 p.m. each day. Any player not appearing when called will be disqualified.

An entrance fee, which must accompany all entries, will be charged as follows. One dollar for the all-comers' singles and for the consolation singles; $1 for the ladies' singles; $1 per team for the doubles; 50 cents for junior singles.

Entries close July 3, at Ocean Park Country Club.

This tournament will be the last important tennis event of the season in Southern California, and is second in importance only to the State championships. There are four excellent courts, and these will permit of rapid progress in reaching the finals.

The tournament will close with a grand ball and celebration, and will be a great social event at the beach resort.

GAME IS MONOTONOUS.

FRESNO DOWNS SEATTLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND, June 18.—A small crowd even for Monday watched Fresno defeat the locals today. Garvin was successful in his strike-outs except when hits meant runs. Eagan in the fifth knocked the ball over the fence and cleared the bases. This was the only break in a rather monotonous game. Score:

Portland, 2; hits, 3; errors, 0.
Fresno, 4; hits, 10; errors, 2.
Batteries—Garvin and Donahue; Lemke and Dashwood.
Umpire—Kneil.

Grandpa Wins Steeplechase.

BOSTON, June 18.—William C. Hayes's gelding, Grandpa, ridden by his owner, defeated Charles Pfister's The Lad and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s Hylas in the grand annual steeplechase of $5250 and a cup at the Country Club, Brookline, today. Distance two and one-half miles. Time 4:59½.

The other two steeplechase events were won by F. Ambrose Clark's Maxmillian, who captured the National Hunt cup by four lengths in 5:43⅘, and Charles M. Harris's Conover, which took the Middlesex steeplechase by six lengths in 5:05⅘.

L. A. ATHLETIC TO ENLARGE.

WOULD BUILD MAGNIFICENT NEW CLUBHOUSE.

Local Social and Athletic Organization Aims to Make Its Presence Felt not Only at Home but Abroad. Numerous New Departures Incubating for Next Year.

There appears to be no limit to the progressiveness of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and the latest step is a contemplated $300,000 clubhouse.

Increased membership and interest in athletics in the South have been the incentives for this move, and if the final steps are taken the club promises to outstrip even the past records of the Olympic Club of San Francisco.

The membership has reached close to 500, and as soon as this figure is totaled the initiation fee will be raised from $20 to $50.

The spirit of progressiveness is taking a strong hold on the membership, who desire to see the institution become national in reputation and importance. With the acquisition of De Witt Van Court as boxing instructor, new possibilities arose, and, as in all instances, new ideas were inculcated into the regular advanced methods of a first-class athletic institution.

It is planned next year to place a baseball team in the field, maintain a boat crew, and possibly turn out track, football and field teams.

The method of raising the necessary funds for the erection of buildings and adding equipment to the already up-to-date supply will possibly be by bonding the club.

In all likelihood the next big amateur athletic tournament of the Pacific Coast will be pulled off under the auspices of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and its emblem, the crescent and winged foot of Mercury, will be recognized all over the world.

If Hagerman is successful abroad, it will be the means of other athletes being sent out to gain honors for Southern California.

Pen Points

The dispatches indicate that a good deal of the trouble in Russia is bred by the bakers.

Nero fiddled while Rome burned, and it is reported that the Czar is at Peterhof playing tennis.

All is not gold that glitters, and every man who goes around in a white duck suit of clothes does not own a yacht.

The trouble with the Russian government seems to be that it is helpless to invent a way to prevent the trouble.

A Seattle convict named Desire tried to escape from jail, but the attempt does not seem to have kept pace with his name.

It is no crime to make money. The reason so many counterfeiters have been put in jail is that what they made was not money.

There is perhaps not so much danger that the stock of these airship corporations will be watered as there is that it will be winded.

The East doesn't change much. They are kicking the ice man the same this summer as they have done for the past one hundred years.

It looks as though the Russian army will stand with the Douma. In that event the Czar would do well to stand with the Douma, too.

A "sane Fourth of July" is all right. But when it is pulled off that way it might as well be the fourth of September or any other date of any other old month.

The President of Ann Arbor University advised this year's graduates to be honest. He certainly took big chances on being considered old-fashioned.

"The great majority of divorces are asked for by the wife," says Charlotte Perkins (Gilman) Stetson. And, in nine cases out of ten, it is not to be wondered at.

There is no time like these hot spells to put a man in mind of the hereafter, one portion of which is said to be much hotter than the worst that ever comes here.

It appearing that the late trouble in Cananea was started with a plot to dynamite the band, may be, after all, there was more or less incentive back of the riots.

All attempts on the part of the striking bakers in St. Petersburg and Moscow to overthrow the government will probably fail as long as the government has the dough.

It is perhaps unnecessary to tell this year's college graduates that the world has a few bumps in store for them. They'll find it out for themselves soon enough.

As far as can be learned Tom Watson and the other four fellows who now constitute the Populist party, have not yet come out with an endorsement of William J. Bryan.

It has at last been discovered why we have such warm weather about this time of the year. It is the time when the politicians begin to expend their pent-up stores of hot air.

Notwithstanding that fishing is pretty good, right along, still if Grover Cleveland would find time to make a few remarks on the Bryan boom they would no doubt prove deeply interesting.

The United States will ship about $3,000,000 worth of automobiles to foreign countries this year, not counting the money it will cost those countries to keep the plagued things in repair after they get them.

The dispatches from Washington state that "the meat bill is paramount." Unless prices are very much lowered the meat bill will continue to be paramount not only in Washington but all over the country.

It was once upon a time that a good lawyer was one who knew the law. Nowadays the good lawyer does not practice, as it is no longer necessary to know the law, and there's too much of it to know, anyhow.

In preparing their speeches the Fourth of July orators will probably omit any reference to the fact that 41,000 Americans have crossed the border into Canada this year, to locate there and become British subjects.

The Armenians again report themselves in trouble. It would be a great relief to a weary and distracted world if the Armenians would spread themselves out so that they never could be found in bunches large enough to make it worth while for their enemies to attack them.

Jim Hill's way of building railroads seems to be a good way. He has never asked for a government subsidy, and always issues only one kind of stock with uniform rights and qualities. The road he is projecting from Winnipeg to the Pacific Coast will cost $32,500,000, and will be paid for by the builders out of their own pockets. Jim Hill is a great promoter who never leaves victims crying after him.

THE OUTFALL—COSTLY BLUNDERING.

The city must pay a tremendous price for the blundering and bungling in the laying out and construction of the outfall sewer to the sea, which seems to have been conceived in incapacity and brought forth in mismanagement. From the inception of the project to the present day it has been botched, and the taxpayers have paid for the botching.

It should be understood that it is the tunnel, about 8000 feet long, wherein the blockade of operations has arisen. Probably there will be little difficulty in completing on time the rest of the outfall, which has a total length of twelve and one-half miles. But the sewer will not be worth a cent to the city or anybody else until the tunnel can be bored or some sort of connection made between the sections that it is supposed to unite.

Apparently it was a huge mistake to set the tunnel twelve or fourteen feet below the water line, a line which must be recognized in all underground construction in this part of the country. Fighting off the water is the problem which thus far has beaten the contractors and that now promises to give the city a chance to bring a suit for damages against them and an opportunity to try its own hand at tunnel building.

Engineers tell us that driving a shield through the proposed bore, as has been suggested, is a very long and expensive task. Such a shield moves by inches. Another way out of the difficulty would be to abandon one section of the sewer and start over again on a new line above the water. It would also be possible to establish a temporary pumping plant and lift the sewage from one section to another on the higher level, while the engineers were grappling with the tunnel problem or forcing the laborious shield. There is pressing need of the outfall, and the pumping plant, connecting the lower level with the higher, probably would put the sewer into commission more quickly than any other plan. It might be necessary to run it several years.

The City Fathers have a most vexatious task before them. They must go at it with all the scientific enlightment possible and with energy born of practical understanding, if they would serve the city faithfully. The statement of the Board of Public Works, given to the press, is superficial and evasive and does not go into the merits of the case. The people have a right to demand that there be no more trifling with this important project; that no more of their money be squandered in blundering and bungling; and that this greatly needed sanitary enterprise, which means so much to the city, be not held up for years by lack of commanding genius. A boy cannot be expected to do a man's work.

It is a moderate estimate to conclude that, when all's said and done, the outfall will have cost the city a quarter of a million dollars more than it would have cost a well-managed private corporation, which probably would have built it in half the time.

JAPAN'S OPEN GATE.

The world is beginning to get its eyes wide open as to the programme Japan proposes to carry out in the Far East. Time and again The Times has warned the world that the professions of Japan about an open gate in Manchuria or elsewhere was a case of getting goods under false pretenses. Now the wily little brown men of the islands have come to a point where they have to show their hands. The most ardent pro-Japanese from this time on will be forced to recognize the fact that Japan proposes to get every inch of advantage she can, not only in Manchuria but elsewhere in the Chinese Empire. If the rest of the world, and that includes Japan's somewhat obtuse ally, John Bull, is allowed to pick up the crumbs, it will be because the Japanese are too busy grabbing larger morsels and have no time for trifles.

An open door? Oh, yes, the Japanese are keeping their promise to the letter. The door is open, not ajar, but wide open, but once inside the door every merchant not of native Japanese birth is finding himself in a stockade with a fence constructed all around him, which leaves him the open door to trade in and no more. Foreign merchants cannot penetrate into the interior and if they do they find every inch of the ground blocked against them by a Jap who has got there before them. He finds Japanese paper money floated in Manchuria which is unavailable for any merchant not a Japanese.

Now, there is no fault to find with the enterprising and wily Japanese beyond the matter of his practically breaking his word with the rest of the world. Business is business for nations as well as for individuals and the most energetic, shrewd and pushing nation is the one which must obtain the largest slice of advantage growing out of commerce and business generally, while the laggard and the one lacking in business acumen must be left to the rear. It is perfectly right and proper that Japan should reap every advantage she can in Manchuria, in the rest of China and in the wide world elsewhere, provided she gains these advantages honestly and with fair dealing. Indeed, we do not feel much like criticising the Japs for carrying their shrewdness a little beyond the nice point of honor. If our own people have been foolish enough to think a Jap's word as good as a white man's bond, they probably ought to bear the consequences of their lack of perspicacity. At any rate, whether they ought to bear the penalty or not, they will have to.

It is Japan for the Japanese, Manchuria for the Japanese, China for the Japanese and the whole Orient for the Japanese. We might as well face the inevitable now as any other time. If we gain anything from Japan, in the way of trade with China, it will be something that Japan by shrewdness, energy, chicanery or the lowest trickery, cannot keep out of our hands.

PARDEE'S GHOST-DANCING.

Gov. Pardee and his political attorneys have kicked up such a dust over the alleged effect of various suggested amendments—genuine and bogus—relating to consolidation that the only issue between the Governor and the people of Los Angeles is in danger of being obscured. That is the purpose of the dust-raisers, and argument over the legal quibbles they have raised serves their purpose and is wholly irrelevant.

The case is simply this: The people of Los Angeles, through the Consolidation Commission, asked the Governor to give them an opportunity to present to the Legislature a proposition that the Constitution be so amended as to enable them to CONSIDER the subject of city and county consolidation. The commission asserts that he promised to open the door for legislative consideration of the matter. The Governor denies that he gave any promise. The people of Los Angeles believe the commission.

The commission did not ask the Governor or the Legislature to amend the Constitution. They could not amend the Constitution; only the people of the State of California can do that. No form of amendment presented by the commission, or any one else, to the San Francisco Committee could have any force or effect. The Legislature would not even have been under any obligation to consider amendments suggested by the commission; it could have thrown them into the waste-basket and framed amendments to suit itself. It could have voted down any and all proposed amendments, and adjourned without submitting anything to the people. Therefore discussion of the effect of documents purporting to be suggested amendments is sheer futility.

It should not be forgotten that not a word was said, by the Governor or his apologists, about the so-called "amendments" or their effort in the first excuses made for the Governor's obedience to Mr. Herrin and his henchman, Countryman. Not until long after the promise was broken and Los Angeles was turned down was the fake amendment discovered. The use of it was wholly an afterthought. Weeks after the promise was broken, Corney Pendleton made a feeble bluff at "introducing" the fake, and the Governor now has the silly effrontery to cite Pendleton's idiotic knavery as one of the reasons for his own action. The afterthought was not only dishonest; it was stupid.

Los Angeles county knows the facts, and has something more important to do than to waste further time watching the antics of a political whirling dervish. She can put in her time to more purpose considering ways and means of bringing about consolidation of communities having common interests and capable of deriving benefits from simplification of government along rational lines.

All the cities and towns in the county are interested in the consolidation question and must have a voice in its determination. It seems to be proper that they should have a voice in the discussion of plans, and it may be found that the best and simplest way to get them together and afford them full opportunity for expression of their views is to give them larger representation on the commission.

WHAT'S IN THE CAN?

One of the points upon which the President is insisting, in the enactment of a meat inspection bill, is that a clause shall be inserted providing that the labels on all packages of meat food shall bear the date of manufacture. To this suggestion the packers are much opposed, for reasons which are not far to seek not very deftly concealed. The packers hold, as one of their number testified before the investigating committee, that "canned meat is just as good five years after canning as it is five minutes after canning." Some persons who are no doubt over-particular about the matter, may be inclined to question this statement, and to prefer the more recently canned stuff to the ancient vintage.

But it is not quite clear why, if the five-year brand is "just as good," the packers should object to placing an honest label upon it, stating the exact date when it was embalmed. If the five-year-old brand is not as good as the five-minute article, surely the purchaser has a right to know just how long the meat has been canned. In fact, he has a right to this information under any and all circumstances, and has also a right to be his own judge as to the amount of time required for canned meat to attain to its acme of value as an article intended for human consumption. Some consumers may prefer that their meat shall go through a "ripening process" extending all the way from five minutes to five years. But it can hardly be denied that all have a certain prerogative of selection in matters of this kind. Under the present plan, there is no means of finding out whether a can of meat has been in a condition of seclusion from the world for one year or for twenty years.

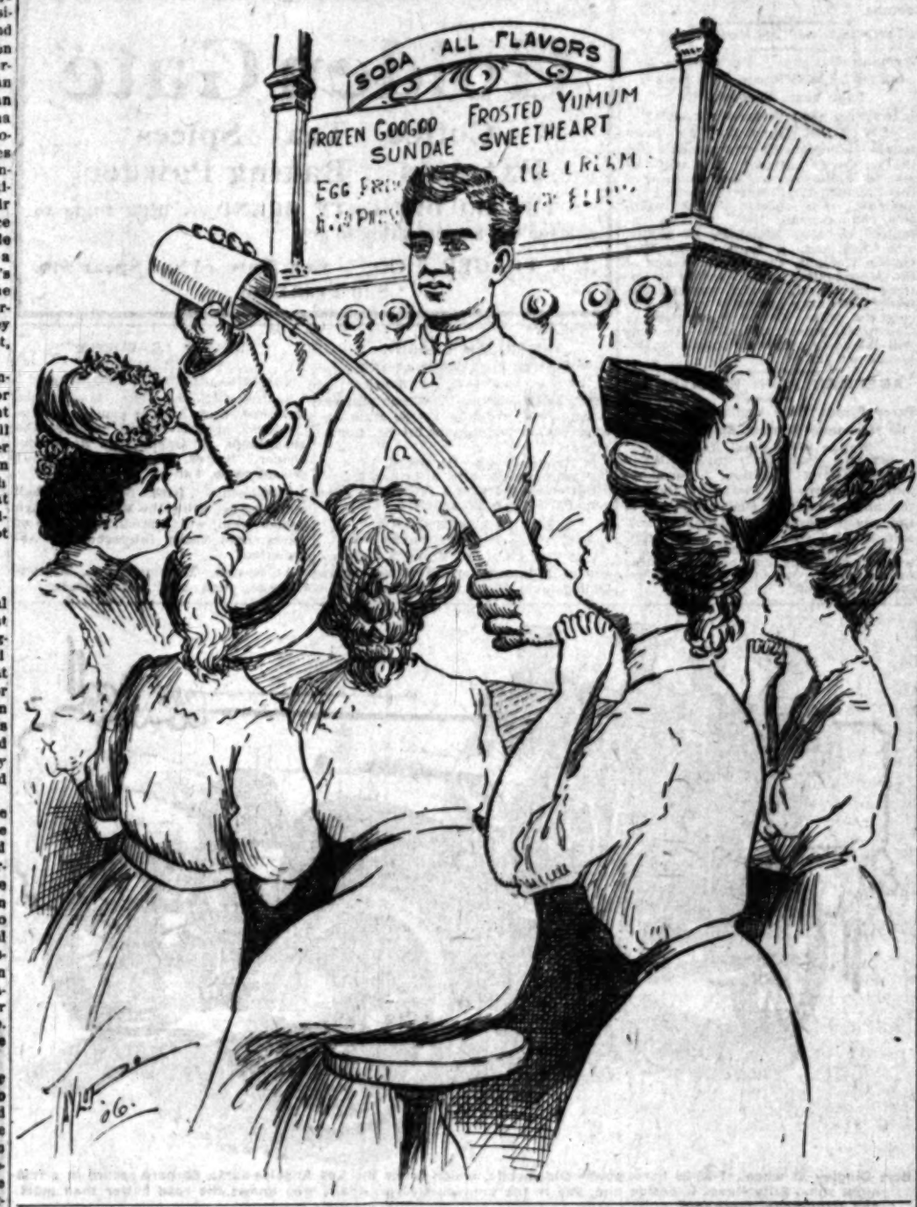
It may be set down as a certainty that canned meat does not improve with age, as does wine. At least, so far as we have observed, the packers have not yet set up this contention, though they may perhaps do so later on. So long as the principle of improvement with age has not been thoroughly established the average citizen will probably agree with the President that the labels placed on the cans ought to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

The same line of argument applies with almost equal effect to all classes of canned goods. In many cases, under the prevailing system, there is reason for grave doubt as to whether the goods were canned before or after the dawn of the Christian era. This doubt should certainly be removed, and the best way to remove it would be by honest labels. These labels should not only give the exact date of canning, in the case of all kinds of canned goods, but they should state specifically each and all of the ingredients contained in the canned article or compound. If preservatives are used, the label should state the exact amount and nature of the same. Every consumer has an undoubted right to know just what is contained in an article of food offered for sale. If, with this knowledge, he sees fit to buy and consume the article, it is his own lookout.

We shall never have pure foods in the United States until we compel every manufacturer of canned goods, of whatsoever description, to place honest labels upon his output, giving the date of canning and the ingredients entering into the process. It is contended that in many instances this would "ruin" the business. This is tantamount to saying that there is a great amount of fraud in the industry, and that exposure would be disastrous to the defrauders. Is there any wrong in this? Ought not the frauds and the perpetrators of frauds to be exposed? Ought not any business to be ruined if it depends upon fraud for its success? Is it right for the laws to encourage and promote fraud in this industry, so vital to the public health—or in any industry?

The sale of adulterated and unwholesome foods is a crime. Is there any possible extenuation of a crime so damnable? Honest labels can hurt no persons except those who are engaged in the perpetration of fraud. Is it not good public policy to prevent the perpetration of fraud, and to protect and encourage, so far as possible, those who conduct an honorable business? Only the rogue fears publicity. The honest man invites and welcomes it.

THE REAL MATINEE IDOL.



THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER.

A Disputed Claim.

[Baron Von Sternberg says that five or six centuries ago there was an Emperor of China who was the counterpart of President Roosevelt.]

The Chinese rode in autos forty centuries ago;
Hop Lee, an ancient genius, made machines to tuck and sew;
Gunpowder was a common thing
when Adam was a kid—
No matter what new thing we do, it's something that they did!
But this! This is the limit, they are telling that Kang Hi Wore heavy glasses that increased the flashing of each eye,
And that their old cartoonists emphasized his shining teeth
And showed him chasing bobcats till they fled their native heath.

The Chinese claim that in the past
they swore at telephones,
That they had bloated plutocrats who floated heavy loans,
That they had dress reformers, that they talked of women's rights,
That they made out their laundry
checks by bright electric lights,
But this! This is a statement to evoke a doubting laugh.
They claim that while the Parthenon was falling into dust
They had another Roosevelt who daily fought a trust.

They had the bumping trolley, and the rumbling cable car
That ambles through the highway with continued jolt and jar;
They had their own Marconi who sent clickings through the air;
But this last claim is more than any one of us can bear.
'Tis said Kang Hi was watching for each sly, unlawful trick,
That he advised: "Speak softly, but go out with a big stick!"
There may have been a Kang Hi, with a ready blunderbuss—
But there's only been one Roosevelt, and he belongs to us!

The Cantaloupe.

A striking exemplification of the whirling of fortune is that while at one time the wicked city folk sold gold bricks and green goods to the honest countryman, now the honest countryman sells cantaloupes to the wicked city folks.

The cantaloupe is a small, round, wrinkled vegetable, and it is a cross between a Dead Sea apple and a gourd, as a general thing.

Early in the summer it is brought into the markets. At that time it exhales a perfume that is sweeter than a blend of old-fashioned roses and early violets. Because it costs so much to perfume the cantaloupe thus, the price is all the way from fifty cents to seventy-five cents each.

It is estimated that enough money is wasted annually in this country to dig the canal across Panama. This money is wasted in liquor and cigars. If we could compile statistics of the money thrown away on cantaloupes we should find that with the added sum we could double deck the Panama canal and have a sufficient sum left to move all the Carnegie libraries to its brink.

The conventional way of serving a cantaloupe is to cut it in halves and remove the loose works on the inside. While you are doing this the cantaloupe sends forth tantalizing, appetizing flavors, and your lips begin to twitch in expectancy and you wish in your own heart that you had stolen into a corner back of a billboard and eaten the thing all yourself. Nevertheless, you prepare it for eating, then you sigh, and impale a bite on your fork or spoon. Once it is in your mouth your soul sinks within you and you remember the time you ate the soap caramel at the April fool party.

Your subsequent remarks are not such as could be printed in this government-inspected packing-house of literary products.

By and by people will grow weary of hunting for the North Pole and exploring parties will be organized to seek a good cantaloupe.

MEN AND THINGS OVER THE SEAS.

The Coming Struggle in Russia.

What is to be done with the Douma?—this is the crucial question bearing on the critical situation in Russia that all the world is asking. It looks as if the dramatic moment in the fate of the empire is at hand. The Douma has not only defiantly gone beyond the limits placed upon its powers, but, by defending the mutiny of troops as justified because of grievances, virtually throws down the gauntlet to the autocracy, and calls upon the army to choose sides. Will the popular assembly be dismissed by the Emperor for a holiday recess before it has accomplished any tangible results, and, if so, what will be the immediate effect throughout the land? A forecast is given in the following statement made by a member of the Douma to a correspondent of a London newspaper: "Russia has waited for the Douma as the chosen people waited for the Messiah. Will they dare to crucify it? No, they will not dare. For who will dare to be Pontius Pilate? The Emperor? No, for he knows that behind the Douma there are forty million peasants, and that if he crucifies the Douma he will have to wash his hands, not in the waters of the Neva, but in the blood of the whole Russian people."

How Members of the Douma Feel.

But meanwhile the Emperor appears to be blind to the significance of what is happening and what is likely to happen. The latest cablegrams report him to be spending most of his time in playing tennis at his country palace near St. Petersburg! The speeches delivered in the Douma have given him warning in clear-cut and passionate language, and correspondents on the spot agree that even these strong deliverance are only a faint expression of the determined feelings behind them where made manifest among all sections of the populace. "Do they expect much of the Douma in your part of the country?" inquired a reporter of a peasant representative. "They expect nothing at all," was the calm rejoinder, "because the Government will never give the Douma what it wants, and we shall have to disperse." "And then?" asked the bewildered viewer. "Then we shall take what we want," came the still unperturbed answer. "There has always been a wall of bureaucracy between us and the Emperor," continued the speaker, "and that wall is still there." Another member said: "There is no connecting link between us and the Emperor. We must have a responsible ministry, and it is on that point that the struggle will be centered." A third representative gave his views on the deadlock as follows: "We are not opposed to having two Houses; but we are opposed to the council of the empire as it now stands, because half of it consists of the same bureaucrats who have been the cause of all our trouble." Such is the stern mood of the Douma; yet there is no sign up to the present of any intention on the part of the government to yield.

Prosperity for Ireland.

While Russia is almost in the throes of revolution over the land question we find the tremendously difficult problem being peacefully worked out at last for Ireland. The Irish leader, John Redmond, has himself declared on a recent occasion that within ten to fifteen years the whole of the soil of Ireland will be transferred to the tenants. This is by the operation of the Land Purchase Act passed by the late Balfour ministry. While this transfer of the land to the actual tillers of the soil will prove a great factor in promoting contentment and prosperity, there are other agencies helping to the same wonderful economic revival that is to come over the long and sore stricken land. No one political party can lay claim to the merit of inaugurating the changes that have gradually revolutionized cottage industries, improved agricultural methods, spread the benefits of cooperative dairying, organized and developed the fishing industry, and generally animated the Irish people with a spirit of industrious self-reliance that had been almost crushed out of many of their breasts. Men and women of all shades of politics have had a hand in helping on this industrial regeneration of Ireland, which is already showing itself to be the true salve for many Irish grievances, real and imaginary.

"That was a great fighting man you had, Uncle Jasper," remarked the young peddler.

"Yes, sah," sighed Uncle Jasper, "he was de gamest dawg in de United States."

"Where is he now, Uncle?"

But yo' believe et, sah, when dat tail began to wag, an de dawg stahted home at wriggled right up to me, sah, an did ebbything but talk. Dat's what Ah call gamness, yo' froo'."—[Chicago News.

would just dispense with her brother, and with the song informing the audience that "'Tis Summer," she would be welcome to stay as long as she took it into her pretty head to do so. There is abundance of music on the Orpheum bill, and an especial novelty is offered by the four Solis brothers, who operate upon an original instrument known as "El Melodioso." It is melodious and harmonious as well, and is suggestive of the xylophone, banjo, Jews harp, mandolin and guitar all rolled into one. The Majestic trio, in which is a negro who actually uses charcoal to make himself blacker than nature did, has a lively coon act. Nita Allen in the Cressy hit, "Car Two-Stateroom One;" Cliff Gordon, with his excellent political travesty monologue, and the strong-armed Damm brothers, are hold-overs on a good bill. Motion pictures are good.

ELECTION LEGAL, CITY HOLDS.

PASADENA FILES ANSWER TO EDISON SUIT.

Alleges There Is No Flaw—Suggestion That Municipality Hold Another Election So as to Avoid Objections in Company's Complaint Is Held Not to Be Feasible.

Office of The Times, No. 36 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, June 18.—City Attorney Wood, and the firm of Hunsaker & Britt of Los Angeles, representing the city of Pasadena, this morning filed their answer to the complaint made by the Edison Electric Company in its endeavor to enjoin the city from disposing of the bonds voted for the installation of an electric-lighting plant last month.

The representatives of the city deny every allegation made by the company, and insist that the election was held with due regard to the provisions of the law, and was legal in every way. In regard to the contention that the city has no authority to issue bonds for the installation of an electric-lighting plant to do a general lighting business the answer insists that the city has such a right, and ends by asking that the complaint be dismissed.

Undoubtedly the Edison Electric Company will insist on fighting the case to the end, and, whatever the ultimate outcome may be, there will be a long and tiresome litigation. City Attorney Wood does not think that the contentions of the plaintiffs will be sustained in the courts, but he is not allowing his efforts to lax through over-confidence of success.

The suggestion has been made that it would be a good plan for the city to drop the matter right where it now stands, and call another election, taking care that matters be conducted in such a manner that it will be impossible to pick a flaw in the affair, but men who have looked into the matter call attention to the fact that the Edison Electric Company did not base its claims altogether on the fact that the election was in alleged violation of the law, but that they also attacked the constitutional right of a municipality to enter into competition with private parties in the supplying of electric power for mercantile purposes. One of the contentions of the plaintiffs is that the city could bond itself to install a plant for public lighting only.

It is not the delay in the sale of the lighting bonds that is causing so much disquietude in the minds of the general public, but rather the fact that the fire department bonds, which were voted at the same election, are of necessity held up. The department is facing a serious difficulty through lack of funds, and it will be impossible to improve conditions until the bond matter has been disposed of.

The case will be tried before Judge Trask, and the City Attorney is exerting his energies to the study of the case in its various aspects.

WATER COMPANY MEETS.

The adjourned meeting of the Los Flores Water Company, held this morning in the rooms of the Board of Trade, was one of the greatest importance, and several radical changes were made in the bylaws of the company. The annual meeting was held two weeks ago, but, with the exception of electing officers, no business was transacted, so today's meeting lasted for more than three hours.

The chief change made in the bylaws was to make it possible for a stockholder with not more than one share to have a connection, and receive water from the company. Under the old régime no man with less than three shares of stock could have a connection, and it was claimed that this rule was prejudicial to the interests of the smaller water users. There was a suit in the courts to decide whether or not the bylaw was legal, but the action of the stockholders in making the change puts a stopper on the litigation.

Another important step taken was the voting of $5000 annually, over and above the surplus receipts of the company, to develop additional water. This money will be raised by assessments of the stock, and will materially increase the usefulness of the company. There is considerable water available, but it requires capital to develop it. The $5000 is considered amply sufficient for all demands.

It was decided to change the date of the annual meeting from June to October. The change was made, owing to the fact that June is too late in the season to carry into effect any of the arrangements that may be required by reason of drouths and lack of water, while October will give ample time in which to carry out all plans necessary for the conservation of water during dry seasons.

POLICE PICKINGS.

Gabino Ramioz and Arnaldo Acosta, the two Mexicans arrested Saturday evening at Colorado street and Fair Oaks avenue for fighting, had their trial before Judge Klamroth this morning. With looks of injured innocence the men protested that they had not the slightest intention of engaging in anything so wicked as a real fight, and insisted that they were simply amusing themselves and the general public. Their play must have been spirited, however, as both bore marks of the fray, and Judge Klamroth did not think that the street was the proper place for exhibitions of pugilistic prowess, even though the contestants might be like unto brothers in the love that they bore each other, the combatants found themselves both provided with an alternative of $10 or ten days in the County Jail.

Robert Beals, who was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of drunkenness, after having fallen from a hayloft down into a stall, was released on $5 bail. He evidently thought he was well out of his difficulties, and this morning when his name was called in the Police Court he failed to respond. His bail was declared forfeited. Samuel Boyd, arrested on a like charge, also forfeited his bail, so the city is richer to the extent of $10 without the necessity of having a trial.

NEW CAR LINES.

The new electric car extensions on East Orange Grove avenue and on North Los Robles avenue and Washington street are now completed, and passenger cars were run over them for the first time today. The new lines will run cars on a frequent schedule, and will facilitate traffic in the city limits to a considerable extent.

No change will be made in the Orange Grove schedule, as the cars have heretofore laid over ten minutes between trips, and the time taken up in running over the extension will obviate the necessity of the lay-over, but will not require a readjustment of the schedule. On North Los Robles avenue the cars will be run on a twenty-minute schedule.

The next schedule to be changed will be that of the Altadena line. At present cars are run north of the city limits every twenty minutes, with the result that traffic is badly congested during certain hours of the day.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Residents of Orange Grove avenue are complaining of the manner in which the street is being sprinkled. It is claimed that the present practice keeps the avenue in nice condition Saturday night, when there is absolutely no traffic over it, but that Sunday morning, when the carriages and automobiles begin to arrive, the dust is churned up and makes driving anything but a pleasure. Considerable complaint has been made, and residents of the exclusive section are making an endeavor to have the arrangement changed.

The troubles of the Friendship Baptist Church appear as far from being settled as ever. When the Rev. Bushell withdrew from the pastorate and founded an organization of his own it was thought that the troubles of the church were over, and the faithful ones who stood by the Friendship society settled down with a sigh of contentment. But their satisfaction was short-lived, for they discovered that sundry moneys, the property of the "Forum" debating society, disappeared at the same time the treasurer, one Jamieson, went with Pastor Bushell into the new field. Action has been brought to recover the funds of the society, which are much needed in the work of the organization. The money claimed to be missing amounts to the sum of $38.02.

Dr. John E. Janes, Dr. C. B. Buckner, G. M. Burlington, G. S. Case, F. D. Stevens, H. H. Massey, A. K. Nash and J. S. Shaw appeared before the City Commissioners this morning and presented the handsome soldiers' monument in Library Park to the city on behalf of John S. Godfrey Post, G.A.R. In fitting words Commander Janes voiced the appreciation of the members of the post of the work done by those who raised the money for the erection of the monument and then asked the members of the board and their successors in office to accept the task of caring for the monument.

NEW TROLLEY TO VERDUGO.

Los Angeles Company Plans Line from Eagle Rock Branch Through Workman Ranch.

GLENDALE, June 18.—The City Trustees at their last regular meeting passed a resolution in favor of abandoning Verdugo road, for the purpose of granting to the Los Angeles Railway Company a private right of way, thirty feet in width, on which to construct a double-track electric line from the Eagle Rock line through the Workman ranch to Verdugo Park. The Verdugo road will be widened to 100 feet and improved for a boulevard, with the car line in the center.

The company is preparing deeds and a paper is being circulated for the raising of $20,000 bonus to the company. The owners of the Verdugo ranch have signified their willingness to pay a bonus of $5000, and the owner of the Workman ranch $2500. R. A. Blackburn and E. D. Goode are engaged in the work as a committee representing the people. Real estate values are advancing and a building boom is on throughout the whole Glendale community.

Mr. Goode will make application for a franchise for an electric line on Sixth street, from the east to the west city limits of Glendale. The line would connect with the Eagle Rock line near Eagle Rock schoolhouse, and the Eagle Rock line will be extended through the Johnson ranch to Pasadena, and then, if a franchise is secured from Glendale west to Ivanhoe, the Los Angeles Railway Company will have no trouble in getting to the beach by Hollywood. This will give the Pasadena people a new scenic route, and will be the most direct line between that city and the beach.

POMONA PARAGRAPHS.

POMONA, June 18.—At the new Catholic Church on Holt avenue mass was celebrated yesterday for the first time, and a class of twenty young boys and girls received their first communion administered by Rev. Joseph Nunan. The church is of an English-Norman and old Mission style of architecture and is an artistic structure. Beneath the church in the basement is a large hall which will be used for society meetings and entertainments. The property represents an outlay of $15,000.

The class day exercises of the Pomona High School will be held tomorrow evening.

FIRE-FRIGHT CAUSES DEATH.

SOUTH PASADENA CONFLAGRATION PROVES FATAL.

Indirectly Responsible for Sudden Demise of Unfortunate Afflicted by White Plague, Who Lived in a Tent Near Burning Brush — Man Who Fought Flames Is Burned.

SOUTH PASADENA, June 18.—The brush fire, which started in the hills southwest of town Sunday morning, and which was watched for several hours with much fear, resulted in one indirect and very sad fatality and one serious injury.

Mrs. Nellie Wyman, who was bravely struggling with the white plague, lived in a little ten house, which was threatened by the flames. The nervous shock consequent upon the danger and excitement, proved too much for her frail condition, and she died a few hours later.

L. Miller of Monterey road was severely burned about the hands and arms. While fighting the fire, Miller, with several others, became surrounded by the blaze, and before he could reach a place of safety his clothing caught on fire.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Passing through Graham's Cañon, it spread rapidly over the hills, and only by the valiant efforts of the fire fighters were a number of the near-by homes kept from being destroyed. The one which had the closest call was the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Groner, and located on the hotel property owned by Gen. Wentworth.

The grounds of the beautiful Billicke place were partly ravaged by the flames encroaching on the parking and among some valuable pines and other trees. Mr. Billicke's loss is estimated at $1000.

BREAST IS PIERCED.

Charles A. McCartney of this city met with an accident last night which may prove fatal. McCartney, accompanied by Harry Tracy and Jesse S. Willey, had gone to Burbank on their motorcycles, and were returning home about 8 o'clock. A short distance out of Burbank they overtook a farmer who was trailing a hay rake behind his wagon. McCartney evidently did not notice the rake, and struck it at full speed as he turned out to pass the wagon. One of the stationary prongs of the rake pierced his body just above the heart. He was taken back to Burbank and Dr. Avery of South Pasadena summoned. A telephone from the young man's bedside this evening reports him still alive but with only a slight chance of recovery.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Conductor Luker, of the Pacific Electric, had his wrist badly injured this morning as his car was passing through South Pasadena. He was on the top of the car fixing the trolley, when the pole struck his arm. He was taken into Lederer's drug store, where his wrist was bound. He then went to Pasadena.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS.

A large audience listened on Sunday afternoon to an eloquent address by Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage of Los Angeles, who spoke at the First Methodist Church to the graduates of the Union High School. A chorus of 130 voices furnished music, rendering "The Heavens Are Telling," Rubinstein's "Evening Song" and Farmer's mass in B flat, "Gloria in Excelsis."

The graduating class includes Misses Edna Bailey, Georgia Burke, Luella Chase, Nellie Clayton, Elizabeth Hockett, Edith Ellis, Frances Goeddel, Bessie Edwards, Sara Heath, Ruth Iliff, Katharine Miller, Nancy Rainbolt, Anna Lucile Reed, Edna Thomas, Frances Trailor, Laura Venable, Lucy Worthen and Messrs. Alex Hart and Earl Daniels.

This evening the class programme was given at the assembly hall the principal number being "The Princess," the prelude being given by Frances Trailor. This same programme will be repeated on Tuesday evening.

STRIKE A FARCE HERE.

SANTA MONICA, June 17.—The backbone of the seamen's strike was broken today, and the steamer Mayfair was able to reach Port Los Angeles. She came up from San Pedro, and will discharge cargo here. The big British sailor, Onanasia, after having disposed of a burden of 130 carloads here, sailed this morning for Seattle. This is the ship that recently arrived here, after a voyage of almost three hundred days from Newcastle. Her long journey was occasioned by damages sustained in a storm that sent her to Cape Town in distress.

Mrs. S. Jacobs has arrived at the seaside from Sierra Madre, and will spend some time here.

Mrs. O. P. Belche is a visitor from Downey, and will remain along the shore for some time.

RANGERS FIX FOR FIREBUGS.

FEDERAL SENTINELS FEAR SEASON OF DANGER.

Crowds of Picnickers Scattered Through Hills and Canyons Cause Them Much Anxiety, and Many Preparations Are Being Made for Possible Conflagrations.

MONROVIA, June 18.—Federal rangers are straining to complete their preparations for a season expected to be replete with danger. William Bacon, Jesse Sevier and A. H. Tyler are repairing the telephone line which was washed out last winter, between Sturtevant's Camp and the West Fork of the San Gabriel and Pine Flats. While this work is in Progress, Ben Reed will occupy Tyler's station on Mt. Wilson.

Hundreds of people were scattered through the cañons Sunday, and the rangers passed a busy and anxious day. Many of the picnickers were old frequenters of the cañons, and their insistence upon the former practice of building fires outside reserve lines kept the patrol upon the double-quick until nightfall. The scope of the new State law is not generally understood; but a few more such Sundays as yesterday will make it more familiar.

A crowd numbering several hundreds gathered in Fish Cañon, a part of which is under private ownership, and numerous fires were started before Ranger Long reached that point in his district.

So great was the carelessness manifested, and so apparent was the popular ignorance of the danger involved, that many present became alarmed for their safety.

George Crow, stationed at the foot of Mt. Wilson trail, reports that ninety persons went by burro up to the peak Sunday, and that a large party began the ascent early this morning.

COMMENCEMENT CLOSE.

Commencement week of the Monrovia High School closed Saturday evening with a brilliant reception given in the Women's Clubhouse by the alumni association. Miss Minna Nelson delivered the address of welcome to which Hugh Cross, class of '06, responded. The farce-comedy, "An Interrupted Proposal" was presented under the direction of Miss Florence Jackson. Following this came "The Old Oaken Bucket," sung by Miss Millie Price, with tableaux of scenes in the song by other members of the association. Mr. Harry Evans class of '05, now a student of the State university, concluded the programme with "A Chalk Talk," in the course of which many of the faculty of the State university, with their well-known mannerisms and peculiarities accentuated, were made "to strut their little hour upon the stage" to the very audible enjoyment of the assemblage.

CLASS ALL PASSES.

The report of the Los Angeles county Board of Education, received today by Principal N. F. Smith, is to the effect that all of the twenty-six pupils in the eighth grammar-school grade have been successful in passing their High School entrance examinations. During the past year this class has been under the instruction of Prof. Wirt C. Williams, who has succeeded under adverse circumstances in greatly improving the standard of its work.

HE GOT THE HOUSE.

Late Saturday evening residents on West Lemon avenue witnessed a "breaking up of house keeping" that was literally so in every sense of the word. After a trial of six months Harvey Walton and his wife, formerly Miss Edna Duffy, agreed that marriage was a failure. The lot on which their home was built is the property of Mrs. Walton, but the house itself had been paid for by Walton. He affirms that she wished him to transfer to her a small bank account which was in his name. He refused and in the contentions that followed Mr. and Mrs. Duffy came to their daughter's assistance. Walton was invited to depart and there were no frills on the invitations. He was not loth to accept, but vowed not to go without his mansion, earned, he said, by the sweat of his brow.

Saturday, matters came to a crisis, and in the stilly night he hitched a span of mules to his residence, and hauled it away with him.

What Troubled Him.

A well-known Atlanta minister tells an amusing story of an Atlantan who has a wife with a sharp tongue.

Jones had come home about 2 o'clock in the morning rather the worse for a few highballs. As soon as he opened the door his wife, who was waiting for him in the accustomed place at the top of the stairs, where she could watch his uncertain ascent, started upbraiding him for his conduct.

Jones went to bed, and when he was almost asleep could hear her still scolding him unmercifully. He dropped off to sleep and awoke after a couple of hours, only to hear his wife remark:

"I hope all the women don't have to put up with such conduct as this."

"Annie," said Jones, "are you talking again or yet?"—[Atlanta Georgian.

CLASS OF THE Santa Ana High School, Sunday night, the Rev. J. L. Pitner propound a doctrine that proved interesting to the class, and to the general public, alike. Mr. Pitner held that all beginnings were interesting because of the prophecies they contained, and held out the belief that the most successful person in the world was the one who did his part the best. He contended that there was as much caste in America as elsewhere, if not more. He deprecated the struggle after dollars alone, and told how apparent failures were often the forerunners of success.

He claimed to have little sympathy for the man who was intensely practical and devoid of the more poetic emotions of a higher life. The speaker also contended that today was the most auspicious time of all the ages, and the opportunities of developments along the lines of nature were far greater than ever before. He said there were times when every man might be an agnostic, and that the man in the future would know more about the laws of nature, and its application to the human life than he does today.

On Wednesday night the graduating class will give a play in the Opera-house, and Friday the diplomas will be given out.

STOCKTON VISITORS.

Santa Ana was honored this afternoon by a visit from Hon. M. J. Gardner, Mayor of Stockton; R. C. Tumelty, City Engineer, and Cyrus Mereing, Sr., City Councilman and chairman of the Public Improvement Committee. The gentlemen spent several hours in visiting the City Hall, County Courthouse, public library and waterworks, and also in inspecting the system of streets. Mayor Gardner said he congratulated Santa Ana upon its municipal building and street improvements. He stated that on July 21 the people of Stockton would vote on a municipal bond issue of $700,000 for the purpose of erecting buildings, electric light plant, garbage crematory and for putting in street improvements, etc. The party returned to Los Angeles late this afternoon.

FOOTHILL FIRE.

Incidental to the excessive heat yesterday a fire broke out in the foothills just west of the county park. For several hours gangs of men fought the flames, and only after the hardest work was the fire kept from spreading into the park and through Santiago Cañon. A portion of the San Joaquin ranch was burned over, but none of the grain fields were injured to any extent. Quantities of wet grain sacks were used in fighting the fire, before it was gotten under control. The fire was still burning in places this morning, but it is believed that all danger of a conflagration is past.

GIRL'S ALARM SAVES A TRAIN.

NOTIFIES UNCLE OF HOW RAIL OF TRACK IS BROKEN.

Break Is Hurriedly Repaired Before Locomotive and Cars Thunder Past. Little Heroine Is Refugee from San Francisco—Spreckels May Buy National City and Otay Railroad.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A Santa Fé passenger train was saved from being wrecked yesterday by the action of a little San Francisco refugee, Maggie Sheedy, aged 10 years. While playing on the track near her uncle's home at Old Town, the diminutive heroine noticed that one of the rails was badly broken.

Leaving her playthings, the child ran quickly to the house and told her uncle of the break. He telephoned at once to the Santa Fé office, trackmen hurried to the scene and the damaged rail was replaced quickly with a new one. A few minutes later the southbound train thundered by on its way to this city.

It is acknowledged that the girl's alarm and its rapid response by the trackmen saved the passengers and crew of the train from disaster. Maggie received congratulations and praise today from everybody who met her for her heroic and timely work.

Maggie and her sister are orphans who lost all they possessed in the holocaust in San Francisco. While being cared for by the relief authorities there, the two girls decided to write to their uncle at Old Town, Mr. Sheedy. He received the letter which stated it was feared that Maggie would die unless she was removed to some other place and that they had no money to send her away.

A purse large enough to send the girl to Europe and back was raised here and Maggie came down. Her uncle's home is near the railway track where Maggie noticed the broken rail.

SPRECKELS TO BUY ROAD.

John D. Spreckels today confirmed the report that negotiations are pending for the purchase by himself of the National City and Otay Railroad, the mileage on which is twenty-seven miles, and whose southerly termin is is at the international boundary line at Tia Juana. It has also a branch track to the Sweetwater dam.

The road is considered one of the best paying railroad properties in this section. It passes through National City, paralleling the Santa Fé to that point, thence through the lemon belt of Chula Vista and Otay to the Mexican town on the line. B. P. Cheney of Boston, one of the principal owners in the Santa Fé, is president of the company and one of its largest owners.

The Spreckels Transportation Company today received the transfer of the Adams-street suburban street railway, the franchise of which was held by George Hawley.

Reynolds were today continued to Friday in the Superior Court. It was decided to call in an outside judge to try the case, Judge Bledsoe, Judge York and Judge Trask being suggested.

GRANT HOTEL PLANS.

The new plans of the U. S. Grant Hotel call for an outlay of $600,000. The central portion of the building will be nine instead of eight stories high, while the building will cover double the area originally projected. The area of the eighth and ninth floors has been more than doubled to again provide for the guest rooms eliminated on the second floor and in these two stories are located the ballroom, 60x100 feet, with stage at one end and refreshment room at the other.

Two additional roof gardens have been added. As soon as the excavations for footings, which are now being made, are completed, the construction of the building will be commenced. The official news of the going ahead with the enterprise is gladly received as the report had gained circulation that the construction might be postponed.

The telegram so rejoiced the sick woman that she became greatly excited, passing away soon after its arrival. When the father and son arrived at the depot here they were informed of the death of the wife and mother. Yesterday the men left for Colorado, escorting the body of Mrs. Steele to the old home.

Spouse of Juan Cuero Tries to Rescue Pet Dog from Drowning and Husband and Male Companion Bind Her to Stationary Holding — She Swears Out Warrant.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While engaged with another man and woman in a drunken orgy, Juan Cuero, an Indian residing near Arlington, is alleged to have tied his wife up by the neck and heels. His wife wanted to rescue a pet dog from an irrigation ditch, where it was drowning, the animal being unable to climb up the steep cement sides.

Cuero objected to the rescue, and when the woman persisted, he tied her up with a rope. Then the trio went away to continue their debauch.

The woman finally succeeded in getting loose, and today she swore out a warrant for the arrest of the two men.

WATCHING SMITH.

The Republicans of Riverside county are keenly watching the course of Congressman Smith on the conduit bill. His blind and unreasoning opposition in the first place to the measures gave great offense to a large number of his constituents here, who have interests in Southern California that would derive great benefit from the Owens River water. Smith's apparent change of front has been received here with satisfaction. He will probably get an indorsement from the county convention unless it becomes apparent that he will not give the Owens River project a square deal.

HUNDREDS FIGHT BIG GRAIN FIRE.

FOUR THOUSAND ACRES SWEPT BY SEAS OF FLAME.

City of San Bernardino Menaced by Many Near-by Blazing Fields of Hay, Stubble and Cereals—Loss of Twenty Thousand Dollars Falls on Company.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, June 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] More than 1000 acres of barley southwest of Rialto, valued at $20,000, was destroyed by fire today, and fears are entertained here tonight that the numerous field fires in this section will result in a conflagration in this city.

Three thousand acres of brush and stubble land near Declez were swept by flames yesterday, hundreds of men from Rialto, Colton, Bloomington, Etiwanda and other towns turning out and working almost incessantly all day yesterday and today to combat the progress of the raging flames.

Urgent calls for help were sent along the line of the Southern Pacific and Santa Fé, the former responding with 100 men from Colton, and along the track, while the Santa Fé sent all the section men available. Rialto turned out almost unanimously, all but the packing-houses being deserted.

FIRES MENACE CITY.

Fire Chief Stephens called upon the City Council tonight for 6000 feet of additional hose for the department. He reported to the Council that the situation had become serious, and that great precautionary measures were necessary to guard the safety of the city.

The barley destroyed today belonged to the Fontana Land and Water Company, composed of local capitalists, which a few weeks since took over the stock of the Fontana Development Company and the Globe Farming Company. Among the local and Colton people who are large shareholders are H. E. Harris, E. D. Roberts, N. B. Glasgow, W. W. Wilcox, E. J. Eisenmeyer, Attorney Thomas F. Keefe and others.

REPORT FIRES CONTROLLED.

It was reported here tonight that the main fires near this city had been brought under control. The fire broke out early yesterday, and but for the strenuous efforts made to save the fields of the Fontana Company, perhaps 3000 acres of grain belonging to other parties would have been consumed. The blaze started near where the harvesting forces were at work, and with great rapidity, spread through the acres of golden grain waiting for the harvester.

It was instantly appreciated that a great fire was threatening. The first move was to hitch the big traction thresher to a gang plow and a row of furrows was laid across the field some distance below where the fire started, while the quickly gathered force began to back-fire from this furrow. In this way, the flames were prevented from crossing the line thus drawn, and the remainder of the field was saved.

BARLEY YIELD HEAVY.

Much of this same tract would have been harvested yesterday but for the fire. The grain was insured for $10 an acre, but this is stated to be less than half of the value of the grain destroyed. It was running better than twenty sacks to the acre, and it is easy to figure the loss at more than $20,000, with insurance for about half that amount.

Another big fire started yesterday morning from an unknown cause on the west side of the Santa Fé track in Cajon Pass in the vicinity of Glen Helen Ranch. As the wind was blowing strongly from the north, it kept the flames from reaching the cultivated lands of the Glen Helen Ranch and the Kenwood Heights.

SAN JACINTO PARAGRAPHS.

SAN JACINTO, June 18.—A new time schedule went into effect today on the local branch line of the Santa Fé, which reduces the time on the afternoon trip from here to Los Angeles by twenty-five minutes. Passengers can leave here now at 1:10 p.m. and arrive in Los Angeles at 5:40 p.m., and without changing cars.

The Pasadena Packing Company expects to receive its first apricots tomorrow. The crop is good in this section and a high price is paid. The cannery probably will handle almost the entire peach, pear and apricot crop here this year, owing to the demand for canned fruits.

A number of horse races are scheduled for the Fourth of July, here.

The band stand has been moved to the City Park. Improvements will soon be made in the park.

The local hay crop is the largest in years, and although a considerable quantity has already been baled, little has been sold. The price is holding up well.

Prof. Frank Thilly, who holds the chair of philosophy at Princeton University will go to Cornell as a professor in the Sage school of philosophy this fall.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

The warm weather is affecting business in wholesale produce circles. Yesterday's volume was noticeably smaller, although dealers showed no inclination to complain.

The situation in eggs was unchanged. Local ranch are very scarce. They were steady at 23 cents a dozen for prime candled stock, with receipts by no means equal to demand. Some jobbers are looking for an advance in the prices the latter part of this week on account of the hot dry weather, which keeps the hens from laying. No eggs were offered for sale on Change yesterday. There are plenty of medium-grade eggs on the market, which sell usually for cent less than first-class offerings. The hot weather causes the medium-grade eggs to lose of poor quality, and dealers say they have a hard time disposing of them. Good eastern storage eggs are in splendid demand.

There was no alteration in the prices of butter last Saturday afternoon. Cheese is firm.

The general market for seasonable fresh fruits was fairly active yesterday. Apricots are firm, at 1.50@2.00. Peaches were in extremely light supply, at 1.50. Clymell plums sold readily at 1.60; Mikados, 1.75; Tragedies, 1.60. Cantaloupes were more plentiful and weaker. Standard crates, 3.00; ponies, 1.50; special crates, 4.00. Black figs weakened to 1.75 per box. White figs sold at 1.00@1.25. Berries were practically unchanged. Cherries were in limited supply. Watermelons were firmer, at 2.00 per sack. New potatoes are steady. Vegetables were without material change. Fish were equal to requirements.

The receipts of produce as reported for Saturday's and Sunday's exchanges were as follows: Eggs, 270 cases; butter, 31,281 lbs.; cheese, local, 3815 lbs.; potatoes, 635 sacks; onions, 10 sacks; beans, 61 sacks; sweet potatoes, none.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

STOCKS, BONDS AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 13.—Something was effected today towards arresting the declining tendency of prices of stocks which were steadily gaining force up to the close of last week. The market turned downward toward the last, however, and closed weak. With the early check to the fall there remained some uncovered short contracts to be covered, and this induced some rally in prices. The strength of the market from this cause was restricted to a few of the stocks which have been the favorites in the speculation. The demand became exceedingly languid when the rally made any headway and the tone continued hesitating and uncertain. The list as a whole was not affected at any time by the recovery. There were some conspicuous laggards and at other points positive weaknesses, and the close left the market unsettled and not fully responsive to the rallying tendency. Pennsylvania was a notable example of the persistent depression while a few other specialties leaders were advancing. A good effect was produced on sentiment, too, by the more definite character of the assertions that the Pennsylvania bond floatation in Paris had been completed, although no formal official notice of the fact was forthcoming during the stock exchange session. The successive delays in the completion of this transaction were an influence in the weakness of stocks last week. The result through of the operation is considered to have an important bearing upon the international exchange situation by the increase in the credits available for the market for the meeting of maturing obligations on finance bills. Paris financial markets were reported to be in a more cheerful temper today over the Russian outlook, although news of events in that country offered no clear explanation of this reported better feeling. Sterling exchange here was marked down in response to London. The local money market was not much changed in tone except that there was some relaxation in call loans from the stiffness caused by last week's large dividend requirements. The time money market however, was strong and rates were appreciably higher, seven and eight months money was reported in active demand and the supply was scarce, business being done at 5¼ per cent. and above. The rate demanded for six months loans also was 5 per cent. Stocks came here had not been large enough to shake confidence in the bull movement materially. A slight falling off in the general volume of traffic on the trunk line railroads was also indicated. Another violent reaction in the price of copper in London was a feature of the day's news, but did not prevent Amalgamated Copper from sharing in the day's show of strength. The pressure of liquidation in Pennsylvania increased greatly in the latter part of the day and affected the whole market in sympathy. The gains were very generally wiped out in consequence and the closing tone was weak. Sales were 1,092,600. Total sales, par value, $1,729,000. United States 3s, coupon, advanced ¼ per cent. on call.

NO SKATING ON SABBATH DAY?

LONG BEACH PEOPLE PETITION FOR RINKS TO CLOSE.

Many Young People Join in Request of Christians, Asking Proprietors of Roller Resorts to Close on Sunday. Latter Point to Fact That Worse Places Are Allowed to Run.

LONG BEACH, June 18.—The opening here of the skating rinks on Sunday has stirred the entire Christian community, and yesterday the following petition to the rink managers was circulated in all the Sunday-schools, and largely signed:

"We, the Christian young people of Long Beach, join our forces and send you this petition, asking that you keep your skating rinks closed during the Sabbath day, as we believe that if they are kept open they will be the means of keeping many away from the Sunday services. We patronize your places during the week, but on the Lord's Day ask you to keep them closed."

The rink people declined to make any statement until the matter is officially presented to them, but intimate that they will not be obstinate, at the same time calling attention to abuses of the Sabbath at other resorts in far worse forms, and that as a resort town, visitors come to enjoy the day as they will and ought not to be denied that amusement if they care to take it.

In all the churches yesterday the pastors protested, not only against the rinks, but against other forms of Sabbath desecration and the Ministerial Alliance took up the question at the meeting today with a view of organizing a campaign against work on Sunday. In the absence of a State Sunday closing law, they propose to work up a sentiment against profaning the Sabbath, and inaugurate a general crusade. Especially indignant are the preachers against a paving company whose teams were at work yesterday unloading gravel and rock on Pine avenue.

WELL, THEY MARRIED.

Two popular young people, well known in business circles of Santa Barbara, decided that Long Beach was just the place to be married, considering among other reasons that the uncle, aunt and sister of the groom live here. Saturday evening Miss Anna Patterson, a modiste and Henry Mattinger, a tailor, quietly left their native town, intending to stop at Los Angeles, accure the marriage license and be married at night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schlesmeyer. But they arrived in Los Angeles too late and came to the beach without the license and the wedding was declared off. They spent Sunday quietly, but impatiently and this morning left for Los Angeles on the first car, accompanied by their relatives, and were wed. Mr. and Mrs. Mattinger will spend a week in Pasadena, and then return home to Santa Barbara.

TAKE JACK-POTS THERE? AWFUL!

OFFICER'S HAND WINS IN ALHAMBRA GAME.

Pale-Faced Youths Play Star Part In Early Sunday Morning Raid. Whole Town Is Stirred and Courtroom Is Crowded When Sporty Youngsters Appear in Court.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

ALHAMBRA, June 18.—"Watch it grow—I'll see you and go you two bits better," said a young orange grower at 2 a.m. Sunday morning, as he shoved a stack of chips into the center of a table at W. E. Balm's joint in Alhambra.

"Alhambra, watch us go," said the deliveryman, as he tumbled backward out of his chair, and dove through the back window. Somebody was at the door, and in another moment Constable Hicks of El Monte won the jack-pot by showing a hand that was hard to beat.

An upset table, scattered chips and three pale-faced, well-known young men, o'ershadowed by a smiling deputy, depict a successful raid and a busted poker game.

Another case of the fever was discovered a few minutes later on South Garfield avenue in a vacant restaurant just below the bank, and the Constable smiled here, also, as he raked in a second jack-pot, presided over by Bert Boyd.

It was not because the Sabbath day was being broken, but because the law was being violated that the raids took place. Seven men were arrested on warrants sworn to by H. C. Brown of Dolgeville, and charging the defendants with being parties to a "banking and percentage game." The men are: The principals, Bert Boyd and W. E. Balms, and J. Murphy, G. Walles, L. Poage, Fred Cummings and A. Andrews. Two John Doe warrants have also been issued for window jumpers, who escaped.

The captives appeared before Justice W. M. Northrup here today. Murphy, Andrews and Balms decided to stand trial; the other four pleaded guilty and were fined $50 each. The whole town was stirred up, and the little courtroom was packed to suffocation with prominent citizens, interested in the outcome of the kitty game.

No one seems to understand just why H. C. Brown of Dolgeville swore to the complaints, and some say that it was because he did not approve of the "kitty," and others "because he was a singed cat." Poker has been popular at the growing town, but its boom is busted.

Constable Hicks finished his night's work by raiding an alleged road house at the corner of Wilson avenue and Mission road, run by Mrs. M. List, and a barn owned by C. Bugle and South Garfield avenue. It is claimed that liquor was being sold against the law at both places. Mrs. List and Bugle were arrested, and will appear tomorrow morning before Justice Williams of Alhambra.

IN THE FINALS AT HANDBALL.

DICK WELLCOME FORFEITS TO GORDO WHALEN.

Loomis and Moon Fight Hard Battle Hinged on Staying Qualities of Contestants — Garbutt Trims the Youngster and Loses One to Mitchell—Games Fast Despite Heat.

After two weeks of exciting and interesting play, the handball tournament at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, reached the finals yesterday and despite the sweltering heat the players fought out some great battles on the courts.

The schedule called for games between Garbutt and Mitchell, Hall and Hill, Loomis and Moon and Whalen and Wellcome. Garbutt and Loomis varied the programme by hooking up for a game, Dick Wellcome forfeited a game to Whalen, much to the joy of the latter, who reported out of condition. Garbutt got a winning streak on and defeated Loomis, and Hill reversed form by taking Hall down the line.

One of the hard-fought games of the day was between Loomis and Moon. The latter started out and secured a lead of 8 to 3. Then Loomis took a spurt and by a series of heady plays brought the score nine all. From this point on until the last four points were scored it was a red-hot battle. Loomis and his opponent were tired, but the youngster stuck gamely to his work, and by testing wind against wind, forged ahead to 12-9, then 17-12, where Moon seemed to play out from the terrific volley and cross-court work. The four last points were scored with Loomis "in," the ball being sent to the fatal left-hand corner of the court, out of reach of Moon.

The game between Garbutt and Loomis was also a fast, scientific affair, but the generalship and heady work of the father of the game won against the gameness of the younger man.

Hill had about the same proposition with Hall. The final scores are as follows:

Mitchell beat Garbutt, 21 to 13; Hill beat Hall, 21 to 10; Garbutt beat Loomis, 21 to 10; Loomis beat Moon, 21 to 12; Whalen beat Wellcome by default.

Charley Eyton was official referee and Joe Amostoy official scorer.

In another day the flood waters will all be out of the streets of Visalia. Dams were torn out yesterday and the bulk of the waters diverted into St. John's River. For six days, the major part of the city has been inundated.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

A HOST of friends will be interested in a quiet little wedding which is to take place this morning at 10:30 o'clock in St. John's Church, Miss Barbara M. Cooper becoming the bride of Dr. C. E. Phillips.

A little romance lies hidden beneath this wedding. Both young people are from Eau Clair, Wis., and are well known in the society of that place. The bride has been attending Stanford University for the past few years, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Cooper, have been spending the summers out here. Dr. Cooper determined to have his bride this summer, and so came West to win her and take her back; hence the pretty ceremony.

Dr. L. G. Morris is to officiate, and the church will be decked with greens and white blossoms on the altar. Prof. Waldo F. Chase will play the wedding march and soft music during the ceremony. The bride will wear a dainty gown of white silk made with elbow sleeves and trimmed with soft lace. With this will be worn a large picture hat trimmed with nodding plumes. She is to carry a white prayer book.

After the ceremony a breakfast is to be served at the temporary home of the bride's parents at No. 139 East Twenty-fourth street. Here the home has been decked with a profusion of Bermuda lilies and potted plants and ferns and on the bridal table white lilies and soft ferns are massed and a bride's cake and a groom's cake, both gorgeous affairs, occupy the ends of the table. Little Miss Lucile Shields in gown of fluffy white will shower flowers before the couple as they approach the altar.

Dr. Phillips and his bride will tour all the southern resorts near by, and then return and pass a few days in Los Angeles before leaving for their home in Eau Clair.

Miss Parker Weds.

Miss Grace Parker, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Parker, of No. 1726 South Bonnie Brae street, last evening became the bride of Leroy S. Enyeart, Rev. F. H. Enyeart, father of the groom, officiated. The wedding was a home one and about fifty friends were present. The home was decorated with a profusion of flowers and in the living-room, where the couple stood for the ceremony, a canopy of asparagus ferns, from which swung a lover's knot, was erected. White sweet peas, enmeshed in the soft greens, formed a pleasing contrast. In the dining-room, pink sweet peas and asparagus ferns in baskets were arranged and on the table a boat-shaped basket filled with the blossoms was most effective. In the parlors, asparagus ferns and white sweet peas graced the rooms. The porch, where punch was served, was in green and red. The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine trimmed with hand-made lace yoke and bertha. She carried lilies of the valley and her veil was fastened with lillies of the valley. Miss Katherine Parker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a dainty gown of old rose poplin silk and carried white sweet peas. Little Miss Dorothy Lucille Rockhill, dressed in white, strewed rose petals before the couple. Olaf Sundin was best man. Miss Wynette Bailey was in charge of the wedding music. She played the Mendelssohn march and soft music through the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home for the present at No. 726 South Bonnie Brae street.

The bride was arrayed in snowy white and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Orange blossoms formed a coronet in her hair. The couple are spending their honeymoon at Avalon and on their return will be at home to their friends at Hotel Alvarado.

The living-room and reception hall were in white carnations and ferns and potted plants, and in the dining-room a pretty effect was gained by the use of red Shirley poppies and green ivy. The bride was gowned in a dainty frock of cream peau de soie, trimmed in rich lace and made princesse. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a large cluster of bride's roses. Her sister, Miss Violet McDonald, was maid of honor, and wore a pretty princesse gown of blue lansdowne. Harrison McDonald was best man. The wedding music was played by Miss Agnes Bulsseret, and included the Mendelssohn wedding march and "Call Me Thine Own" during the ceremony. Only relatives and intimate friends were present.
